Position vacancies

Position vacancies to the department head/chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are negotiable with qualifications, experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

#OM84: Director of Advancement (Administrator II), College of Architecture and Environmental Design. Closing date: position is open until filled. For full consideration all application materials should be submitted by Oct. 13. Salary: $45,000-$65,000 annual hiring range commensurate with qualifications and experience.

READVERTISEMENT:

#OM88: Nurse Practitioner, Head of Nursing Services (Administrator II), Student Affairs, Health & Psychological Services. Closing date: position is open until filled. For full consideration application materials should be submitted by Nov. 10. Salary range: $56,400-$72,000 annual hiring range dependant on qualifications and experience.

#OM23: Predoctoral Internship (Helpmate) Health and Counseling Services. Closing date: position is open until filled. Application review will begin Dec. 1. Salary: The annual compensation for full-time is $15,000 ($1,250/month) and includes employee benefits of vacation time, sick leave, and health insurance. The Cal Poly Health and Counseling Services Center is a member of the Association of Psychology Training and Internship Centers (APIC) and the Association of Counseling Center Training Agencies (ACCTA). Participants in the Cal Poly Predoctoral Internship Program receive two hours of individual supervision, a weekly case conference, seminars addressing professional specialization training in such areas as assessment, diagnosis, treatment of disorders, sexual abuse, trauma recovery, ethics and the law, multicultural counseling, stress management and organizational consultation. Additional training in the university’s Employee Assistance Program is also available. The position: There are approximately 12-month positions available beginning July 1, 2000. One position is in Counseling Services and one is in the Employee Assistance Program. These positions receive supervised clinical experiences in individual and group therapy, crisis intervention, outreach, health psychology, consultation, and prevention education. Direct specific inquiries about the position to Elisa Axelforth, training coordinator, Health and Counseling Services, ext. 6-2511.

FACULTY (Adm. 312, ext. 6-2644)

Candidates interested in faculty positions are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the above number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head/chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are negotiable with qualifications, experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

#OM88: Full-Time Lecturer, Physical Education & Kinesiology (756-2545) Closing date: Dec. 15. Full-time position available for 2000-2001 academic year (salary $33,792-$46,488). Teach classes in biomechanics, advanced biomechanics, and professional activities. Supervise undergraduate field experience and research. Requires M.S. in appropriate field; Ph.D. and college teaching preferred. To be considered, applicants must submit the following (referencing recruitment #008101 on all correspondence): 1) completed any application form; 2) two letters of recommendation to Gerald DeMars, head, P.E. & Kinesiology Department (fax 736-7273).

FOUNDATION (Foundation Adm. Building, ext. 6-7817/7818). All application materials must be received (not just postmarked) by 5 p.m. of the closing date. (No faxes.)

READVERTISEMENT:

Bakery, Bake Shop, $9.50 - $12.35/hr. Requires: high school degree or equivalent. Minimum of one year experience as a journey level baker, preferably in a large scale, variety bake shop. Must be able to handle from scratch; using ovens, mixers, dough shapers, fryers, measuring devices, and kitchen cutlery. Must be able to maintain a safe and valid California Driver’s license and be able to lift and carry 50 lbs. Closing date: position is open until filled; review of applications begins Nov. 5.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS INC. (is accepting applications for the following positions). Candidates interested in faculty positions are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the above number listed for more information and an application.

Position description and applications are available at the ASI Business Office, University Union, Room 212, M-F, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., ext. 6-1281. All applications must be received by 5 pm of the closing date. A.A.R.D.

Information Technology Manager Open until filled, review of applications will begin Nov. 1. Salary range: $37,771 - $53,450/yr. Full-time. Responsible for maintenance, installation, and development of enterprise network utilizing Novell 4.11, Windows NT 4.0 and Unix. Manage Web server and its content, maintain archival storage and network security; develop and manage operational procedures and IT budget; supervise computer support staff. Requires B.S. in computer science, business, or related field; 3 years’ related experience. Complete position description and applications available at ASI Business Office.

Coordinator of Aquatics & Summer Programs, Recreational Sports. Open until filled. Review of applications will begin Nov. 1. Salary range: $3,102 - $4,188/month, full-time. Under the supervision of the director of recreational sports, provides oversight and supervision for a staff of lifeguards and water safety instructors. Works directly with professional and student staff to develop and implement summer programs for children and aquatics programming for the campus community. Requires bachelor’s degree, two years’ progressively responsible student services work experience, and current applicable American Red Cross certification. Must have degree and two years’ post in-tut degree work experience preferred.

Program Coordinator, Fitness Programs, Recreational Sports. Open until filled. Review of applications will begin Nov. 1. Salary range: $3,102 - $4,188/month, full-time. Under the supervision of the director of recreational sports, provides oversight and direct supervision of instructional programs, personal fitness, and exercise room management. Works closely with professional and student staff to plan and coordinate all fitness and instructional activities. Requires master’s degree and two years’ progressively responsible student services work experience; experience in supervising and instructing participants in a fitness environment; preferred: certification in personal instruction or degree in kinesiology. Two years’ post-graduate’s degree work experience preferred.

Ride sharers credits to Express cards delayed

Commute Services wants "registered" ride sharers to know that stipends to Camps Express cards held in mid-summer in July, August and September will not be available until mid-November. Ride sharers will be notified when cards are credited. 0

Only vacation credits can be donated to Ramos

Only vacation credits may be donated to Judy Ramos; administrative support coordinator in Academic Records, because her leave is for family illness.

