Position vacancies

Below are all the new, previously unadvertised employment openings at the university, as well as any access full information about these and other, previously advertised positions at www.calpoly.edu, under Employment Opportunities:

• Call the HREE Job Line at ext. 6-1533.

For a listing of new openings, check the Tribune's Sunday edition.

If you have questions, please call HREE at ext. 6-2377.

Continental Celebration Coordinator, (Public Affairs Assistant II),* University Advancement Division, Public Affairs, $2961-3560, temporary to 6/1102. Internal reassignment; on-campus candidates may apply. Closing date: May 17.

...D ATELI.E

by Arthur Miller, Cal Poly Theatre, 9 p.m. ($)

Sunday, May 21
Basball: UCSB, SLO Stadium, 7 p.m. ($)

Tuesday, May 23
Music: Dave Harris, Back Stage Pizza, noon.

Wednesday, May 24
Music: Guest artist ensemble recital, Phillips Hall, PAC, 7 p.m.

Thursday, May 25
Physics Colloquium: Student research, Science E-45, 11 a.m.
What Else We Do: Kevin Clark Tribune's Sunday edition.

Friday, May 26
Books at High Noon: Bob Wolf (Math), "The Cause Against the Global Economy (and for a Tow Towards the Local)" by Jerry Mulder and Edward Goldsmith, Van Nuys Café, noon.
Circus: Oppi! The Big Apple Circus Stage Show. Also May 17. Human Hall, 7 p.m. ($)
Hypermart Speaker: Bruce McDonald, Chumash, 7 p.m. ($)

Monday, May 28
Holiday: Memorial Day. Campus closed except for emergency services.

Friday, May 30
Physics Colloquium: Student research, Science E-45, 11 a.m.

Saturday, May 31
Physics Colloquium: Steve Construction funded, Davidson Music Center 218, 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday, June 2
Final exam period: Through Friday, Summer quarter classes begin.

Wednesday, June 3
Music: Wind Quintet recital, Davidson Music Center 218, 7:30 p.m.

Thursday, June 4
Music: Davis Harris, Back Stage Pizza, noon.

Friday, June 5
Music: Wind Orchestra Spring Concert, Human Hall, 8 p.m. ($)

Saturday, June 6
Music: Cal Poly Chamber Orchestra Spring Concert, Theatre, 3 p.m. ($)

Tuesdays, June 23-29
Final exam period: Through Friday, June 26.

Saturday, June 10
Commencement: Colleges of Agriculture, Liberal Arts and Science, Mathematics, plus UCTE and Satellite Nursing Programs, 9 a.m.; colleges of Architecture and Environmental Design, Business and Engineering, 2 p.m.; Mustang Stadium.

Sunday, June 11
Quarter Break: Through Sunday, June 18.

Monday, June 12
Summer quarter classes begin.

...D ATELI.E

Continued from page 1

Tuesday, May 10
Music: Dwell on Voice, Back Stage Pizza, noon.
Circus! Oppi! The Big Apple Circus Stage Show. Also May 17. Human Hall, 7 p.m. ($)

Wednesday, May 17
Rage, Back Stage Pizza, noon.
Circus! Oppi! The Big Apple Circus Stage Show. Also May 18. Human Hall, 7 p.m. ($)
Hypermart Speaker: Bruce McDonald, Chumash, 7 p.m. ($)

Thursday, May 18
Books at High Noon: Bob Wolf (Math), "The Cause Against the Global Economy (and for a Tow Towards the Local)" by Jerry Mulder and Edward Goldsmith, Van Nuys Café, noon.
Circus! Oppi! The Big Apple Circus Stage Show, Human Hall, 7 p.m. ($)
Play: Theatre and Dance Department's spring production, "All My Sons" by Arthur Miller. Also May 19-20. Cal Poly Theatre, 8 p.m. ($)

Friday, May 19
Music: Dogwood Moon, Back Stage Pizza, noon.

Wednesday, May 23
Music: Wind Orchestra Spring Concert, Human Hall, 8 p.m. ($)

Monday, May 20
Music: Cal Poly Chamber Orchestra Spring Concert, Theatre, 3 p.m. ($)

Wednesday, June 1
Final exam period: Through Friday, June 3.

Thursday, June 2
Commencement: Colleges of Agriculture, Liberal Arts and Science, Mathematics, plus UCTE and Satellite Nursing Programs, 9 a.m.; colleges of Architecture and Environmental Design, Business and Engineering, 2 p.m.; Mustang Stadium.

