Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications for the following positions are available from the appropriate academic department or from the Office of the Dean of Students. Information can also be accessed from the Cal Poly home page on the World Wide Web (address: www.calpoly.edu; click on "General Information").

STATE (Adm., 11th, ext. 2236 or job line at ext. 6-1533). Official application forms must be received by 4 pm on the closing date or as posted by the marked date. (No faxes.)

#99076: Coordinator of Athletic Marketing and Promotions (Fulltime, Assistant I) Athletics (Unit 9), Temporary (6 hrs/wk) Aug. 16, 2000-2002; extension dependent upon funds. Closing date: March 17.

#93077: Full-Time Lecturer, Agricultural Business Department (756-5000 or 5009). Part-time appointments possible during the 1999-2000 academic year (fall, winter, and/or spring quarters). Primary responsibilities are to teach in core subject areas of a) professional practice; b) site analysis, planning and design; c) landscape architectural construction; d) materials of construction; e) design fundamentals. Must have master's or candidate's degree in the above fields. Official Cal Poly application, resume, official transcripts from all colleges attended, and three letters of recommendation must be received by closing date: April 5.

#93077: Full-Time Lecturer, Agricultural Business Department (756-5000 or 5009). Non-tenure track academic year position available for the 1999-2000 academic year. Primary teaching responsibility is to teach in core subject areas of economics and agricultural policy. Master's degree required. Agricultural industry experience and teaching at the university level required. Good communication skills required. Apply to Robert Thompson, Faculty Search Committee, Agricultural Business Department (request application by calling: fax 756-5040; or e-mail rthompson@calpoly.edu). Refer to Recruitment Code #93077 on all application materials. Official Cal Poly application, resume, official transcripts from all colleges attended, and three letters of recommendation must be received by closing date: April 5.

#93078: Lecturer Pool (part-time), Speech Communication Department (756-2553). Part-time appointments possible during the 1999-2000 academic year (fall, winter, and/or spring quarters). Possible opportunities to teach lower division courses in critical thinking, public speaking and principles of speech communication. Must have a baccalaureate degree and good college teaching experience and a master's degree in appropriate field (usually speech communication). Successful college teaching experience and a master's degree in appropriate field (usually speech communication) required. Submit application, résumé, references of three letters of reference and official transcripts to Jim Conway, Chair. Closing date: March 31.

... D A T E L I N E ...

Monday, March 8 (continued)

Tuesday, March 9 (continued)

International Women's Day Fair: Video and exhibits, UU 215, 219, 8 pm.
Speaker: Philip Yang (Ethnic Studies).
"Chinese Culture Through Study of Chinese Food," UU Gallery, 7 pm.
Dance: River North Dance Company, Theatre of the Arts, 8 pm. Also Wednesday.
March 10 (3).
Music: RSVP Electronic Student Recital, Music Recital Center, 7:30 pm.
Baseball: Temple U., SLO Stadium, 1 pm.
Softball: UC Bakersfield, Softball Field, noon and 2 pm.
Baseball: Temple U., SLO Stadium, 1 pm.
Softball: UC Bakersfield, Softball Field, noon and 2 pm.
March 11 (3).
Music: Trio Vanguard, BackStage Cafe, 8 pm.
Baseball: Temple U., SLO Stadium, 3 pm.
Music: David Ross & The Wally, BackStage Cafe, 8 pm.

EX-NEH chair Hackney to speak 5 March

Sheldon Hackney, former chair of the National Endowment for the Humanities and president emeritus of the University of Pennsylvania, will give the keynote speech at an open forum and workshop, March 5, that is part of a weeklong series designed to engage campus leaders in a dialogue on issues pertaining to Cal Poly's future.

Hackney will draw on the National Conversation initiative he led at NEH to talk about the factors that both inhibit and encourage an institution's search for common purpose and shared vision, according to Paul Zing, provost and vice president for academic affairs.

While the notion of the NEH, Hackney said, "caught the nation for the recovery of cultural heritage," and the scholarship will be $300, to be awarded in August for full quarter. A Cal Poly Staff Scholarship Committee will select applications and select recipients.

Applications are due Friday, April 9. For more information and an application, call Pat Broering at ext. 6-2675.

... Hungry, homelessness focus of weeklong event ...

A banquet with a twist, a food drive, a day of fasting, and panel discussions on hunger and homelessness will be part of Cal Poly's first Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week from Monday through Saturday, March 1-6.

Sponsored by Beyond Shelter, a Student Community Services project, the event is designed to increase awareness about the issues of hunger and homelessness in San Luis Obispo, as well as expand outreach and public involvement in the community and with local agencies.