Donation form.

To donate leave, contact Party Warnick-Wait in Academic Records at ext. 6-2723 or by e-mail to the Catastrophic Leave Donation form.

New this year: CSEA employees (Units 2, 5, 7 and 9) may donate up to 16 hours.

Baker, Zingg on talk为基础的会议

President Baker and Provost Zingg will hold an open forum on the current reaccreditation process 11 a.m. - noon today in UU 220.

A special session of the Academic Senate to address reaccreditation will also be planned 3–5 p.m. Nov. 9 in UU 220.

Every nine years Cal Poly undergoes an accreditation review by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WSCA). The next accreditation visit will be in March 2000.

Tuesday, this week, several committees of faculty and staff members have been working on a Cal Poly Self-Study. The campus community is invited to review and comment on the Self-Study for line at http://www.calpoly.edu/reports.

Bakery, Zingg on talk为基础的会议

President Baker and Provost Zingg will hold an open forum on the current reaccreditation process 11 a.m. - noon today in UU 220.

A special session of the Academic Senate to address reaccreditation will also be planned 3–5 p.m. Nov. 9 in UU 220.

Every nine years Cal Poly undergoes an accreditation review by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WSCA). The next accreditation visit will be in March 2000.

Tuesday, this week, several committees of faculty and staff members have been working on a Cal Poly Self-Study. The campus community is invited to review and comment on the Self-Study for line at http://www.calpoly.edu/reports.

Cal Poly Report

State, Foundation and ASI permanent and probationary staff members are invited to submit applications to fill two vacancies on the Cal Poly Plan Steering Committee.

The Appointment Committee, chaired by Dr. McDonald, director of human resources and employee equity, will screen the applications and forward recommendations to President Baker.

Candidates are asked to submit a brief statement of interest, should have satisfied all minimum entry requirements and be in good standing.

An email sent to the selection committee that indicates in page 6 in this edition of the Cal Poly Report solicitation article incorrectly stated that both vacation and sick leave credits could be donated.

To donate leave, contact Party Warnick-Wait in Academic Records at ext. 6-2723 or by e-mail to the Catastrophic Leave Donation form.

New this year: CSEA employees (Units 2, 5, 7 and 9) may donate up to 32 hours per fiscal year in increments of one hour or more.

Donation form.

To donate leave, contact Party Warnick-Wait in Academic Records at ext. 6-2723 or by e-mail to the Catastrophic Leave Donation form.

New this year: CSEA employees (Units 2, 5, 7 and 9) may donate up to 32 hours per fiscal year in increments of one hour or more.
Memorial scholarship created for Don Floyd

A memorial scholarship has been named for Don Floyd, a retired social sciences professor. The scholarship is to support the CSU's International Programs who died earlier this year. In honor of his commitment to international education, his widow, Yvonne, has set up a scholarship fund in his name as a Mid-State Bank for an International Programs applicant at Cal Poly. Anyone wanting to contribute to the scholarship or needing more information should contact Marilyn Yok at ext. 6-5694 <myok@calpoly.edu>.

CPR schedule change

Because campus will be closed on Veterans' Day, Nov. 11, and Thanksgiving, Nov. 25-26, we've had to move the deadlines to submit articles for two issues of the Cal Poly Report.

For the Nov. 17 Cal Poly Report, we need items by 10 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 10, and for the December report by 10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 23. The e-mail address is <polynews@polymail>.calpoly.edu.

———

CAL POLY REPORT, OCTOBER 27, 1999

The Mad Scientists team from the Chemistry and Biochemistry and Physics departments won the championship in the senior and faculty category of the 2nd annual Mark S. Reuling Volleyball Challenge, held earlier this month.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon won the student division.

Other teams came from ASI Recreational Sports, the ASI Business Office, Career Services, Health and Counseling Services, the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Statistics, Student Academic Services, Student Life, and the University Police.

Team fees added to an endowment named in honor of former student Mark Reuling, who suffered from depression and committed suicide.

The tournament, coordinated by Rec Sports, is expected to expand in the future and continue to raise funds for education and training about mental illness and depression.

For more information on the tournament, call Marty Bragg, director, Health and Psychological Services, at ext. 6-5279.

———

Wilderness Medicine to be taught at Cal Poly

Those looking to develop the confidence and skills needed to handle backcountry emergencies should plan to attend the Wilderness First Responder training program to be offered at Cal Poly Dec. 11-20. Taught by members of the Wilderness Medicine Institute of the National Outdoor Leadership School, the program is a nationally recognized, 80-hour course that trains participants to respond to emergencies in remote settings.

Attendees will learn how to monitor a patient, manage wounds and fight infection, realign fractures and dislocations, and improve splinting techniques. Long-term management problems, the latest information on environmental emergencies, and drug therapies will also be covered.

The curriculum includes standards for urban and extended-care situations, with a heavy emphasis on prevention and decision-making.

Upon completion of the course, including a practical exam and a written exam, participants earn Wilderness First Responder certification and two-year American Red Cross/HeartSaver CPR certification.

The course costs $420 for students and $475 for the public. For more information, call Penny Ross at ext. 6-5935, D.

