Position vacancies

Below are all the new, previously unanswered employment openings at Cal Poly University. You may access full information about these and other previously listed openings at www.calpoly.edu (scroll down and select "Employment Opportunities").

STATE: For a complete listing of employment opportunities for state staff and management positions, you can:

• Check the Human Resources and Employment Equity Web site at www.calpoly.edu, under Employment Opportunities;
• Come to the HREE office, Adm. 110, and view the posted positions;
• Call the HREE Hot Line at ext. 6-1553. For a listing of new openings, check The Tribune's Sunday edition.

If you have questions, please call HREE at ext. 6-2377.

09P120 Data Analyst (Administrative Analyst/Specialist Non-Exempt) (Academic Appoint.) $2,788-83,792/month. Closing date: March 1. On-campus employees only may qualify. Out-of-campus candidates currently in Bargaining Units 2, 5, and 7 will be given first consideration. Official application and full text of advertisement may be obtained in Human Resources and Employment Equity, Adm. 110, or at www.calpoly.edu.

FACULTY (Adm. 312, ext. 6-2844). Candidates are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head. Chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

03P061 Tenure-Track Position, Finance Area, College of Business (ext. 6-4712). Full-time appointment beginning fall 2000, continuing upon funding. Seeking candidates with an earned doctorate in finance; evidence of teaching excellence across a broad range of disciplines in finance; a record of recently published scholarship in peer-reviewed journals plus an ongoing active research agenda; and a commitment to service at the college, university, and community levels. Relevant professional experience, including e-commerce, and experience in executive development and training, preferred. Send resume and supporting materials to Kenneth Riner, Finance Area Coordinator, College of Business (refer to Recruitment Code# 03049). Closing date: March 18.

05P062 Assistant Professor, Graphic Design, Art and Design Department (ext. 8-1499). Full-time tenure-track position in graphic design available September 2000. MFA required in graphic design; university teaching required; minimum of three years' experience preferred. Candidates should have a strong record of recent professional achievement demonstrating creative work with proven abilities in conceptual development, teaching, graphic design, and new media. Knowledge of traditional and contemporary design history preferred. Please submit a resume, including contact information, to: calpoly.personnel@calpoly.edu for additional information and desired application procedures, or call the department. Closing date: March 6. (Add: calpoly.personnel@calpoly.edu for additional information and desired application procedures, or call the department. Closing date: March 6.)

03P060 Part-Time Lecturer, Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering (ext. 6-2341). Possibility of part-time positions available as determined by need during the 2000-2001 academic year. Candidate's degree and appropriate experience required. Please refer to http://www.academic.personnel.calpoly.edu for additional information, or call department. Send resume, supporting letters of recommendation and Cal Poly identification/credentials to Recruitment Coordinator, Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering (Add: calpoly.personnel@calpoly.edu for additional information and desired application procedures, or call the department. Closing date: March 6.)

03P043 Part-Time Lecturer, Music, Piano Department (ext. 6-2007). Possibility of part-time positions as determined by need during the 2000-2001 academic year. Candidates for audition positions are required to have extensive professional performing and teaching experience. Apply to Chilton Swanston, Chair, Music Department (Add: calpoly.personnel@calpoly.edu for additional information and desired application procedures, or call the department. Closing date: March 6.)

03P047 Part-Time Lecturer, Physical Education & Kinesiology (ext. 6-2548). Possibility of part-time positions as determined by need during the 2000-2001 academic year. Candidates must have an earned bachelor's degree to teach activity classes and a master's degree to teach all other classes. Courses may include general activity, health education, first aid, CPR, and physical education major classes. Call department for further information. Apply to Gerald DeBloor, Chair, PE & Kinesiology Department (Add: calpoly.personnel@calpoly.edu for additional information and desired application procedures, or call the department. Closing date: March 6.)

03P049 Part-Time Lecturer, Music, Piano Department (ext. 6-2709). Possibility of part-time positions as determined by need during the 2000-2001 academic year to teach lower division piano classes and private lessons. M.S. in music education preferred. Preference given to candidates with demonstrated excellence in teaching and/or industry experience in involving applied studio experiences to Jay Devere, Chair, Statistics Department (Add: calpoly.personnel@calpoly.edu for additional information and desired application procedures, or call the department. Closing date: March 9.)