The week will kick off with a Hunger Banquet that will include diners.

Exhibit:

University Art Gallery (Dean's "exposures," through March 4. Daily 11 am-4 pm.
Wednesday, July 7.

Wednesday, March 3

Lyeum: Jose Novikovich (University of Cincinnati) will read, talk about plight of the Balkans, Phillips Hall, PAC 7, pm.
Music: Harry Belafonte, Cohan Center, 1 pm.

Thursday, March 4

Music: Student recital, Davidson Music Center 112, 11 am.
Music: Academy of S. Martin in the Fields, Cohen Center: Pre-concert lecture 7 pm, Philips Hall; concert, Harman Hall, 8 pm. (5)
Play: "Romeo and Juliet," Theatre, 8 pm.

Friday, March 5

Presentation: Darwyn Talay, Chief Librarian, "Explore GIS Opportunities on Campus," Library, Room 111-H, noon.
Play: "Romeo and Juliet," Theatre, 8 pm.
Alsol March 5, 6 (5).

Saturday, March 6

Softball: UC Bakersfield, Softball Field, noon and 2 pm.
Baseball: Temple U., SLO Stadium, 1 pm.
Softball: UC Bakersfield, Softball Field, noon and 2 pm.

March 7

Music: Trio Vanguard, BackStage Cafe, 8 pm.
Baseball: Temple U., SLO Stadium, 3 pm.
Music: David Ross & The Wally, BackStage Cafe, 8 pm.

... Continued on page 2 ...

PAGE 4
...Hunger
(Continued from page 1)
speaker, and a videotape. The banquet holds many surprises, according to Lisa Freeman, office manager for Student Life and Activities’ Community Service and Leadership Center.

Several homeless people will participate in two panel discussions scheduled from 7 to 8 pm Tuesday, March 2 and Thursday, March 4, both in the Sierra Madre Residence hall. Panelists will tell their personal stories and field questions from the audience.

A “Fast to End World Hunger” is planned to benefit the Salvation Army’s community service benefiting the Ecosystems Opportunity Commission’s Homeless Shelter at the Paso Robles Day Center will be based March 6.

A food drive will run through the week.

For more information, call Freeman at
ext. 6-5834.

Final winter quarter Physics Colloquium set Physics students Ray Lee, Bob Mathews and Vania Maldonado will discuss their recent second-place win in a computer science competition during the final winter quarter Physics Colloquium set on Tuesday, March 9 in Science E4-5. The students, Cal Poly’s Gold Pro-grade Team, recently beat 45 Western universities, including such schools as Caltech, in the California regional counsel of the 1998-99 Association for Computing Machinery International Collegiate Programming Contest. Harvey Mudd’s team was the only team that finished before Cal Poly.

For more information on the talk, call physics professor David Hafemeister at
ext. 2-2005.

Retirement reception
A retirement reception for Fred Stultz, professor in the Psychology and Human Development Department, is planned from 11 am to noon Thursday, March 11, in the Math and Science Building, Room 114.

Participation sought in safety questionnaire To identify campuswide safety concerns, the Kennedy Library has developed a safety questionnaire to be completed by the faculty and staff.

The questionnaire can be picked up at the library and at the Health Center or on-line at: http://calpoly.lib/calpoly.
et/vform.

Completed questionnaires should be returned to the library or Health Center by Friday, March 12.

Ticket information
Tickets to the performances listed in today’s Cal Poly Report are on sale today at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 am to 6 pm weekdays and from 10 am to 4 pm Saturdays.
Cal Poly Report (ext. 6-5787), by fax (ext. 6-6088). Information on Cal Poly Arts events can be found at www.calpolysports.org.

Cal Poly Bands to perform ‘Just Jazz’ March 13

Red Holloway, a master of improvisational saxophone, will join the University
Jazz Band and manages the Cal Poly Jazz Combos in a concert titled “Just Jazz” on Saturday, March 13.
This second annual Jazz Festival will begin at 8 pm in the Theatre.

Holloway, of Cambria, is no stranger to Cal Poly. He has played with the legends Billie Holiday, Lionel Hampton, and Aretha Franklin. The Ethnography School of the Band, the Cal Poly Vocal Ensemble will perform a selection of their greatest hits.

The ensembles will be directed by Music Department faculty members
Bill Johnson and Thomas Davies.

Third-year music student Christine Tavares will perform with the University Jazz Band.

Tickets to the concert cost $7 to $10.
The concert is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and Music Department.
For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

661 area code added
A new telephone area code, 661, has been added to the geographical area that was covered by 805.