———

CPE schedule change

Because campus will be closed on Veterans' Day, Nov. 11, and Thanksgiving, Nov. 25-26, we've had to move the deadlines to submit articles for two issues of the Cal Poly Report.

For the Nov. 17 Cal Poly Report, we need items by 10 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 10, and for the December report by 10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 23. The e-mail address is <polynews@polymail>.calpoly.edu.

———

One-page preview

Memorial Scholarship created for Don Floyd

A memorial scholarship has been named for Don Floyd, a retired social sciences professor. The scholarship is to support the CSU's International Programs who died earlier this year. In honor of his commitment to international education, his widow, Yvonne, has set up a scholarship fund in his name as a Mid-State Bank for an International Programs applicant at Cal Poly. Anyone wanting to contribute to the scholarship or needing more information should contact Marilyn Yok at ext. 6-5694 <myok@calpoly.edu>.

CPR schedule change

Because campus will be closed on Veterans' Day, Nov. 11, and Thanksgiving, Nov. 25-26, we've had to move the deadlines to submit articles for two issues of the Cal Poly Report.

For the Nov. 17 Cal Poly Report, we need items by 10 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 10, and for the December report by 10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 23. The e-mail address is <polynews@polymail>.calpoly.edu.
Campus Standing Committees Staff Interest Survey and Application

Please FAX (6-5483) or deliver the application to Human Resources and Employment Equity.

Name: ____________________________ Department: ____________________________

Position: __________________________ Department Extension: ____________________________

Supervisor: __________________________ Department/Division Head: ____________________________

Status: [ ] State [ ] Foundation [ ] ASI

Please indicate the Campus Standing Committee you are interested in serving on:

[ ] Cal Poly Plan Steering Committee

Statement of Interest (Please state your reasons for wanting to serve on the committee selected above and any applicable experience or background that may apply):

Endorsements:

Supervisor's Signature: ____________________________ Date: ____________________________

Department/Division Head's Signature: ____________________________ Date: ____________________________

For Review Committee Use Only

Date of Review: ____________________________ Application Status: ____________________________

Committee Assignment: ____________________________ Staff Member Notified: ____________________________

Committee Chair Signature: ____________________________ Date: ____________________________

League of Women Voters honors two staff members

Rosemary Bowker, information technology consultant in the Biological Sciences Department, and Donna Davis, Career Services counselor, received the 1999 Mary Rhodes Awards from the San Luis Obispo League of Women Voters.

Bowker was honored for her community efforts and volunteer work in Los Osos, particularly for environmental causes.

Davis was selected for her educational outreach and mentoring activities. The awards are given annually to a few community leaders who exemplify in their professional and community achievements the values of Mary Rhodes, first woman president of the California State Teachers Association and a founding member of the San Luis Obispo League of Women Voters.

Grants, other opportunities to be discussed Nov. 5

An orientation for new and tenure-track faculty members, "Internal/External Grant Programs and Other Professional Development Opportunities," will be held at noon Nov. 5 in Room 201 in the Business Building.

Box lunches will be provided. Those who plan to attend are asked to call the Research and Graduate Programs Office by Nov. 1 at ext. 6-1508, or e-mail <cbrooksh@calpoly.edu>.

Bhutan subject of talk

Architecture professor Christopher Yip will present "Tradition and the Question of Change in Bhutan" at noon Nov. 2 in the Veranda Café Conference Room.

Bhutan, roughly the size of Switzerland, sits on the southern slope of the Himalayan mountains. The majority population is of Tibetan origins and is the last surviving Buddhist theocratic state selectively introducing foreign technology while limiting the impact of foreign influences on its culture and religion. Students as well as employees are invited to the talk, sponsored by International Education and Programs (IEP). Those attending can bring their own lunch or buy one at the Veranda Café.

For details, call IEP at ext. 6-1477.

Steel string guitar featured in concert

"Some of the sweetest guitar playing this side of heaven ... as good as a musical performance can get."

That's how Impact News Magazine described Masters of the Steel String Guitar, a national concert tour that includes a stop at Cal Poly on Nov. 5.

Folk guitar virtuosos Eddie Pennington, Johnny Bellar, John Cephas and Wayne Henderson will play their own distinct styles at 8 p.m. in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center's Cohen Center.

Pennington is known as the grand master of "thumbpicking," an intricate technique made popular by Merle Travis and Chet Atkins. Bellar plays the acoustic resophonic guitar and its electric counterpart, the lap steel guitar. Cephas plays the Piedmont blues — the oldest form of the blues, with links dating back to the black string bands of Colonial America. Phil Wiggins, a world-class harmonica player, will perform with Cephas.

Appalachian guitarist Henderson uses a thumbpick and fingernails to achieve "amazing speed and fluidity, transforming fiddle and banjo pieces and even the occasional jazz standards into stunning guitar solos."

The group will also give a free workshop at 2 p.m. Nov. 5 in Room 218 in the Davidson Music Center.

Music professor Craig Russell will give a pre-concert lecture at 7 p.m. in Phillips Recital Hall.

Tickets to this Cal Poly Arts event cost $9 to $24.

Tickets to the performances listed in today's Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2787, or to order by fax, dial ext. 6-6088.
Correction
In last week’s Cal Poly Report article announcing David Rackley’s Telly award, he was credited as director of the Mustang Marching Band. Music professor William Johnson is director; Rackley is associate conductor. Our apologies for the error.