FOUNDATION (Foundation Admn, Building, job ext. 6-4176). All Foundation applications must be received (not just postmarked) by 5 p.m. of the closing date. (No fees.)

Floriculture Specialist, Environmental Horticulture, Closing date: Feb. 25. $2,112.11-15.76/hr. Sponsored Programs Assistant, Sponsored Programs, Closing date: Feb. 25. $19.70-15.93/hr. (No fees.)

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS INC. is accepting applications for the following positions:

• Complete position descriptions and application forms are available at the AD Business Office, University Union, Room 212, M-F, 8 a.m.-5 p.m., ext. 6-2844. All applications must be received by 5 p.m. of the listed closing date. A/A/E.

• Full-time Assistant Teacher - One permanent and one part-time position available. $15.47-13.20/hr. Closing date: Feb. 18. II

.. . Chapman

(Continued from page 1)

• Continued on page 3

• JPEG Rights Reserving of the President's Arts Award.

Baker, citing Chapman's legendary devotion to the arts, said, "Whether hosting events at his stately home, sponsoring concerts and performances, donating critically needed funds, or providing valuable advice and guidance, Cliff Chapman has proven himself a guiding and irreplaceable friend of the arts.

Chapman will be honored at a dinner ceremony on Feb. 22 in conjunction with the performance by the Boys Choir of Harlem.

Young violin virtuosi to perform, give workshop

Sisters Ariana, 16, and Amberly Rose, 14, winning violin virtuosos and fellow violinists also known for their folk dancing, will perform at 3 p.m. Sunday (Feb. 20) in the Performing Art Center's Pavilion.

The Rosens will also host a workshop for violin players on Saturday (Feb. 19) at St. Stephen's Church in San Luis Obispo. The workshop is free and open to all musicians. Participants should bring their own instruments.

The sisters, from Oregon, have been playing violin since they were preschoolers. In 1993, they were two of the youngest winners in the twin division of Oregon’s Old Time Fiddle State Combat. They have performed with fiddle master Mark O'Connor and the Eugene Symphony and are members of Balladina, Eugene's international folk-dance group. Tickets to the concert are $6. For information on the concert, call the Performing Arts Ticket Office at ext. 6-2787.

For information on the violin workshop, call the San Luis Obispo Symphony office at 543-5333.

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report is published every Wednesday during the academic year. Articles are available by Public Affairs by 10 a.m. Wednesday for the following week. Articles can be e-mailed to polygons@calpoly.edu (add: calpoly if needed), faxed to 6-5633, or mailed to Public Affairs, Heron Hall. For more information call ext. 6-1511.
Theater & Dance to stage ‘House of Blue Leaves’
The Theatre and Dance Department’s winter production, opening Feb. 24 for a six-show run, will be John Guare’s satirical look at the 1960s, “House of Blue Leaves.”

The play, which The New York Times calls “an unflinching illumination of the American farce,” will be staged Feb. 24 and March 2-4. The play begins at 8 p.m. in the Alton Theatre, but director Erma Stauffer is encouraging patrons to arrive early for an enthralling pre-show that will lead into the comedy.

“House of Blue Leaves,” considered by the Los Angeles Times to be one of the top 100 plays of the 20th century, premiered on Broadway in 1971. It received the 1971 Critics Award and an Obie for Best American Play and was later revived on Broadway.

“House of Blue Leaves” is set in New York City in 1965 at a time when American culture was on the verge of explosion.

“The years that came between the assassination of President Kennedy and the Vietnam War were full of transitions that left many Americans wondering where they fit in,” Stauffer said.

Director Stauffer is a part-time faculty member in the Theatre and Dance Department.

Films to help mark Black History Month
Two films that highlight racism will help mark Cal Poly’s continuing celebration of Black History Month.

“Color of Fear,” a dramatic film that deals with racial tensions, will be shown at 7 p.m. today (Feb. 16) in Room 223 in the Erhart Agriculture Building.

“Racism” is scheduled to be screened at 7 p.m. Thursday (Feb. 17) in Fisher Science 286. A discussion of the film will be led by Ethnic Studies Professor Charise Cheney.