Sunday, June 11
Quarter Break: Through Sunday, June 18.

Monday, June 12
Summer quarter classes begin.

...D ATELI.E

Continued on page 6

D ATELI.E

Exhibits

University Art Gallery (Dexter Building): Lowie figurative works by Ruth Weinberg and Patty Wickham, through June 4. Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-4 p.m. and Wednesday 7-9 p.m.

Wednesday, May 10
Music: Acoustic Rapid, Back Stage Pizza, noon.

Thursday, May 11
Physics Colloquium: Beatrice Schmidt (Princeton), "Granite and Wolfman," Science E-45, 11 a.m.
Mathematics Colloquium: Art Heineman (Harvey Mudd College), "The Best Way to Knock off Dows," Math and Science Building 225, 11:10 a.m.

Friday, June 2
Play: Theatre and Dance Department's spring production, "All My Sons" by Arthur Miller. Also May 12-13 and 18-20. Cal Poly Theatre, 8 p.m. ($)

Philosophy at Poly K. Sigman (University of Oregon and Pondicherry University, India), "The Need for a Comparative Philosophy," UCSB UCTE, 2:30 p.m.
Play: Theatre and Dance Department's spring production, "All My Sons" by Arthur Miller. Also May 13 and 18-20. Cal Poly Theatre, 8 p.m. ($)

Saturday, May 13
Music: Jazz Night, Hardman Hall, 8 p.m. ($)
Play: Theatre and Dance Department's spring production, "All My Sons" by Arthur Miller. Also May 18-20. Cal Poly Theatre, 8 p.m. ($)

Continued on page 6

Vice President Gonzalez to take job at Georgetown

Jua Gonzalez, who has served as Cal Poly's vice president for Student Affairs since 1994, has announced he will leave in July for the same position at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

As head of Student Affairs, Gonzalez has played a key role in developing university policy. He has also been responsible for overseeing all aspects of Cal Poly's student services program, which includes Student Academic Services, Student Life and Activities, Health and Psychological Services, Residential Life and Recreation, Campus Student Relations and Judicial Affairs, and Career Services. He also served as the university liaison to the Associated Students Inc., with oversight responsibilities to the ASI Executive Office.

Dr. Gonzalez has done an outstanding job and contributed significantly to the development of the university," said President Baker. "He has been an extraordinary vice president for Cal Poly, and I am confident he will be a wonderful addition to Georgetown, one of the nation's great universities. While we regret losing him, we wish him well as he goes on to pursue this significant opportunity."

During his tenure at Cal Poly, Gonzalez won praise as "an effective, key member of the senior administrative team." He also has been recognized for placing an emphasis on collaboration, pioneering the university's first-year initiative for freshmen, and spearheading plans for the

...continued on page 6

Vice President Gonzalez to take job at Georgetown

Continued on page 6
Cal Poly debaters ranked No. 1 in West

For the second time in four years, Cal Poly's Debate Squad ended its season as the No. 1-ranked intercollegiate cross-examination debate program in the West region.

Cal Poly was fourth in the West in 1999, second in 1996 and first in 1997. Cal Poly was ranked No. 24 in the national standings, according to final rankings released by the Cross Examination Debate Association. In all, 170 colleges and universities were listed in the association's final season rankings. The No. 24 position in the team's highest finish in the national standings since 1986, when the university's debate program ended the year at No. 21.

During the season, Cal Poly's team competed in 13 tournaments, winning awards in all but three. The debaters won a total of 14 team awards and 22 individual speaking awards, including five tournament championships and four division top-speaker awards.

For more information, visit the team's Web site at http://news.calpoly.edu/spc/debate.

Cal Poly selects outstanding employees

Three employees cited for professionalism, competence, thoroughness, enthusiasm and dedication have been chosen 1999-2000 Outstanding Staff Employees.

Faculty and staff members will have an opportunity to brush up on workshop creation and presentation skills when Kathleen Allen speaks on "Training the 'Teachable Moment.'" / 9 a.m. May 18 in UU 220.

Allen, currently president of her own consulting firm, is a nationally known author and expert on leadership coaching and organizational transformation for higher education, non-profit organizations and businesses.

Her presentation will run until 2 p.m., with a lunch break 11:15-12:45 a.m.

In the session, Allen will focus on how to design interactive workshops for students and faculty members to improve teambuilding and community relations.

