Position vacancies
STATE: For a complete listing of employment opportunities for state staff and management positions, you can:
- Check Cal Poly's Web site at www.calpoly.edu. Select "Employment" from the Cal Poly links drop-down box;
- Come to the HREE office, Adm. 110, and view the posted positions;
- Call the HREE Job Line at ext. 6-1533, for a listing of new openings, check The Tribune's Sunday edition.
Please note that applications for job openings must be received in the Human Resources and Equal Opportunity Office, Adm. 110, by 5 p.m. on the closing date. Envelopes postmarked by the deadline will not be accepted.

If you have questions, please call HREE at ext. 6-2237.

Faculty
Candidates are invited to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information or to request an application. Additional information and qualifications for each position may also be obtained online at http://www.academic-personnel.calpoly.edu.

---

Dateline...continued from page 1

Music: Ten (a capella group)
Casa de la Maestra, 8 p.m. ($)

Tuesday, October 17
Learn to Love - by Michael Williams (therapists)
"How to Have Blissful and Succeeding as a Parent," Verna Cafe, noon.
Music: Mathieu, BackStage Pizza, noon.

Wednesday, October 18
Speakers: Lloyd Craft, "Martial Arts and Asian Philosophy," UU 208, 4 p.m.
Abel: "An insider's perspective of Cyberspace," PAC Pavilion, 8 p.m. ($)

Honored Alums
Continued from page 5

Interim policy in place for responsible technology use
At the Sept. 18 meeting of the President's management staff, President Baker formally approved implementation of the campus-wide "Interim Policy on Responsible Use of Information Technology Resources" (RUP). The action was taken to ensure that the policy would be in full effect when fall classes began.

class data were submitted.

Interim policy was endorsed by the Administrative Advisory Committee on Computing, Instructional Advisory Committee on Computing, and Information Resources Management Policy and Planning Committee and reviewed by the ASI and Academic Senate last year.
The interim policy promotes individual responsibility while respecting academic freedom, privacy, intellectual property and the law.

"It is important to have such a policy to protect university assets while informing individuals of their responsibilities with respect to the use of limited information technology resources," Baker said.

Jerry Hanley, vice provost, Information Technology Services, will lead completion of the final campus review process and make any appropriate changes, if necessary, within 60 days. The review process will include input from the campus-wide Administrative Policies Ad Hoc Editorial Coordination and Review Committee.

Information Technology Services will document procedures to permit adoption and implementation of the final policy by Jan.

Baker further affirmed that the vice president released information on campus is the campus officer responsible for ensuring compliance with the RUP and other IT policies and that the Web will be an official mechanism for formally publishing and promulgating IT policies.

For more information, go to http://www.calpoly.edu/computing/policy.

Campus Closed for Veterans' Day
Nov. 10

Dowling & Dominique, BackStage Pizza, noon.
Men's Soccer: San Diego State, Mustang Stadium, 7 p.m. ($)

Saturday, October 14
Football: Western New Mexico, Mustang Stadium, 7 p.m. ($)

Sunday, October 15
Men's Soccer: UC Irvine, Mustang Stadium, 4 p.m. ($)

Monday, October 16
Books at High Noon: Mary Kay Harris, "Dueling," Omar Wasow (Internet consultant), "Dancing with the Web: Politics of Cyberspace," PAC Pavilion, noon.

Morrobel-Sosa, Grimes lead recruitment roles
New academic leadership roles have been assigned to professors Anny Morrobel-Sosa of Materials Engineering and Joe Grimes, Computer Science.

Morrobel-Sosa has been named by Provost Zing as interim associate vice provost for academic programs. Her new responsibilities include academic assessment and institutional accountability, academic-program review, and program development. She is also serving as co-ordinator for the inaugural Baket Forum, scheduled to occur October 2001, which will focus on "The Future of the Polytechnic University."

Morrobel-Sosa recently completed Cal Poly's Accountability Report in response to the CSU Trustees' accountability initiative. From 1998 to 1999 she was an American Council on Education Fellow at the University of Delaware, and she was recently Jazz Bands to give 'Centennial concert'

For more information call ext. 6-1511. ext. 6-ALUM (2586).