Organizations sponsoring Black History Month at Cal Poly are the Black Student Union, Black Faculty and Staff Association, College of Liberal Arts, Housing and Residential Life department, Multi-Cultural Center and Women’s Programs office.

For more information, call Patricia Ponce, coordinator of the Multi-Cultural Center, at ext. 6-5840.

Search committees named for two deans’ positions
President Baker has appointed members to serve on the consultative committees for the selection of a dean for the College of Business and for dean of Extended Studies.

Members serving on the committee to select the dean for the College of Business are Larry Gay (chair), Industrial Technology; Janet Carr, Accounting; Michael Faltas, English; Coleen Ryan, Global Strategy and Law; Peter Lee, College of Engineering; Marc Loupe, College of Business Administration; Manbir Singh, Business Administration.

The committee is expected to make its recommendation for a dean to President Baker. The committee will also recommend an appropriate compensation package.

Members serving on the committee to select the dean of Extended Studies are Larry Gay (chair), Industrial Technology; Janet Carr, Accounting; Michael Faltas, English; Coleen Ryan, Global Strategy and Law; Peter Lee, College of Engineering; Marc Loupe, College of Business Administration; Manbir Singh, Business Administration.

The committee is expected to make its recommendation for a dean to President Baker. The committee will also recommend an appropriate compensation package.

Divinity in higher ed to be topic Feb. 24
A presentation and discussion will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Feb. 24 about a national study on diversity in higher education that is to be released this month.

The session, titled “Why Race Matters: The Benefits of Racial and Ethnic Diversity,” will be held in the Smith Alumni and Conference Center. It will be led by Jeff Milet, a professor of education at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Milet will speak on a similar topic at 7 p.m. that evening in the Sneddon Factory in a Black History Month presentation designed for students.

For more information, contact Mike Line at mlime@calpoly.edu or by e-mail.

Library to honor Cal Poly authors April 12
The second annual “Global Reach, Local Touch” celebration to honor Cal Poly authors will be April 12 from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Library atrium.

The library is seeking nominations from the Cal Poly faculty and staff members who have published books in 1999 or 2000, to be included among the honorees.

During the reception, the library Dean Hiram Davis, El Corral Director Frank Cawley, and President Baker will deliver remarks and present the honorees with fractional book certificates. Refreshments will be served.

The event coincides with National Library Week, April 9 to 17, during which the library will exhibit books written by current and former Cal Poly authors and will feature displays of books published in 1999.

The reception is sponsored by the Library, El Corral Bookstore, and the Provost’s Office.

For more information, contact Sariya Talladale at ext. 4-6524.

Library

Theater

Diversity

Campus permits to be honored during events
Quarterly and annual campus parking permits will be valid in general event parking once the new parking structure is completed.

Faculty, staff and student permit holders, who have been required to pay the additional fee to park in special lots set aside for events in the Performing Arts Center, Mort Gym and other campus facilities, won’t have to pay the event fee once the structure is in use.

The university anticipates that the structure will provide enough parking to accommodate both event permits and campus permit holders.

Event parking normally will be in the structure, with the Grand Avenue surface lots available only to campus permit holders and non-event parking.

Event parking designated as “preferred” or “general” will remain restricted to in­ scued guests. Campus permits will not be honored in those spaces.

For more information, contact Vicki Stover, visitor services vice president for administration, at ext. 6-2177.

Fees

The Rec Center is offering discounted passes for several major university projects that have been secured, including Mort Gym, the Children’s Center, the Performing Arts Center and the Rec Sports Complex.

The one-time visit fee is $4.

The Rec Center offers discounts
The Rec Center is offering discounted passes for several major university projects that have been secured, including Mort Gym, the Children’s Center, the Performing Arts Center and the Rec Sports Complex.

The one-time visit fee is $4.

Ticket information
Tickets to the performances listed in today’s Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.

For more information, call the Performing Arts office at ext. 6-5840.

Tickets for events in the Performing Arts Center are $10 to $17. Tickets for events in the Alumni Recreation Center are $10 to $14.

Diversity in higher ed to be topic Feb. 24
A presentation and discussion will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Feb. 24 about a national study on diversity in higher education that is to be released this month.