Allen earned a doctorate in educational leadership from the University of San Diego and has worked in higher education for more than 25 years, including service as vice president for student development at the College of St. Benedict in Minnesota.

Allen's visit is sponsored by Student Life's LEADS (Leadership Education and Development for Students) Program, which expects to be in operation by September. The program has been designed to give students the opportunity to be successful leaders and members of clubs, organizations, and class project teams.

Seating is limited and reservations are recommended. For more information, call Professor Gerald Smith at ext. 6-2663.

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report is published every Wednesday during the academic year. Articles are Due in Public Affairs by 10 a.m. Wednesday for the following week's edition. Items can be e-mailed to polnews@calpoly.edu (add .calpoly.edu if needed), faxed to 6-6533, or invited to Public Affairs, Heron Hall.

For more information, call ext. 6-1511.

Kennedy Library to host "Education for WineSense"

The campus community is invited to learn about the Central Coast's Women for WineSense program at a special fund-raising event 6-8 p.m. Saturday (May 13) in the Kennedy Library atrium.

The event, titled "Education for WineSense," is a collaboration between the Cal Poly Chapter of the Women for WineSense and the Kennedy Library to develop a wine information collection that would support the wine studies and wine marketing programs offered by the College of Agriculture.

The collection is also intended to serve as an educational tool for the wine industry and related businesses on the Central Coast.

The event will also include a silent auction to raise funds for materials for the Education for WineSense collection and demonstrations of the Education for WineSense Web site, and librarians-guided "virtual tours" of the Web site.

The event, $10 per person, includes sweet and savory appetizers and desserts, wine, and the chance to bid in a silent auction.

For more information, call the Land Resources and Planning Department at ext. 6-1319 or e-mail Professor Gerald Smith at gsmith@calpoly.edu.

Career Symposium 2000

The Landscape Architecture Department at Cal Poly and the student chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects and the Sigma Lambda Alpha Honor Society are sponsoring a Career Symposium on Thursday and Friday (May 11-12).

Registration forms from various California-based private and public agencies are expected to sit and meet with students to discuss possibilities of full-time employment and summer internships.

Workshops on how students should prepare for the interview process will also be part of the symposium. Students' design work and other projects will also be displayed.

For more information, call the Landscape Architecture Department at ext. 6-1319 or e-mail Professor Gerald Smith at gsmith@calpoly.edu.

Campus community can aid Special Olympics

Faculty and staff members are invited to participate in "Tip a Cop," a fund-raiser dinner and event for Special Olympics, set for Tuesday (May 16) at the San Luis Obispo Vets Hall on Grand Avenue.

University Police Chief Tony Aeilts and Student Government President John Wickman will perform with the University Jazz Band at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center to support the wine studies and wine marketing programs offered by the College of Agriculture.

For more information, call ext. 6-2643.

Vista Grande to serve Mother's Day brunch

Vista Grande will serve a special brunch for Mother's Day -- Saturday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., including buffet, turkey, prime rib, and an ocean view. The cost is $15.95/adults and $6.95 for children. Call ext. 6-1204 for reservations.

Vista Grande will serve Mother's Day brunch

Vista Grande will serve a special brunch for Mother's Day -- Saturday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., including buffet, turkey, prime rib, and an ocean view. The cost is $15.95/adults and $6.95 for children. Call ext. 6-1204 for reservations.

"Historical talk on 'Racial frontier'

Former Cal Poly History Professor Quentin Taylor will speak on the subject of African-Americans in research of the racial frontier in California and will win the "Pacific slope" at 11 a.m. May 19 in Chumash Auditorium.

His talk will develop the concept of a racial frontier and explain its relevance in the area along the Pacific.

Taylor, a professor of American history at the University of Washington, is a nationally recognized, award-winning scholar whose book-length study of the racial frontier was nominated for the 1998 Peizer Prize in history.

He has published two books and co-authored a fourth that deal with various aspects of the interactions of African-Americans with broad trends and general developments in the nation's history.

Taylor taught at Cal Poly from 1977 through 1990, during which time he was the founding faculty faculty chair of Alpha Phi Alpha, a fraternity for men of African descent.

Taylor's appearance is sponsored by the History Department, Multi-Cultural Center and Ethnic Studies Department.

For more information, call the History Department at ext. 6-2543.