The 805 area code will continue to serve most of San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Kern, and Ventura counties.

Detailed information on prefixes that moved to the 661 area code is available at http://www.pacbell.com/about-pb/arccodes-661.html.

Although the use of the 661 area code has already begun, both 805 and 661 will work until Aug. 14. After that, the new area code must be used.

Remember to reset phone numbers with the correct 661 area code on pre-programmed PC modem speed and fast-dial numbers.

Contact Telephone Administration,
ext. 6-2671, or visit http://www.telad.
min.calpoly.edu for more information.

CAPTURE, Mustanginfo information clarified
Students can obtain their grades via
CAPTURE (ext. 6-2787) and Mustanginfo
info.calpoly.edu from 7 am to 7 pm.

Camping Dining posts spring break hours
Hours are unchanged until March 18.
The vending cellar is always open.

CAPTURE, Mustanginfo information clarified
Students can obtain their grades via
CAPTURE (ext. 6-2787) and Mustanginfo
info.calpoly.edu from 7 am to 7 pm.

Engineering students go into community
Cal Poly engineering students showed youngsters at Teach Elementary School
how to investigate the beginnings of flight by building paper kites, paper-bag space helmets, and a model of the Hubble telescope as part of National Engineers Week.

“For flight through the Ages,” sponsored by the Engineering Student Council and Society of Women Engineers, featured one of many activities that took place during the week.

Students also displayed a modified
tractor and Cal Poly’s new solar car, set up interactive exhibits and toured the various activities at the Farmers’ Market downtown.

National Engineers Week is designed to generate interest in technology, science
and mathematics and to show what ingeneering is all about.

In addition, engineering students took part in Engineering Olympics, a bowling night, a basketball tournament, and information sessions offered by industry giants as Silicon Graphics, Applied
Materials, and Raytheon Systems.

The week concluded with the “Engineering
With Industry” banquet at which more than $7,000 in student scholarships were awarded — more scholarships than at any previous Engineering Week.

Eight companies including Parker
Hannifin, TRW, Adaptec, Fluor Daniel,
Boeing, Microsoft, and Robert Bein,
William Frost and Associates sponsor this event.

In addition, Hewlett-Packard
sponsors the Outstanding Woman
Engineer awards.

Managing language pests
focus of June conference
Gardening aficionados can join with industry professionals as they pick up
their latest take on managing language
pests during the Integrated Pest Management Conference June 14-15
in the College of Business and Cultural
Science was the only team that
finished before Cal Poly.

For more information, call Freeman at
ext. 6-5834.

*Restaurant may be open in conjuntion with
the awards.

Department at ext. 6-2406 or view the
info.calpoly.edu) from 7 am to 7 pm.

*Restaurant may be open in conjuntion with
the awards.

CAPTURE, Mustanginfo information clarified
Students can obtain their grades via
CAPTURE (ext. 6-2787) and Mustanginfo
info.calpoly.edu from 7 am to 7 pm.

Camping Dining posts spring break hours
Hours are unchanged until March 18.
The vending cellar is always open.

CAPTURE, Mustanginfo information clarified
Students can obtain their grades via
CAPTURE (ext. 6-2787) and Mustanginfo
info.calpoly.edu from 7 am to 7 pm.

Engineering students go into community
Cal Poly engineering students showed youngsters at Teach Elementary School
how to investigate the beginnings of
flight by building paper kites, paper-
bag space helmets, and a model of the Hubble telescope as part of National Engineers Week.

“For flight through the Ages,” sponsored by the Engineering Student Council and Society of Women Engineers, featured one of many activities that took place during the week.

Students also displayed a modified
tractor and Cal Poly’s new solar car,
set up interactive exhibits and
toured the various activities at the
Farmers’ Market downtown.

National Engineers Week is designed
to generate interest in technology, science
and mathematics and to show what ingeneering is all about.

In addition, engineering students took part in Engineering Olympics, a bowling night, a basketball tournament, and
information sessions offered by industry giants as Silicon Graphics, Applied
Materials, and Raytheon Systems.

The week concluded with the “Engineering
With Industry” banquet at which more than $7,000 in student scholarships were awarded — more scholarships than at any previous Engineering Week.

Eight companies including Parker
Hannifin, TRW, Adaptec, Fluor Daniel,
Boeing, Microsoft, and Robert Bein,
William Frost and Associates sponsor this event.

In addition, Hewlett-Packard
sponsors the Outstanding Woman
Engineer awards.