The session, titled “Why Race Matters: The Benefits of Racial and Ethnic Diversity,” will be held in the Smith Alumni and Conference Center. It will be led by Jeff Milet, a professor of education at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Milet will speak on a similar topic at 7 p.m. that evening in the Sneddon Factory in a Black History Month presentation designed for students.

For more information, contact Mike Line at mlime@calpoly.edu or by e-mail.

Library

Theater

Diversity

Campus permits to be honored during events
Quarterly and annual campus parking permits will be valid in general event parking once the new parking structure is completed.

Faculty, staff and student permit holders, who have been required to pay the additional fee to park in special lots set aside for events in the Performing Arts Center, Mort Gym and other campus facilities, won’t have to pay the event fee once the structure is in use.

The university anticipates that the structure will provide enough parking to accommodate both event permits and campus permit holders.

Event parking normally will be in the structure, with the Grand Avenue surface lots available only to campus permit holders and non-event parking.

Event parking designated as “preferred” or “general” will remain restricted to in­ scued guests. Campus permits will not be honored in those spaces.

For more information, contact Vicki Stover, visitor services vice president for administration, at ext. 6-2177.

Fees

The Rec Center is offering discounted passes for several major university projects that have been secured, including Mort Gym, the Children’s Center, the Performing Arts Center and the Rec Sports Complex.

The one-time visit fee is $4.

The Rec Center offers discounts
The Rec Center is offering discounted passes for several major university projects that have been secured, including Mort Gym, the Children’s Center, the Performing Arts Center and the Rec Sports Complex.

The one-time visit fee is $4.

Ticket information
Tickets to the performances listed in today’s Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.

For more information, call the Performing Arts office at ext. 6-5840.

Tickets for events in the Performing Arts Center are $10 to $17. Tickets for events in the Alumni Recreation Center are $10 to $14.

Pagination errors in this issue have caused some distortions and misalignments of text. Museum parking will normally be in the structure, with the Grand Avenue surface lots available only to campus permit holders and non-event parking.

Event parking designated as “preferred” or “general” will remain restricted to in­ scued guests. Campus permits will not be honored in those spaces.

For more information, contact Vicki Stover, visitor services vice president for administration, at ext. 6-2177.

Fees

The Rec Center is offering discounted passes for several major university projects that have been secured, including Mort Gym, the Children’s Center, the Performing Arts Center and the Rec Sports Complex.

The one-time visit fee is $4.

The Rec Center offers discounts
The Rec Center is offering discounted passes for several major university projects that have been secured, including Mort Gym, the Children’s Center, the Performing Arts Center and the Rec Sports Complex.

The one-time visit fee is $4.

Ticket information
Tickets to the performances listed in today’s Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.

For more information, call the Performing Arts office at ext. 6-5840.

Tickets for events in the Performing Arts Center are $10 to $17. Tickets for events in the Alumni Recreation Center are $10 to $14.
Campus permits to be honored during events
Quarterly and annual campus parking permits will be valid in general event parking once the new parking structure is in use.
Faculty, staff and student permit holders, who have been required to pay the additional fee to park in special event lots set aside for events in the Performing Arts Center, Mort Gym and other campus facilities, won't have to pay the event fee once the structure is in use.

The university anticipates that the structure will provide enough parking to accommodate both event permit holders and campus permit holders. Parking event will normally be in the structure, with the Grand Avenue surface lots available only to campus permit holders and non-event parking.

Event parking designated as "preferred" or "reserved" will remain restricted to scheduled guests. Campus permits will not be honored in those spaces.

For more information, call Vicki Stover, associate vice president for administration, at ext. 6-2171.

Credit Report changing to twice yearly
The Credit Report, the Public Affairs publication listing the professional accomplishments of the faculty, staff, emeriti and students, will be published twice yearly for submitting items for the next issue is planned to be in early May. Watch the Cal Poly Report for more information about the deadline and possible changes in The Credit Report format.

For more information, contact Bob Anderson at ext. 6-6532 or by e-mail.

Films to help mark Black History Month
Two films that highlight racism will help mark Cal Poly's continuing celebration of Black History Month.