"The Bellson beat"

Louie Bellson, whom Duke Ellington called "the world's greatest drummer," will perform with the University Jazz Band at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Kennedy Library to host "Education for WineSense."
Hypnotist, motivator to speak May 17

Hypnotist and motivational speaker Bruce McDonald will appear at 7 p.m. May 17 in Chumash Auditorium. McDonald, a graduate of Indiana University and a certified hypnotist, performs hypnosis entertainment and motivational seminars throughout the United States, Mexico, Canada and Australia.

"Combining hypnosis with a sharp wit and humorous audience participation, McDonald delights audiences with his extraordinary energy and professionalism," said Diana Cozzi, ASI events coordinator. McDonald has presented goal-setting and memory retention seminars to universities and corporations. He has performed several times at Cal Poly, most recently during the fall 1999 Week of Welcome program.

Tickets, $3 for the public and $1 for Cal Poly students, may be purchased at the door. McDonald’s appearance is sponsored by ASI Events. For more information call Cozzi at ext. 6-2419 or 6-2558.

Hypnotist, motivator to speak May 17

Hypnotist and motivational speaker Bruce McDonald will appear at 7 p.m. May 17 in Chumash Auditorium. McDonald, a graduate of Indiana University and a certified hypnotist, performs hypnosis entertainment and motivational seminars throughout the United States, Mexico, Canada and Australia.

"Combining hypnosis with a sharp wit and humorous audience participation, McDonald delights audiences with his extraordinary energy and professionalism," said Diana Cozzi, ASI events coordinator. McDonald has presented goal-setting and memory retention seminars to universities and corporations. He has performed several times at Cal Poly, most recently during the fall 1999 Week of Welcome program.

Tickets, $3 for the public and $1 for Cal Poly students, may be purchased at the door. McDonald’s appearance is sponsored by ASI Events. For more information call Cozzi at ext. 6-2419 or 6-2558.

Saenz to lead Physics

Richard Saenz has been appointed chair of the Physics Department effective fall quarter 2000. Saenz has been teaching at Cal Poly since 1980.

Saenz to lead Physics

Richard Saenz has been appointed chair of the Physics Department effective fall quarter 2000. Saenz has been teaching at Cal Poly since 1980.

"All My Sons"

Laura Black is Gini Keller and Brett Johnson is her husband, Joe, in the Theatre and Dance Department's production of Arthur Miller's "All My Sons." Performances will be at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday and May 16-20 in the Theatre. Tickets, $8 for the public and $7 for senior citizens and students, are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office, ext. 6-2787.

"All My Sons"

Laura Black is Gini Keller and Brett Johnson is her husband, Joe, in the Theatre and Dance Department's production of Arthur Miller's "All My Sons." Performances will be at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday and May 16-20 in the Theatre. Tickets, $8 for the public and $7 for senior citizens and students, are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office, ext. 6-2787.

Engineering recognizes outstanding faculty, staff

The College of Engineering recognized seven outstanding faculty and staff members at its recent annual awards banquet, at which Burt Rutan, 1965 aeronautical engineering graduate and world-renowned aircraft designer, presented "Breakthroughs: Why, When and How."

Professors from the College of Science and Mathematics and the College of Liberal Arts were honored along with three engineering faculty members who received industry-sponsored awards.

Aerospace Engineering Professor Fayzal Kolkallah was the $1,000 College of Engineering Excellence in Teaching and Applied Research Award. The $2,000 TRW Excellence in Teaching Award went to Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering Professor Umey Memon; Aerospace Engineering Professor Russell Cummings received the $5,000 Linton Research and Development Award; and Aerospace Engineering Professor Jordi Puig-Suari was named the Lockheed Endowed Professor.

"Dr. Kolkallah has provided breadth and depth in the aeronautics curriculum by offering a diverse array of structural courses, from structural dynamics to fracture mechanics to composites," said College of Engineering Associate Dean Dan Walsh. "Menon, a professor at Cal Poly for 22 years, was voted the Outstanding Faculty Member by industrial and manufacturing engineering students in 1979 and 1999. “Dr. Menon is known for his 'learn-by-doing' teaching methods. His class projects involve problems that students solve for local companies with industrial support," said Ray Haynes, a Cal Poly management professor and director of TRW's University Alliances program.

Cummings was recognized for his role as principal investigator in a $650,000 NASA multidisciplinary design grant that deals with the development of a new approach to engineering design education. The Lockheed Endowed Professorship, awarded this year to Puig-Suari, provides discretionary time and resources for professional growth and development for a two- to three-year period.