Oct. 28 talk to explore size, life span link
A physicist from the Los Alamos National Laboratory will discuss theories that help explain why larger organisms live longer, in a joint Biology-Physics Colloquium 11 a.m.-noon Oct. 28.

Geoffrey West will present “The Tree of Life: The Origin of Universal Scaling Laws in Biology From Molecules and Cells to Whales” in Room 286 in Fisher Science Hall.

West, whose research recently appeared in the journal Science, will explain the “quicker-power scaling law,” a principle that correlates size and length of life for both animals and plants.

While scientists can show the principle is true, they don’t know why it is.

“If you could understand the origin of these scaling laws,” West said, “you’d understand something about aging and death.”

In an attempt to explain the phenomenon, West and his colleagues proposed that the correlation stems from the physical constraints of the systems that distribute nutrients, whether by blood vessels or the vascular network nourishing a plant.

In his talk, West will explain the group’s theory that the principle is based mostly on geometry and the nature of circulating networks in particular.

West’s talk is co-sponsored by the Biological Sciences Department and Physics Department. For more information, call the Physics Department at ext. 6-2448.

‘Vanishing’ cultures focus of photo exhibit
Phil Borges, an award-winning photographer known for his riveting portraits of indigenous cultures, will give a free public talk at 4 p.m. Nov. 7 in the Rotunda (Room 215) of the Business Building.

Borges will speak about his exhibit, “Enduring Spirit,” which will run Nov. 1-Dec. 5 in the University Art Gallery in the Dexter Building.

After his talk, the artist will be honored at a reception from 6 to 8 p.m. in the gallery.

Seattle-based Borges studies and photographs the vanishing cultures of the world. The “Enduring Spirit” exhibit features 50 photographs of endangered cultures and tribal peoples from Indonesia, Kenya, Ethiopia, Thailand, Peru and North America.

The Dalai Lama wrote the text to accompany Borges’ photographs in the book “Tibetan Portrait: The Power of Compassion.” The book provides a unique understanding of the Tibetan people and the Buddhist teaching of nonviolence.

Chilean author Isabel Allende wrote in the book’s introduction, “In this beautiful book, Phil Borges celebrates, with his images and stories, life as it is lived and shared in so many places on our fragile and beautiful planet.”

Information about Borges and images of his work can be found on line at <www.philborges.com>.

The University Art Gallery is open 11 a.m.-4 p.m. daily, Wednesday. 7-9 p.m.

For information, call ext. 6-1571.

‘School choice’ advocate to talk at Nov. 4 symposium
Terry Moe, senior fellow at the Hoover Institution and one of the country’s leading advocates of the “school choice” issue, will give the keynote address at an Education Policy Symposium 5-6:30 p.m. Nov. 4 in Philips Hall in the Performing Arts Center.

After the talk, a panel of local educators will comment on the issues presented.

The panel will be Julian G. Culp, superintendent of the San Luis Obispo Office of Education; Ted Wheeler, a trustee of the San Luis Coastal Unified School District; and Karen Gallas, teacher and principal at Bellevue-Santa Fe School in the Avila Valley.

The book “Politics, Markets, and America’s Schools,” co-authored by Moe and John E. Chubb, is considered among the most influential and controversial works on education to be published in the last decade.

Moe, a professor of political science at Stanford University, is an expert on educational policy, political institutions and organizational theory. His current research projects deal with school choice, public bureaucracy and the presidency.

Moe has served as senior fellow at the Brookings Institution in Washington, D.C., and is an elected member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

Referrals will be at 6:30 p.m.

For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2607.

Central Coast chapter of IEEE to meet on campus
George Westrom, founder and executive director of the Future Scientists and Engineers of America organization, will present “Who Are the Engineers: Scientists/Technicians for the 21st Century?” at the Nov. 2 meeting of the Central Coast section of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers.

The meeting will be 7:8 p.m. in Room 206 at the Engineering Complex. For information, call ext. 6-2918.

Poet Boland to read works
Award-winning Irish poet Eavan Boland will read from her work at the first full quarter WriterSpeak event at 7 p.m. Nov. 12 in Philips Hall in the Performing Arts Center’s Cohan Center.

Boland will also be the keynote poet for the 16th annual San Luis Obispo Poetry Festival Nov. 12-21.

Boland has published several volumes of poetry, including her widely acclaimed American debut, “Outside History.” She is also the author of “In a Time of Violence,” “The Lost Land” and “Object Lessons.”

The New York Review of Books said “Boland has emerged as one of the best poets in Ireland.”

Jan Garden Castro of The Nation states, “Boland combines impeccable craft, resilient metaphors and, above all, moral authority to witness human difficulties.”

Boland’s awards include a Foundation Award in Poetry and an American Irish Fund Literary Award.

The reading, “Outside History” and other Boland publications will be on sale in Philips Hall.

The WriterSpeak reading is sponsored by Cal Poly Arts, the College of Liberal Arts, the Lyceum speaker series, and the English Department.

For more information, call Adam Hill of the English Department at ext. 6-1622.

Send items by Nov. 1 for fall Credit Report
Nov. 1 is the deadline to submit items for the fall quarter edition of The Credit Report, the newsletter that goes out by staff professional accomplishments.

For items to be included, please include a phone number in case we have questions.

For information, call ext. 6-1511.