"Color of Fear," a dramatic film that deals with racial tensions, will be shown at 7 p.m. today (Feb. 16) in Room 223 in the Erhart Agriculture Building. "Racism in America," screened at 7 p.m. Thursday (Feb. 17) in Fisher Science 286. A discussion of the film will be led by Ethnic Studies Professor Charles Cheney.

Organizations sponsoring Black History Month at Cal Poly are the Black Student Union, Black Faculty and Staff Association, College of Liberal Arts, Housing and Residential Life department, Multi-Cultural Center and Women's Programs office.

For more information, call Patricia Fontes, coordinator of the Multi-Cultural Center, at ext. 6-8440.

Search committees named for two deans' positions
President Baker has appointed members to serve on the consultative committees for the selection of a dean for the College of Business and for dean of Extended Studies.

Members serving on the committees to select a dean for the College of Business are Larry Gay (chair), Industrial Technology; Anna McDonald, University Resources and Employment Equity; Jere Maniar, chair, Student Business Council; Abhay Donthi, chair, College of Business Administration; Anna Messer, Academic Personnel (ex officio); James Sena, Student Services; the College of Liberal Arts, Ethnic Studies Professor Charise Cheney; the offices of the vice presidents for student affairs and administration and finance, the Black Faculty and Staff Association, Multicultural Programs and Services, the College of Liberal Arts, Ethnic Studies, the Black Student Union, and Housing and Residential Life.

Rec Center offers discounts
The Rec Center is offering discounted group exercise classes for the remainder of the quarter.

"Noon-hour" passes are $14.50 and are good from noon to 1:15 p.m. and noon Monday through Friday.

The "ultimate pass," now $19.50, allows membership to take unlimited classes. The "sample pass," at $20, is good for any six class visits.

The one-time visit fee is $4.00.

Diversity in higher ed to be topic Feb. 24
A presentation and discussion will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Feb. 24 about a national study on diversity in higher education that is to be released this month.

The session, titled "Why Race Matters: The Benefits of Racial and Ethnic Diversity in Higher Education," will be held in the Smith Alumni and Conference Center. It will be led by Jeff Milem, a professor of education at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Milem will speak on a similar topic at 7 p.m. that evening in the Sandwich Factory in a Black History Month presentation designed for students.

For the last 20 years Milem has worked as an administrator, researcher and teacher at various universities across the nation. He has focused his research on race dynamics in higher education and the educational outcomes of diversity education.

The afternoon discussion is sponsored by the President's Office on behalf of the University Diversity Enhancement Committee and the offices for student affairs and administration, finance, the Black Faculty and Staff Association, Multicultural Programs and Services, the College of Liberal Arts, Ethnic Studies, the Black Student Union, and Housing and Residential Life.

Library to honor Cal Poly authors April 12
The second annual "Global Reach, Local Touch" celebration to honor Cal Poly authors will be April 12 from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Library atrium. The celebration also recognizes faculty and staff members who had published books in 1999 should e-mail Mike Line at mline@calpoly.edu or call him at ext. 6-2305 by Feb. 18 to be included among the honorees.

During the reception, the library Dean Hiram Davis, El Corral Director Frank Cawley, and President Baker will deliver remarks and present the honorees with framed certificates. Refreshments will be served.

The event coincides with National Library Week, April 9 to 17, during which the library will exhibit books written by current and former Cal Poly authors and will feature displays of books published in 1999.

The reception is sponsored by the library, El Corral Bookstore, and the Provost's Office.

For more information, contact Sariya Taylor at satriya@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-6244.

---

Diversity in higher ed to be topic Feb. 24
A presentation and discussion will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Feb. 24 about a national study on diversity in higher education that is to be released this month.

The session, titled "Why Race Matters: The Benefits of Racial and Ethnic Diversity in Higher Education," will be held in the Smith Alumni and Conference Center. It will be led by Jeff Milem, a professor of education at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Milem will speak on a similar topic at 7 p.m. that evening in the Sandwich Factory in a Black History Month presentation designed for students.

For the last 20 years Milem has worked as an administrator, researcher and teacher at various universities across the nation. He has focused his research on race dynamics in higher education and the educational outcomes of diversity education.