Puig-Suari joined Cal Poly in 1998. Since then he has built a successful space-craft design program with strong support from TRW, Hughes and Lockheed Martin Missiles and Space.

The engineering student body voted on the recipients for the Outstanding Achievement in Teaching awards and Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award. Winners were Physics Professor John Mottmann, who has taught at Cal Poly for 26 years, and Music Professor Craig Russell, who is appreciated by students for his "sometimes unorthodox but always entertaining" teaching style.

Mechanical Engineering Professor Glen Thuesen won the 2000 Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award for his mentorship of Tau Beta Pi, an engineering honor society. Outstanding Staff awards were given to Amy Hewes, director of publications and communications for the college, and to electrical engineering lab technician Jaime Carns.

Engineering recognizes outstanding faculty, staff

The College of Engineering recognized seven outstanding faculty and staff members at its recent annual awards banquet, at which Burt Rutan, 1965 aeronautical engineering graduate and world-renowned aircraft designer, presented "Breakthroughs: Why, When and How."

Professors from the College of Science and Mathematics and the College of Liberal Arts were honored along with three engineering faculty members who received industry-sponsored awards.

Aerospace Engineering Professor Fayzal Kolkallah was the $1,000 College of Engineering Excellence in Teaching and Applied Research Award. The $2,000 TRW Excellence in Teaching Award went to Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering Professor Umey Memon; Aerospace Engineering Professor Russell Cummings received the $5,000 Linton Research and Development Award; and Aerospace Engineering Professor Jordi Puig-Suari was named the Lockheed Endowed Professor.

"Dr. Kolkallah has provided breadth and depth in the aeronautics curriculum by offering a diverse array of structural courses, from structural dynamics to fracture mechanics to composites," said College of Engineering Associate Dean Dan Walsh. "Menon, a professor at Cal Poly for 22 years, was voted the Outstanding Faculty Member by industrial and manufacturing engineering students in 1979 and 1999. “Dr. Menon is known for his 'learn-by-doing' teaching methods. His class projects involve problems that students solve for local companies with industrial support," said Ray Haynes, a Cal Poly management professor and director of TRW's University Alliances program.

Cummings was recognized for his role as principal investigator in a $650,000 NASA multidisciplinary design grant that deals with the development of a new approach to engineering design education. The Lockheed Endowed Professorship, awarded this year to Puig-Suari, provides discretionary time and resources for professional growth and development for a two- to three-year period.

Puig-Suari joined Cal Poly in 1998. Since then he has built a successful space-craft design program with strong support from TRW, Hughes and Lockheed Martin Missiles and Space.

The engineering student body voted on the recipients for the Outstanding Achievement in Teaching awards and Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award. Winners were Physics Professor John Mottmann, who has taught at Cal Poly for 26 years, and Music Professor Craig Russell, who is appreciated by students for his "sometimes unorthodox but always entertaining" teaching style.

Mechanical Engineering Professor Glen Thuesen won the 2000 Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award for his mentorship of Tau Beta Pi, an engineering honor society. Outstanding Staff awards were given to Amy Hewes, director of publications and communications for the college, and to electrical engineering lab technician Jaime Carns.

‘All My Sons’

Laura Black is Gini Keller and Brett Johnson is her husband, Joe, in the Theatre and Dance Department’s production of Arthur Miller’s “All My Sons.” Performances will be at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday and May 16-20 in the Theatre. Tickets, $8 for the public and $7 for senior citizens and students, are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office, ext. 6-2787.

‘All My Sons’

Laura Black is Gini Keller and Brett Johnson is her husband, Joe, in the Theatre and Dance Department’s production of Arthur Miller’s “All My Sons.” Performances will be at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday and May 16-20 in the Theatre. Tickets, $8 for the public and $7 for senior citizens and students, are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office, ext. 6-2787.

Engineering recognizes outstanding faculty, staff

The College of Engineering recognized seven outstanding faculty and staff members at its recent annual awards banquet, at which Burt Rutan, 1965 aeronautical engineering graduate and world-renowned aircraft designer, presented “Breakthroughs: Why, When and How.”

Professors from the College of Science and Mathematics and the College of Liberal Arts were honored along with three engineering faculty members who received industry-sponsored awards.