Kathy Blackburn wins ‘Name the Bug’ contest
Kathy Blackburn of the Foundation’s Campus Catering office submitted the winning entry for the Y2K bug contest held in conjunction with Y2K Day earlier this month.

‘Raiders’ for short, earned Blackburn a $25 Campus Express gift certificate.

‘Raiders-alludes to the videotape raid. It’s the Y2K bug. Get it?’

Bandfest ’99 planned for Nov. 20 at PAC
Bandfest ’99 will bring together 170 musicians in two university ensembles in a “wind instrument spectacular” set for 8 p.m. Nov. 20 in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center’s Cohan Center.

The Wind Orchestra and the Mustang Band will play original works and toe-tapping popular arrangements in the 15th annual Bandfest concert.

Under the direction of music professor William Johnson, the Wind Orchestra will open the concert with two original works by James Curnow, “Rejoicin’ness” and the “Praeclarus Variations.” The orchestra will also perform Symphony No. 6 by Vincent Persichetti.

The Mustang Band, directed by David Rackley of the Music Department faculty, will perform popular arrangements that “will add a choreographed upbeat brilliance to the concert,” said Boland.

The Wind Orchestra and the Mustang Band together will close the concert with “Africa, Ceremony, Song and Ritual” by Robert W. Smith and "Russian Christmas Music" by Alfred Reed.

The Wind Orchestra is an ensemble of just the woodwind, brass and percussion sections of a traditional orchestra.

Tickets cost $7 to $15. Patrons who buy tickets to three or four Cal Poly Wind Orchestra and University Jazz Band season events will save 15 percent; those who buy tickets to five or more events will save 25 percent.

Season events to come include Bandfest ’99, the Pops Concert Feb. 26, “Just Jazz” March 11, two Festival Orchestras, April 15 and 16, Jazz Night May 13, and the Spring Concert June 4.

For a season brochure and more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2607.

Banfest ’99 is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts, Music Department and ASI.

Former Bandfest trombonist James Groover.

Only standby seating left for Marine Band concert
All free tickets have been distributed to “The President’s Own” J.S. Marine Band concert at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 9 in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center’s Cohan Center.

Doors to the auditorium will open at 7 p.m., and all ticket holders need to be seated by 7:45. At that time music fans who don’t have tickets will be admitted to fill any unclaimed seats.

For more information, call Cal Poly Arts at ext. 6-6556.

Julian’s to celebrate ‘old-time Halloween’
Julian’s in the University Union will celebrate an “old-time Halloween” on Friday with complimentary hot cider from 7:30 a.m. to noon and bobbing for apples from 10 a.m. to noon.

Anyone who comes in costume will get a special treat.
Correction
In last week’s Cal Poly Report article announcing David Rackley’s Telly award, we credited him as director of the Mustang Marching Band. Music professor William Johnson is director; Rackley is associate conductor. Our apologies for the error.

Oct. 28 talk to explore size, life span link
A physicist from the Los Alamos National Laboratory will discuss theories that help explain why larger organisms live longer, in a joint Biology-Physics Colloquium 11 a.m.-noon Oct. 28.

Geoffrey West will present “The Tree of Life: The Origin of Universal Scaling Laws in Biology From Molecules and Cells to Whales” in Room 286 in Fisher Science Hall.

West, whose research recently appeared in the journal Science, will explain the “quicker-power scaling law,” a principle that correlates size and length of life for both animals and plants.

While scientists can show the principle is true, they don’t know why it is.

“If you could understand the origin of these scaling laws,” West said, “you’d understand something about aging and death.”

In an attempt to explain the phenomenon, West and his colleague proposed that the correlation stems from the physical constraints of the systems that distribute nutrients, whether in blood vessels or the vascular network nourishing a plant.

In his talk, West will explain the group’s theory that the principle is based mostly on geometry and the nature of circulating networks in particular.

West’s talk is co-sponsored by the Biological Sciences Department and Physics Department. For more information, call the Physics Department at ext. 6-2448.

‘Vanishing’ cultures focus of photo exhibit
Phil Borges, an award-winning photographer known for his riveting portraits of indigenous cultures, will give a free public talk at 4 p.m. Nov. 7 in the Rotunda (Room 213) of the Business Building.

Borges will speak about his exhibit, “Enduring Spirit,” which will run Nov. 1-1 Dec. 5 in the University Art Gallery in the Dexter Building.

After his talk, the artist will be honored at a reception from 6 to 8 p.m. in the gallery.

Seattle-based Borges studies and photographs the vanishing cultures of the world. The “Enduring Spirit” exhibit features 90 photographs of endangered cultures and tribal people from Indonesia, Kenya, Ethiopia, Thailand, Peru and North America.

The Dalai Lama wrote the text to accompany Borges’ photographs in the book “Tibetan Portrait: The Power of Compassion.” The book provides a unique understanding of the Tibetan people and the Buddhist teaching of nonviolence.

Chilean author Isabel Allende wrote in the book’s introduction, “In this beautiful book, Phil Borges celebrates, with his images and stories, life as it is lived and shared in so many places on our fragile and beautiful planet.”

Information about Borges and images of his work can be found on line at www.philborges.com.

The University Art Gallery is open 10 a.m.-4 p.m. daily, Wednesday-7 p.m.

For information, call ext. 6-1571.