The afternoon discussion is sponsored by the President's Office on behalf of the University Diversity Enhancement Committee and the offices for student affairs and administration, finance, the Black Faculty and Staff Association, Multicultural Programs and Services, the College of Liberal Arts, Ethnic Studies, the Black Student Union, and Housing and Residential Life.

Library to honor Cal Poly authors April 12
The second annual "Global Reach, Local Touch" celebration to honor Cal Poly authors will be April 12 from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Library atrium. The celebration also recognizes faculty and staff members who had published books in 1999 should e-mail Mike Line at mline@calpoly.edu or call him at ext. 6-2305 by Feb. 18 to be included among the honorees.

During the reception, the library Dean Hiram Davis, El Corral Director Frank Cawley, and President Baker will deliver remarks and present the honorees with framed certificates. Refreshments will be served.

The event coincides with National Library Week, April 9 to 17, during which the library will exhibit books written by current and former Cal Poly authors and will feature displays of books published in 1999.

The reception is sponsored by the library, El Corral Bookstore, and the Provost's Office.

For more information, contact Sariya Taylor at satriya@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-6244.

---

Search committees named for two deans' positions
President Baker has appointed members to serve on the consultative committees for the selection of a dean for the College of Business and for dean of Extended Studies.

Members serving on the committees to select a dean for the College of Business are Larry Gay (chair), Industrial Technology; Anna McDonald, University Resources and Employment Equity; Jere Maniar, chair, Student Business Council; Abhay Donthi, chair, College of Business Administration; Anna Messer, Academic Personnel (ex officio); James Sena, Student Services; the College of Liberal Arts, Ethnic Studies Professor Charise Cheney; the offices of the vice presidents for student affairs and administration and finance, the Black Faculty and Staff Association, Multicultural Programs and Services, the College of Liberal Arts, Ethnic Studies, the Black Student Union, and Housing and Residential Life.

Rec Center offers discounts
The Rec Center is offering discounted group exercise classes for the remainder of the quarter.

"Noon-hour" passes are $14.50 and are good from noon to 1:15 p.m. and noon Monday through Friday.

The "ultimate pass," now $19.50, allows membership to take unlimited classes. The "sample pass," at $20, is good for any six class visits.

The one-time visit fee is $4.00.

Diversity in higher ed to be topic Feb. 24
A presentation and discussion will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Feb. 24 about a national study on diversity in higher education that is to be released this month.

The session, titled "Why Race Matters: The Benefits of Racial and Ethnic Diversity in Higher Education," will be held in the Smith Alumni and Conference Center. It will be led by Jeff Milem, a professor of education at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Milem will speak on a similar topic at 7 p.m. that evening in the Sandwich Factory in a Black History Month presentation designed for students.

For the last 20 years Milem has worked as an administrator, researcher and teacher at various universities across the nation. He has focused his research on race dynamics in higher education and the educational outcomes of diversity education.

The afternoon discussion is sponsored by the President's Office on behalf of the University Diversity Enhancement Committee and the offices for student affairs and administration, finance, the Black Faculty and Staff Association, Multicultural Programs and Services, the College of Liberal Arts, Ethnic Studies, the Black Student Union, and Housing and Residential Life.

Library to honor Cal Poly authors April 12
The second annual "Global Reach, Local Touch" celebration to honor Cal Poly authors will be April 12 from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Library atrium. The celebration also recognizes faculty and staff members who had published books in 1999 should e-mail Mike Line at mline@calpoly.edu or call him at ext. 6-2305 by Feb. 18 to be included among the honorees.

During the reception, the library Dean Hiram Davis, El Corral Director Frank Cawley, and President Baker will deliver remarks and present the honorees with framed certificates. Refreshments will be served.

The event coincides with National Library Week, April 9 to 17, during which the library will exhibit books written by current and former Cal Poly authors and will feature displays of books published in 1999.

The reception is sponsored by the library, El Corral Bookstore, and the Provost's Office.

For more information, contact Sariya Taylor at satriya@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-6244.
Position vacancies

Below are all the new, previously unadvertised employment openings at the university. You may access full information about these and other previously advertised positions at www.calpoly.edu (scroll down and select "Employment Opportunities").