Managing language pests
focus of June conference
Gardening aficionados can join with industry professionals as they pick up
their latest take on managing language
pests during the Integrated Pest Management Conference June 14-15
in the College of Business and Cultural
Science was the only team that
finished before Cal Poly.

For more information, call Freeman at
ext. 6-5834.

*Restaurant may be open in conjuntion with
the awards.

Department at ext. 6-2406 or view the
info.calpoly.edu) from 7 am to 7 pm.

*Restaurant may be open in conjuntion with
the awards.
International Women’s Day to be celebrated March 8-9

A panel discussion looking at cross-cultural issues and a fair focusing on women’s experiences will commemorate International Women’s Day at Cal Poly. The Women’s Studies Program is sponsoring “Women in a Cross-Cultural Perspective” from 11:30 am to 1 pm Monday, March 8, and an International Women’s Day Fair from 1 to 3 pm on Tuesday, March 9.

The panel will include three women from Cal Poly’s cross-cultural experiences. The panelists will be invited to participate in a dialogue on cross-cultural issues. The panel will be held in the Veranda Cafe (formerly the Staff Dining Room) on campus.

The fair, scheduled in UU 218 and 219, will feature exhibits, videos and other information about women’s experiences in different cultures.

The fair will be presented by students enrolled in the Women in a Cross-Cultural Perspective course.

International Women’s Day is designated to celebrate ordinary women who have made history.

For more information, call the Women’s Studies Program office at ext. 6-1525.

Final winter quarter Physics Colloquium set

Physics students Ray Lee, Bob Mathews and Vania Maldonado will discuss their recent second-place win in a computer science competition during the final winter quarter Physics Colloquium sponsored by the Cal Poly Jazz Combos in a concert titled “Just Jazz” on Saturday, March 13.

The concerts are sponsored by the Cal Poly Vocal Ensemble and the University Singers, with additional help from the University Wind Band, the Cal Poly Jazz Combos, and the University Singers.

The evening will begin at 8 pm in the theatre. A reception will follow at 9:30 pm. Tickets are $5 at the door. For more information, call ext. 6-2671.

661 area code added

A new telephone area code, 661, has been added to the geographical area that was covered by 805.

The 805 area code will continue to serve most of San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties.

Detailed information on prefixes that moved to the 661 area code is available at http://www.pacbell.com/about/ph/areacode/areacodes-805.html.

Although the use of the 661 area code has already begun, both 805 and 661 will work until Aug. 14. After that date, the new area code must be used.

Remember to reprogram phones with the correct 661 area code on pre-programmed PC modem software and speed dial numbers.

Contact Telephone Administration, ext. 6-2671, or visit http://www.telad.min.calpoly.edu for more information.

Engineering students go into community

Cal Poly engineering students showed developers at Teach Elementary School how to investigate the beginnings of flight by building paper kites, paper bag space helmets, and a model of the Hubble telescope as part of National Engineers Week.

"Flight through the Ages," sponsored by the Engineering Student Council and Society of Women Engineers, was just one of many activities that took place during the week.

Students also displayed a modified tractor and Cal Poly’s new solar car, set up interactive exhibits and hosted other activities as part of the Eller Farmers’ Market downtown.

National Engineers Week is designed to promote interest in technology, science and mathematics and to show what engineering is all about.

InCal Poly, engineering students took part in Engineering Olympics, a bowling night, a basketball tournament, and information sessions offered by such industry giants as Silicon Graphics, Applied Materials, and Raytheon Systems.

Tickets to the conference are being sold at the "Summer Night With Industry" banquet at which more than $7,000 in student scholarships were awarded — more scholarships than at any previous Night With Industry.

Eight companies including Parker Hannifin, TRW, Adaptec, Fluor Daniel, Boeing, Microsoft, and Robert Bein, William Frost and Associates sponsor the event.

In addition, Hewlett-Packard sponsors the Outstanding Woman Engineer awards.

Probationary faculty eligible for grants

Probationary faculty members are invited to submit proposals for funds to support their research, the few conferences held nationwide that concentrate specifically on the ornamental horticulture industry.

This year’s program will include regulatory updates, a mini-symposium on pest and animal-related issues, and a "how-to" break-out groups on a number of topics.

The conference involves both the Environmental Horticultural and Crop Science departments, as well as speakers and presenters from industry, government and UC Cooperative Extension.

Continuing education credits are available for post-graduate advisors and growers enrolled in the Women’s Studies Program.

Registration is $150 if paid before April 1, $175 thereafter. For more information, contact conference coordinator and environmental horticulture professor Robert Rice at ext. 6-2689 or at rice@calpoly.edu.