‘School choice’ advocate to talk at Nov. 4 symposium
Terry Moe, senior fellow at the Hoover Institution and one of the country’s leading advocates of the “school choice” idea, will give the keynote address at an Education Policy Symposium 5-6:30 p.m. Nov. 4.

Boren ’s Alternative Approaches to Academic Excellence” in Philips Hall in the Performing Arts Center Center.

After the talk, a panel of local educators will comment on the issues presented.

The panel will be Julian C. Gecker, superintendent of the San Luis Obispo Office of Education; Ted Wheeler, a trustee of the San Luis Coastal Unified School District; and Karen Gallas, teacher and principal at Bellevue-Santa Fe School in the Avila Valley.

The book “Politics, Markets, and America’s Schools,” co-authored by Moe and John E. Chubb, is considered among the most influential and controversial works on education to be published in the last decade.

Moe, a professor of political science at Stanford University, is an expert on educational policy, political institutions and organizational theory. His current research projects deal with school choice, public bureaucracy and the presidency.

Moe has served as senior fellow at the Brookings Institution in Washington, D.C., and as an advisor to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

Refreshments will be served at 6:30 p.m.

The symposium is sponsored by the University Center for Teacher Education and Political Science Department.

For more information, call Carol Barnes, director of advancement in the UCTE, at ext. 6-5934.

Central Coast chapter of IEEE to meet on campus
George Westrom, founder and executive director of the Future Scientists and Technicians for the 21st Century, will discuss his organization’s professional accomplishments.

The meeting will be 7-8 p.m. in Room 206 in Engineering East. Referenda will be available at about 6:30 p.m.

For details, call Al Shabab in Electrical Engineering at ext. 6-2918.

Send items by Nov. 1 for fall Credit Report
Nov. 1 is the deadline to submit items for the fall quarter edition of The Credit Report, the newsletter of staff and student professionals.

For more information, call ext. 6-1571.

Only standby seating left for Marine Band concert
All free tickets have been distributed to “The President’s Own” U.S. Marine Band concert at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 9 in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center’s Cohan Center.

Doors to the auditorium will open at 7 p.m., and all ticket holders need to be seated by 7:45. At that time music fans who don’t have tickets will be admitted to fill any unclaimed seats.

For more information, call Cal Poly Arts at ext. 6-6556.

Kathy Blackburn wins ‘Name the Bug’ contest
Kathy Blackburn of the Foundation’s Campus Catering office submitted the winning entry for the Y2K Bug contest held in conjunction with Y2K Day earlier this month.

“Raiders” for short, earned Blackburn a $25 Campus Express gift certificate.

“Raiders-alludes to the pesticide Raid. It’s the Y2K bug. Get it?”

Poet Boland to read works
Award-winning Irish poet Eavan Boland will read from her work at the first half quarter WriterSpeak event at 7 p.m. Nov. 12 in Philips Hall in the Performing Arts Center’s Cohan Center.

Boland will also be the keynote poet for the 16th annual San Luis Obispo Poetry Festival Nov. 12-21.

Boland has published several volumes of poetry, including her widely acclaimed American debut, "Outside History." She is also the author of "In a Time of Violence," "The Lost Land" and "Object Lessons."

The New York Review of Books said Boland has emerged as one of the best poets in Ireland.

Jan Garden Castro of The Nation states, "Boland combines impeccable craft, resilient metaphors and, above all, moral authority to witness humanhood."

Boland’s award, the 1999 American Ireland Fund Literary Award, was part of a literary symposium sponsored by the American Ireland Fund in Poetry and an American Irish Fund Literary Award.

In the reading, "Outside History" and other Boland publications will be on sale in Philips Hall.

The WriterSpeak reading is sponsored by Cal Poly Arts, the College of Liberal Arts, the Lyceum speaker series, and the English Department.

For more information, call Adam Hill of the English Department at ext. 6-1622.

Bandfest ’99 planned for Nov. 20 at PAC
Bandfest ’99 will bring together 170 musicians in two university ensembles in a "wind instrument spectacular" set for 8 p.m. Nov. 20 in Harman Hall in the Performing Arts Center’s Cohan Center.

The 90-member Cal Poly Wind Orchestra and the 90-member Mustang Band will play original tunes and toe-tapping popular arrangements in the 15th annual Bandfest concert.

Under the direction of music professor William Johnson, the Wind Orchestra will open the concert with two original works by James Curnow, "Rejoicialness" and the "Praeatorius Variations."

The orchestra will also perform Symphony No. 6 for Wind Orchestra by Vincent Persichetti.

The Mustang Band, directed by David Rackley of the Music Department faculty, will perform popular arrangements that "will add a choreographed upbeat brilliance to the concert," said Curnow.

The Wind Orchestra and the Mustang Band together will close the concert with "Africa, Ceremony, Song and Ritual" by Robert W. Smith and "Russian Christmas Music" by Alfred Reed.

The Wind Orchestra is an ensemble of just the windwood, brass and percussion sections of a traditional orchestra.

Tickets cost $7 to $15.

Patrons who buy tickets to three or four Cal Poly Wind Orchestra and University Jazz Band season events will save 15 percent; those who buy tickets to five or more events will save 25 percent.

Season events to come include Bandfest ‘99, the Pops Concert Feb. 26, "Just Jazz" March 11, two Festival Concerts, April 15 and 16, Jazz Night May 13, and the Spring Concert June 3.