STATE: For a complete listing of employment opportunities for state staff and management positions, you can:

• Check the Human Resources and Employment Equity Web site at www.calpoly.edu, under Employment Opportunities;

• Come to the HHRE office, Adm. 110, and view the posted positions;

• Call the HHRE Job Line at ext. 6-1533.

For a listing of new openings, check The Tribune's Sunday edition.

If you have questions, please call HHRE at ext. 6-2327.

Young violin virtuos to perform, give workshop

Sisters Ariana, 16, and Amberly Rosen, 15, have been winning violin virtuosos and fellows also known for their folk dancing, will perform at 3 p.m. Sunday (Feb. 20) in the Performing Arts Center's Pavilion.

The Rosens will also host a workshop for violin players on Saturday (Feb. 19) at St. Stephen's Church in San Luis Obispo. The workshop is free and open to all musicians. Participants should bring their own instruments.

The sisters, from Oregon, have been playing violin since they were preschoolers. In 1999, they were the youngest winners in the twin division of Oregon's Old Time Festival State Contest. They have performed with fiddle master Mark O'Connor and the Eugene Symphony and are members of Balladina, Eugene's international folk-dance group. Tickets to the concert are $6. For information on the concert, call the Performing Arts Ticket Office at ext. 6-2787.

For information on the violin workshop, call the San Luis Obispo Symphony office at 543-3533.

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report is published every Wednesday during the academic year. Articles are due to Public Affairs by 10 a.m. Wednesday for the following week.

Items can be e-mailed to policeyns@polymail.calpoly.edu or faxed to 6-5333, or mailed to Public Affairs, Heron Hall.

For more information call ext. 6-1511.

D A T E L I N E

(5) — Admission charged

Exhibit

ASI Fine Arts Club 221 (UU): "Default Settings," an invitational student show. Through March 10. Hours: Monday- Friday 9 a.m.-9 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday, noon-9 p.m.

University Art Building 7L: "A Big, Wide, Legacy Women in Graphic Design." Through March 8. Hours: 11 a.m.-4 p.m. daily; Wednesday-7 p.m.

Wednesday, February 16

Film: "The Color of Fury," Ehart Agriculture 223, 7 p.m.

Thursday, February 17

Physics College: Lee Burgander (Global Strategy and Law), "The Microsoft Case," Science E-45, 11 a.m.

Women's History Month Speaker: Lois Dirkes (Psychological Academic) and students, "Student Rep.," UU 217, 11 a.m.

Books at High Noon: Harry Hellenbrand (College of Liberal Arts), "The Shape of the River" by William Bowen and Derek Curtis Bok and "The Big Test" by Nicholas Lemann, Veranda Cafe, noon.

Women's History Month Quilting Session: Denise Campbell (Student Affairs), Veranda Cafe, also Feb. 24, 4 p.m., Veranda Cafe.

Film: discussion:"Racism 101," Fisher 208, 7 p.m.

Friday, February 18

Speaker: Mark Moine (Biological Sciences), "The Use of Remote Instrumentation for Forecasting Ocean Processes," University of SLO, 8 a.m.-9 p.m.

Baseball: U. of San Francisco, SLO Stadium, 5 p.m. Also Feb. 19-20 (S)

Women's Basketball: Long Beach State, Mott Gym, 7 p.m. (S)

Music: SLO-UC Davis Wind Ensemble, Janet Harbison, Davisville 218, 7:30 p.m.

Saturday, February 19

Baseball: SLO-UC Davis, SLO Stadium, 1 p.m. Also Feb. 20-21 (S)

Music: Pismo senior recital, Stewart Vydya, Davisville 218, 3 p.m.

Continued on page 3

Clifford Chapman receives President's Arts Award

Clifford Chapman of Shell Beach, longtime benefactor of the arts in San Luis Obispo County, is being honored for his tireless and enthusiastic support for the region's cultural life.

Chapman has been chosen to receive the 2000 Cal Poly President's Arts Award. Awarding the honor, Jim Jamieson, 1998 President's Arts center benefactor, said, "Not only did Cliff's vision and dedication help build the facility, but his enduring commitment helps bring art to life at the center. He is truly a devoted advocate of the arts in San Luis Obispo County."