Cal Poly Bands to perform "Just Jazz" March 9

Red Holloway, a master of improvisational saxophone, will join the University Singers, the University Wind Band, the Cal Poly Vocal Ensemble and the University Singers in a concert titled “Just Jazz” on Saturday, March 13.

The concerts are sponsored by the Cal Poly Vocal Ensemble and the University Singers, with additional help from the University Wind Band, the Cal Poly Jazz Combos, and the University Singers.

The evening will begin at 8 pm in the theatre. A reception will follow at 9:30 pm. Tickets are $5 at the door. For more information, call ext. 6-2671.
Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications for the following positions are available from the appropriate office. Please submit application materials to the designated office unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications, experience, and time-in-field applicable, unless otherwise stated.

#3044: Lecturer Part-time, Landscape Architecture Department (756-2553). Part-time appointments available during the 1999-2000 academic year (fall, winter, and/or spring quarters). Primary responsibilities are to teach courses in the core subject area of a) professional practice; b) site analysis, planning, and design; c) landscape architectural construction; and d) materials of construction; e) design fundamentals. Must have master's degree in bachelor's degree in landscape architecture or related field, and teaching and/or practice experience. Apply to Search Committee, Landscape Architecture Department. Closing date: April 5.

#3076: Full-Time Lecturer, Agribusiness Department (756-5000 or 756-5009). Non-tenure track academic year position available for the 1999-2000 academic year. Primary teaching responsibility is to teach upper division courses in economics and agricultural policy. Master's degree required. Agricultural industry experience and teaching at the university level required. Good communication skills required. Apply to Robert Thompson, Faculty Search Committee, Agribusiness Department (request application by calling; fax 756-5040; or e-mail rcthomps@calpoly.edu). Refer to Recruitment Code #93076 on all application materials. Official Cal Poly application forms, resume, official transcripts from all colleges attended, and three letters of recommendation must be received by closing date: April 5.

#3078: Lecturer Part-time, Speech Communication Department (756-2553). Part-time appointments available during the 1999-2000 academic year (fall, winter, and/or spring quarters). Possibilities includes to teach lower division courses in critical thinking, public speaking and principles of speech communication. Essential college teaching experience and a master's degree in appropriate field (usually speech communication/communication). Must have valid DVM and be qualified to meet the license requirements for California. Contact the department for additional information, or see http://academics.personnel.calpoly.edu/facpositions.html. Closing date: May 30.

#3091: Full-time Lecturer, Agribusiness Department (756-5000 or 5009). Non-tenure track academic year position available for two years beginning fall 1999. Primary teaching responsibility is in international agricultural trade; agribusiness marketing planning; and agribusiness sales, communication, and leadership. Master's degree required. Agricultural sales and international marketing experience required. Teaching at the university level preferred. Good communication skills required. Apply to Robert Thompson, Faculty Search Committee, Agribusiness Department (request application by calling: fax 756-5040; or e-mail rcthomps@calpoly.edu). Refer to Recruitment Code #93076 on all application materials. Official Cal Poly application forms, resume, official transcripts from all colleges attended, and three letters of recommendation must be received by closing date: April 5.

#3097: Full-Time Lecturer, Agriculture Department (756-5000 or 5009). Non-tenure track academic year position available for the 1999-2000 academic year. Teaching responsibilities include teaching at the university level required. Good communication skills required. Apply to Robert Thompson, Faculty Search Committee, Agriculture Department (request application by calling; fax 756-5040; or e-mail rcthomps@calpoly.edu). Refer to Recruitment Code #93076 on all application materials. Official Cal Poly application forms, resume, official transcripts from all colleges attended, and three letters of recommendation must be received by closing date: April 5.

...DATELINE...

Tuesday, March 9 (continued)

International Women's Day Fair: Vidah and exhibits, UI, 2128, 9:30 am.
Dance: River North Dance Company, Thiele, UI, 9 pm.
Music: Dogwood Moon, BackStage Pizza, noon.

Wednesday, March 10

Music: Dogwood Moon, BackStage Pizza, noon.
Dance: River North Dance Company, (Continued on page 1)

Hunger, homelessness focus of weekend event

A banquet with a twist, a food drive, a day of fasting, and panel discussions on hunger and homelessness are part of Cal Poly's first Hunger and Homeless Awareness Week from Monday through Saturday, March 1-6. Sponsored by Beyond Shelter, a Student Community Services project, the event is designed to increase awareness about the issues of hunger and homelessness in San Luis Obispo, as well as expand student and public involvement in the community and with local agencies.

The week will kick off with a Hunger Banquet that will include a dance, (Continued on page 2)