For a season brochure and more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2607.

Bandfest ’99 is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts, Music Department, and ASI.

Former Bandfest trombonist James Graue.

For more information, call ext. 6-1571.

FILE PHOTO
Cal Poly Report, October 27, 1999
PAGE 4

Cal Poly Report, October 27, 1999
PAGE 5
Campus Standing Committees Staff Interest Survey and Application

Please FAX (6-5483) or deliver the application to Human Resources and Employment Equity.

Name: ____________________________
Department: ________________________

Position: __________________________
Department Extension: ____________

Supervisor: _________________________
Department/Division Head: __________

Status:
☐ State  ☐ Foundation  ☐ ASI

Please indicate the Campus Standing Committee you are interested in serving on:

☐ Cal Poly Plan Steering Committee

Statement of Interest (Please state your reasons for wanting to serve on the committee selected above and any applicable experience or background that may apply):

Endorsements:

Supervisor’s Signature: ____________________________ Date: ____________
Department/Division Head’s Signature: ____________________________ Date: ____________

For Review Committee Use Only

Date of Review: ____________ Application Status: ____________
Committee Assignment: ____________________________ Staff Member Notified: ____________
Committee Chair Signature: ____________________________ Date: ____________

League of Women Voters honors two staff members

Rosemary Bowker, information technology consultant in the Biological Sciences Department, and Donna Davis, Career Services counselor, received the 1999 Mary Rhodes Awards from the San Luis Obispo League of Women Voters.

Bowker was honored for her community efforts and volunteer work in Los Osos, particularly for environmental causes. Davis was selected for her educational outreach and mentoring activities. The awards are given annually to a few community leaders who exemplify in their professional and community achievements the values of Mary Rhodes, first woman president of the California State Teachers Association and a founding member of the San Luis Obispo League of Women Voters.

Grants, other opportunities to be discussed Nov. 5

An orientation for new and tenure-track faculty members, "Internal/External Grant Programs and Other Professional Development Opportunities," will be held at noon Nov. 5 in Room 201 in the Business Building. Box lunches will be provided. Those who plan to attend are asked to call the Research and Graduate Programs Office by Nov. 1 at ext. 6-1508, or e-mail <cbrooksh@calpoly.edu>.

Bhutan subject of talk

Architecture professor Christopher Yip will present "Tradition and the Question of Change in Bhutan" at noon Nov. 2 in the Veranda Café Conference Room.

Bhutan, roughly the size of Switzerland, sits on the southern slope of the Himalayan mountains. The majority population is of Tibetan origins and is the last surviving Buddhist theocratic state selectively introducing foreign technology while limiting the impact of foreign influences on its culture and religion. Students as well as employees are invited to the talk, sponsored by International Education and Programs (IEP). Attendees can bring their own lunch or buy one at the Veranda Café.

Bhutan subject of talk

Architecture professor Christopher Yip will present "Tradition and the Question of Change in Bhutan" at noon Nov. 2 in the Veranda Café Conference Room.

Bhutan, roughly the size of Switzerland, sits on the southern slope of the Himalayan mountains. The majority population is of Tibetan origins and is the last surviving Buddhist theocratic state selectively introducing foreign technology while limiting the impact of foreign influences on its culture and religion. Students as well as employees are invited to the talk, sponsored by International Education and Programs (IEP). Attendees can bring their own lunch or buy one at the Veranda Café.

Ticket Information

Tickets to the performances listed in today’s Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2787, or to order by fax, dial ext. 6-6088.
Memorial scholarship created for Don Floyd
A memorial scholarship has been named for Don Floyd, a retired social studies professor and long-time supporter of the CSU’s International Programs who died earlier this year.
In honor of his commitment to international education, his widow, Yvonne, has set up a scholarship fund in his name at Mid-State Bank for an undergraduate scholarship applicant from Cal Poly.

CPR schedule change
Because campus will be closed on Veteran’s Day, Nov. 11, and Thanksgiving, Nov. 25-26, we’ve had to move the deadlines to submit articles for two issues of the Cal Poly Report.
For the Nov. 17 Cal Poly Report, we need items by 10 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 10, and for the Dec. 1 issue by 10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 23. The e-mail address is <polynews@polymail>.

Wilderness Medicine to be taught at Cal Poly
Those looking to develop the confidence and skills needed to handle backcountry emergencies should plan to attend the Wilderness First Responder training program to be offered at Cal Poly Dec. 11-20.
Taught by members of the Wilderness Medicine Institute of the National Outdoor Leadership School, the program is a national recognized, 80-hour course that trains participants to respond to emergencies in remote settings.
Attendees will learn how to monitor a patient, manage wounds and fight infection, realign fractures and dislocations, and improvise splinting techniques. Staff under the vice president’s jurisdiction.

Position vacancies
Vacancy information and applications for the following positions will be available from the appropriate Human Resources office. Information is also available on the Cal Poly home page (www.calpoly.edu).