Aerospace Engineering Professor Fayzal Kolkallah was the $1,000 College of Engineering Excellence in Teaching and Applied Research Award. The $2,000 TRW Excellence in Teaching Award went to Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering Professor Umey Memon; Aerospace Engineering Professor Russell Cummings received the $5,000 Linton Research and Development Award; and Aerospace Engineering Professor Jordi Puig-Suari was named the Lockheed Endowed Professor.

"Dr. Kolkallah has provided breadth and depth in the aeronautics curriculum by offering a diverse array of structural courses, from structural dynamics to fracture mechanics to composites," said College of Engineering Associate Dean Dan Walsh. "Menon, a professor at Cal Poly for 22 years, was voted the Outstanding Faculty Member by industrial and manufacturing engineering students in 1979 and 1999. “Dr. Menon is known for his 'learn-by-doing' teaching methods. His class projects involve problems that students solve for local companies with industrial support," said Ray Haynes, a Cal Poly management professor and director of TRW’s University Alliances program.

Cummings was recognized for his role as principal investigator in a $650,000 NASA multidisciplinary design grant that deals with the development of a new approach to engineering design education. The Lockheed Endowed Professorship, awarded this year to Puig-Suari, provides discretionary time and resources for professional growth and development for a two- to three-year period.

Puig-Suari joined Cal Poly in 1998. Since then he has built a successful space-craft design program with strong support from TRW, Hughes and Lockheed Martin Missiles and Space.

The engineering student body voted on the recipients for the Outstanding Achievement in Teaching awards and Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award. Winners were Physics Professor John Mottmann, who has taught at Cal Poly for 26 years, and Music Professor Craig Russell, who is appreciated by students for his "sometimes unorthodox but always entertaining" teaching style.

Mechanical Engineering Professor Glen Thuesen won the 2000 Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award for his mentorship of Tau Beta Pi, an engineering honor society. Outstanding Staff awards were given to Amy Hewes, director of publications and communications for the college, and to electrical engineering lab technician Jaime Carns.

‘All My Sons’

Laura Black is Gini Keller and Brett Johnson is her husband, Joe, in the Theatre and Dance Department’s production of Arthur Miller’s “All My Sons.” Performances will be at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday and May 16-20 in the Theatre. Tickets, $8 for the public and $7 for senior citizens and students, are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office, ext. 6-2787.

‘All My Sons’

Laura Black is Gini Keller and Brett Johnson is her husband, Joe, in the Theatre and Dance Department’s production of Arthur Miller’s “All My Sons.” Performances will be at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday and May 16-20 in the Theatre. Tickets, $8 for the public and $7 for senior citizens and students, are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office, ext. 6-2787.
Knock 'em Down

topic of math talk

Art Benjamin, a professor at Harvey Mudd College, will present "The Best Way to Knock 'em Down," at the next Mathematics Colloquium 11:10 a.m. Thursday (May 11) in Room 225 in the Math and Science Building.

"Knock 'em Down" is a game of dice so easy to learn that it is being played in classrooms around the world as a way to develop students' intuition about probability, according to Benjamin.

Benjamin's analysis will show that the game lurks many surprising and highly unintuitive results.

Landshark Biathlon set

ASI Recreational Sports will sponsor the "Landshark Biathlon" — an 800-yard swim and an 8-K run — May 20. The "first wave" starts at 7:30 a.m. at the Recreation Center Pool.

Pre-registration runs through May 18 at the front desk in the Recreation Center. Registration, including a T-shirt, costs $10 for an individual and $16 for a team. Same-day registration will be 6:45-7:15 a.m. and cost $12 for an individual, $18 for a team.

For more information, stop by the front desk in the Recreation Center or call ext. 6-1366.

Rec Sports offers strength-training class

ASI Recreational Sports is offering a free Strength Training for Beginners workshop 11 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday (May 13) in the west exercise room at the Rec Center.

Certified personal trainers will explore such topics as getting started with a strength-training program, training frequency, exercise selection and order, muscle balance, rest periods, and weight gain and loss.

The trainers will also discuss how to determine the proper "load" and how to adjust "volume" to meet fitness goals.

The importance of warming up and cooling down, nutrition, cardiovascular fitness, and flexibility will also be covered.

Anyone interested in attending can sign up at the front desk in the Recreation Center or call ext. 6-1366.

Environmental injustice

focus of talk Tuesday

Rutgers University Geography Professor Noriko Ishiyama will speak on "The Emerging Geography of Environmental Injustice: American Indians and the Nuclear Waste Dilemma in the United States" at noon Tuesday (May 16) in Room 203 in the Air Conditioning Building.

