ACADEMIC SENATE
of
CALIFORNIA POLYTECHNIC STATE UNIVERSITY
San Luis Obispo, CA

AS-670-08

RESOLUTION COMMENDING BRUNO GIBERTI
AS ACADEMIC SENATE CHAIR

- WHEREAS, Bruno Giberti is the first faculty member from the College of Architecture to serve as Academic Senate Chair; and
- WHEREAS, Bruno used his architectural training to commence restructuring the Academic Senate into a bigger and better model of itself; and
- WHEREAS, Bruno was able to craft six hours of work into two-hour meetings, leaving behind tome-length agenda resembling the Dead Sea Scrolls; and
- WHEREAS, Bruno reduced deliberation gridlock by improving access to a greater range of ideas; and
- WHEREAS, Bruno saw collegiality and inclusive governance as principles of Smart Growth; and
- WHEREAS, Bruno showed a respect for individual opinions while at the same time attempting to build consensus on issues of common concern; and
- WHEREAS, Bruno displayed extraordinary patience in allowing the Senate to take its own course of action in deliberating issues of conflict and controversy; and
- WHEREAS, Bruno proved that forethought, respect, and grace can be better parliamentary tools than Robert's Rules of Order; and
- WHEREAS, Bruno will be remembered for his uncommon integrity, quiet diplomacy, clarity of thought, and articulate leadership; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate express its sincere thanks and appreciation to Bruno Giberti for his dedicated commitment to the Academic Senate and the University; and
- RESOLVED: That he be recognized for his contributions by having a copy of this resolution placed in the minutes of the Academic Senate and a plaque presented to him as a symbol of appreciation for exceptional leadership.