#07047: Billing Coordinator (Administrative Support Coordinator I) Information Technology Services-Communications and Computing Services (Unit 7) * Closing date: Nov. 11, 2000, 2:14 p.m. (No fax or email accepted).
#07048: Administrative Support Assistant I, Administrative Support Assistant II, Administrative Support Assistant III, Administrative Support Assistant IV, Administrative Support Assistant V (Unit 7) * Closing date: Nov. 10, 2000, 2:13 p.m. (No fax or email accepted).
#07049: Administrative Support Assistant I, Information Technology Services-Communications and Computing Services (Unit 7) * Closing date: Nov. 10, 2000, 2:14 p.m. (No fax or email accepted).
#07050: Administrative Support Assistant I, Information Technology Services-Communications and Computing Services (Unit 7) * Closing date: Nov. 10, 2000, 2:14 p.m. (No fax or email accepted).
Position vacancies

Continued from page 7 (SAP) at a different location. May be required to occasionally work at 1. Salary/vary.

OM0541: Director of Advancement (Administrator II), College of Architecture and Environmental Design. Closing date: position is open until filled. For full consideration all application materials should be subm‐ited by Oct. 15. Salary: $45,000 - $65,000 annual hiring range commensurate with qualifications and experience.

READVERTISEMENT:

OM0580: Nurse Practitioner, Head of

Nursing Services (Administrator II), Student Affairs, Health & Psychological Services. Closing date: position is open until filled. For full consideration application materials should be submitted by Nov. 10. Salary: $58,400 - $27,000 annual hiring range depending on qualifications and experience. The Health Services Department provides outpatient services and programs that address the health and medical needs of students. The focus of this position is to provide full-range administrative leadership to the Nursing Services unit of Health Services. Closing date:

December 15. Position is open until filled.

OM0533: Predoctoral Internship (Helper

Aide) Health and Counseling Services

Closing date: position is open until filled. Application review will begin Dec. 1. Salary: The annual compensation for full-time is $15,000 ($1,250/month) and includes employee benefits. Vacations, time off, sick leave, and health insurance. The Cal Poly Health and Counseling Services Center is a member of the Association of Psychology Preclinical and Internship Centers (APPIC) and the Association of Counseling Centering Training Agencies (ACCTA). Participants in the Cal Poly Predoctoral Internship Program receive two hours of individual supervision, a weekly case conference, seminars addressing professional specialization training in such areas as personal and group counseling, wellness, stress disorders, sexual abuse, trauma recovery, ethics and the law, multicultural counseling, stress management and organizational consultation. Additional training in the university's Employee Assistance Program is also available.

The position: There are approximately 12-month positions available beginning January 1, 2000. One position is in Counseling Services and one is in the Employee Assistance Program. These positions receive supervised clinical experiences in individual and group therapy, crisis intervention, outreach, health psychology, consultation, and prevention education. Direct specific inquiries about the position to Elaine Axelrod, training coordinator, Health and Counseling Services, ext. 6-2511.

FACULTY (Adm. 312, ext. 2-3644)

Candidates interested in faculty positions are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the above number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head/chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timeframe where applicable, otherwise as listed.

OM0517: Visiting Lecturer, Global Strategy & Law Area, College Of Business (756‐2540). Closing date: Nov. 1. Visiting lecturer position available full-time for winter and spring quarters of the 1999-2000 academic year. Appropriately qualified doctoral level training with primary teaching area in business policy/management, and secondary area in international business law. Ph.D. preferred, but A.B.D. applicants may be considered. Applicants must demonstrate strong teaching ability. Apply to J. Michael Geringer, Global Strategy and Law Area, College of Business.

OM0518: Full-Time Lecturer, Physical Education & Kinesiology (756-2545). Closing time: Dec. 15. Full-time position available for 2000-2001 academic year (salary $33,792 - $46,488). Teach classes in bioinformatics, advanced biomechanics, and professional activities. Supervise undergraduate field experiences and research. Requires M.S. in appropriate field; Ph.D. and college teaching preferred. To be considered, applicants must submit the following (referencing recruitment #0518) on all correspondence): 1) completed application form; 2) two professional resumes; 3) copies of official transcripts from all colleges attended; and 4) three current letters of recommendation to Gerald d (fax 756-7273).

DeMers, head, P.E. & Kinesiology Depart‐

FACULTY (Foundation Adm. Building, ext. 6-7817). All applications must be received by postmarked by 5 p.m. of the closing date. (No faxes.)

READVERTISEMENT: Baker, Bake Shop, 59 50 - $20.57/hour. Requirements: high school diploma and equivalent. Minimum of one year experience as a journey level baker, preferably in a large scale, very busy bakery. Must be able to make from scratch, using ovens, mixers, dough shapers, cutters, proofing, measuring devices, and kitchen cutlery. Must develop and maintain successful working relationships, and a valid California Driver’s license and be able to lift and carry 50 lbs. Closing date: position is open until filled; review of applications begins Nov. 5.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS INC. (ASI) is accepting applications for the following positions.

Community Services: commute to the listed closing date. A.A.R.D.

Report

PAGE 8

Cali POLY REPORT, OCTOBER 27, 1999

Baker, Zingg talk on accreditation

President Baker and Provost Zingg will hold an open forum on the current reaccreditation process 11 a.m.-noon today in UU 220.

A special session of the Academic Senate to address reaccreditation is also planned 3-5 p.m. Nov. 9 in UU 220. Every nine years Cal Poly undergoes an accreditation review by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). The next accreditation visit will be in March 2000.

Towards this end, several committees of faculty and staff members have been working on a Cal Poly Self-Study. The campus community is invited to review and comment on the Self-Study on line at http://www.calpoly.edu/reports.