Her talk is sponsored by the Ethnic Studies Department. For more information, call ext. 6-1707.

Cal Poly gets national award

Comparative philosophy

focus of Friday talk

Professor K. Srinivas, visiting professor at the University of Oregon and an associate professor at the Sri Aurobindo School of Eastern and Western Thought at Pondicherry University in India, will speak on "The Need for a Comparative Philosophy" on Friday (May 12).

Srinivas' talk, part of the Philosophy Department's printing and imaging management concentration, has been teaching at Cal Poly since 1971.

Professor Landwehr to read fiction today

English Professor and author Al Landwehr will read from his fiction at 7 p.m. today (May 10) in Club 221, the on campus art gallery in the UU.

Sponsored by the Cal Poly Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, the national English Honor Society, the reading will be followed by a reception and refreshments.

Landwehr has taught fiction writing and 19th and 20th century literature since joining the Cal Poly English faculty in 1970. He is one of three faculty members to receive a Distinguished Teaching Award in 1996-97.

Landwehr serves as chair of the Creative Writing Program; alternates as faculty advisor to Byzantium, the campus literary magazine, and was the first chair of WriteSpeak, a program that brings writers of national reputation to campus to read their work and meet with students and faculty members.

He established the Cal Poly Creative Writing Contest in 1971 and remains its director. His short fiction has appeared in numerous magazines and literary journals.

For more information, call the English Department at ext. 6-2397 or Sigma Tau Delta advisor Deborah Schwartz at 6-7636.
Walk this way

International-renowned artist Patti Winkelman’s “Anonymous (Whit St. Agatha)” is among the large figurative paintings on exhibit through June 4 at the University Art Gallery.

Cal Poly debaters ranked No. 1 in West

For the second time in four years, Cal Poly’s Debate Squad ended its season as the No. 1-ranked intercollegiate debate program in the nation.

Cal Poly was fourth in the West in 1999, second in 1998 and first in 1997. Cal Poly was ranked No. 24 in the national standings, according to final rankings released by the Cross Examination Debate Association.

Allen, currently president of her own consulting firm, is a nationally known artist and expert on leadership coaching and organizational transformation for higher education, non-profit organizations and businesses.

The presentation will run until 2 p.m., with a lunch break from 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

In the session, Allen will focus on how to design interactive workshops for student and faculty groups to demonstrate simple workshops.

Allen earned a doctorate in educational leadership from the University of San Diego and has worked in higher education for more than 25 years, including service as vice president for student development at the College of St. Benedict in Minnesota.

Allen’s visit is sponsored by Student Life’s LEADS (Leadership Education and Development for Students) Program, which expects to be in operation by September. The program has been designed to give students the opportunity to be successful leaders and members of clubs, organizations, and class project teams.

Seating is limited and reservations are recommended. For reservations and more information, call Pat Harris, coordinator of Leadership Education and Development, at ext. 6-2982.

Career Symposium 2000

The Landscape Architecture Department, within the College of Environmental Design, will host a Career Symposium on Thursday and Friday (May 11-12).

The symposium will feature speakers from various California-based private and public agencies who are expected to address the field’s opportunities for professionals of all time.

Workshops on how students should prepare for the interview process will also be part of the symposium. Students’ design work and other projects will be displayed.

For more information, call the Landscape Architecture Department at ext. 6-3139 or e-mail Professor Gerald Smith at gsmith@calpoly.edu.

The Bellson beat

Louie Bellson, whose Drums rolled in the “world’s greatest drummers,” will perform with the University Jazz Band at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Performing Arts Center.

For more information, call ext. 6-1319 or e-mail Professor Gerald Smith at gsmith@calpoly.edu.

Kennedy Library to host ‘Education for WineSense’

Kitty community is invited to learn about the Central Coast’s Women for WineSense program at a special fund-raising event 6-8 p.m. Saturday, May 13 in the Kennedy Library atrium.

The event, titled “Education for WineSense,” is a collaboration between the San Luis Obispo Chapter of Women for WineSense and the Kennedy Library to develop a wine information collection to support the wine studies and marketing programs offered by the College of Agriculture.

The collection is also intended to serve as an educational tool for the wine industry and related businesses on the Central Coast.

The event will include a silent auction to raise funds for materials for the Education for WineSense collection, demonstrations of the Education for WineSense web site, and librarians-guided “virtual tours” of the Web site.

The cost, $10 per person, includes sweet and savory appetizers and desserts, wine, and the chance to bid in a silent auction.

For more information or to make a reservation, call Cal Poly Special Events at ext. 3-6690.

Vista Grande to serve Mother’s Day brunch

Vista Grande will serve a special brunch for Mother’s Day — Saturday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., including hot, cold, and an omelette bar.

There will be $10.95 for adults and $6.95 for children. Call ext. 6-1204 for reservations.

History prof. to talk on ‘Racial frontier’

Former Cal Poly History Professor Quintard Taylor will speak about the subject of African-American exports in the study of the racial frontier in California and its role in the Pacific Slope.

Taylor, a professor of American history at the University of Washington, is a nationally recognized, award-winning scholar whose book-length study of the racial frontier was nominated for the 1998 Peizer Prize in history.

He has published two books and co-authored a fourth that deals with various aspects of the interactions of African-Americans with broad trends and general developments in the modern West.

Taylor taught at Cal Poly from 1977 through 1990, during which time he was the founding faculty member and Alpha Phi Alpha, a fraternity for men of African descent.

Taylor’s appearance is sponsored by the History Department, Multicultural Center and Ethnic Studies Department.

For more information, call the History Department at ext. 6-2463.

The event will be held at 9 a.m. in the Davidson Music Center.

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report is published every Wednesday during the academic year. Articles are due to Public Affairs by 10 a.m. Wednesday for the following week’s edition.

Items can be e-mailed to polpublic@ calpoly.edu or mailed to Public Affairs, Heron Hall.

For more information, call ext. 6-1511.

Tips on how to raise funds for materials for the Education for WineSense collection, demonstrations of the Education for WineSense web site, and librarians-guided “virtual tours” of the Web site.

The event, titled “Education for WineSense,” is a collaboration between the San Luis Obispo Chapter of Women for WineSense and the Kennedy Library to develop a wine information collection to support the wine studies and marketing programs offered by the College of Agriculture.

The collection is also intended to serve as an educational tool for the wine industry and related businesses on the Central Coast.

The event will include a silent auction to raise funds for materials for the Education for WineSense collection, demonstrations of the Education for WineSense web site, and librarians-guided “virtual tours” of the Web site.

The event will be held at 9 a.m. in the Davidson Music Center.

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report is published every Wednesday during the academic year. Articles are due to Public Affairs by 10 a.m. Wednesday for the following week’s edition.

Items can be e-mailed to polpublic@ calpoly.edu or mailed to Public Affairs, Heron Hall.

For more information, call ext. 6-1511.

Tips on how to raise funds for materials for the Education for WineSense collection, demonstrations of the Education for WineSense web site, and librarians-guided “virtual tours” of the Web site.

The event, titled “Education for WineSense,” is a collaboration between the San Luis Obispo Chapter of Women for WineSense and the Kennedy Library to develop a wine information collection to support the wine studies and marketing programs offered by the College of Agriculture.

The collection is also intended to serve as an educational tool for the wine industry and related businesses on the Central Coast.

The event will include a silent auction to raise funds for materials for the Education for WineSense collection, demonstrations of the Education for WineSense web site, and librarians-guided “virtual tours” of the Web site.

The event will be held at 9 a.m. in the Davidson Music Center.

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report is published every Wednesday during the academic year. Articles are due to Public Affairs by 10 a.m. Wednesday for the following week’s edition.

Items can be e-mailed to polpublic@ calpoly.edu or mailed to Public Affairs, Heron Hall.

For more information, call ext. 6-1511.

Tips on how to raise funds for materials for the Education for WineSense collection, demonstrations of the Education for WineSense web site, and librarians-guided “virtual tours” of the Web site.

The event, titled “Education for WineSense,” is a collaboration between the San Luis Obispo Chapter of Women for WineSense and the Kennedy Library to develop a wine information collection to support the wine studies and marketing programs offered by the College of Agriculture.

The collection is also intended to serve as an educational tool for the wine industry and related businesses on the Central Coast.

The event will include a silent auction to raise funds for materials for the Education for WineSense collection, demonstrations of the Education for WineSense web site, and librarians-guided “virtual tours” of the Web site.
Position vacancies

Below are all the new, previously advertised positions at San Luis Obispo, CA 93407

Continued on page 6