For information on the forum and other Homecoming events, call Cal Poly's Alumni Relations office at ext. 6-ALUM (2586).

Two online databases available until Nov. 10

Faculty and staff members are invited to examine two online databases during a CSU systemwide trial that lasts until Nov. 17:
- Elsevier Science Direct contains the full text of more than 900 journals in the sciences, engineering and other fields.
- Emerald Plus (from MCB University Press) has the full text of more than 130 journals in management, human resources and related fields.

To access the databases, go to the Faculty Services page on the university's Web site at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu/info/services/letterml.html and click on "Databases." D

Faculty and staff members are invited to examine two online databases during a CSU systemwide trial that lasts until Nov. 17:
- Elsevier Science Direct contains the full text of more than 900 journals in the sciences, engineering and other fields.
- Emerald Plus (from MCB University Press) has the full text of more than 130 journals in management, human resources and related fields.

To access the databases, go to the Faculty Services page on the university's Web site at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu/info/services/letterml.html and click on "Databases." D

Prof. Zufcak to review book on Taliban movement

Social Sciences Professor Malika Zufcak will review "Taliban: Militant Islam, Oil and Fundamentalism in Central Asia" by Ahmed Rashid in Thursday's (Oct. 12) Books at High Noon program. The book, an analysis of the Taliban movement and its tactics, is a valuable guide to understanding the movement's background and the impact it has had on that country.

For more information, call Prof. Zufcak at 555-1234.

For more information, call Prof. Zufcak at 555-1234.

Two online databases available until Nov. 10

Faculty and staff members are invited to examine two online databases during a CSU systemwide trial that lasts until Nov. 17:
- Elsevier Science Direct contains the full text of more than 900 journals in the sciences, engineering and other fields.
- Emerald Plus (from MCB University Press) has the full text of more than 130 journals in management, human resources and related fields.

To access the databases, go to the Faculty Services page on the university's Web site at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu/info/services/letterml.html and click on "Databases." D

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

Two online databases available until Nov. 10

Faculty and staff members are invited to examine two online databases during a CSU systemwide trial that lasts until Nov. 17:
- Elsevier Science Direct contains the full text of more than 900 journals in the sciences, engineering and other fields.
- Emerald Plus (from MCB University Press) has the full text of more than 130 journals in management, human resources and related fields.

To access the databases, go to the Faculty Services page on the university's Web site at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu/info/services/letterml.html and click on "Databases." D

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

ASI Children's Center D

Two online databases available until Nov. 10

Faculty and staff members are invited to examine two online databases during a CSU systemwide trial that lasts until Nov. 17:
- Elsevier Science Direct contains the full text of more than 900 journals in the sciences, engineering and other fields.
- Emerald Plus (from MCB University Press) has the full text of more than 130 journals in management, human resources and related fields.

To access the databases, go to the Faculty Services page on the university's Web site at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu/info/services/letterml.html and click on "Databases." D

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

Two online databases available until Nov. 10

Faculty and staff members are invited to examine two online databases during a CSU systemwide trial that lasts until Nov. 17:
- Elsevier Science Direct contains the full text of more than 900 journals in the sciences, engineering and other fields.
- Emerald Plus (from MCB University Press) has the full text of more than 130 journals in management, human resources and related fields.

To access the databases, go to the Faculty Services page on the university's Web site at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu/info/services/letterml.html and click on "Databases." D

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

Two online databases available until Nov. 10

Faculty and staff members are invited to examine two online databases during a CSU systemwide trial that lasts until Nov. 17:
- Elsevier Science Direct contains the full text of more than 900 journals in the sciences, engineering and other fields.
- Emerald Plus (from MCB University Press) has the full text of more than 130 journals in management, human resources and related fields.

To access the databases, go to the Faculty Services page on the university's Web site at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu/info/services/letterml.html and click on "Databases." D

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

Two online databases available until Nov. 10

Faculty and staff members are invited to examine two online databases during a CSU systemwide trial that lasts until Nov. 17:
- Elsevier Science Direct contains the full text of more than 900 journals in the sciences, engineering and other fields.
- Emerald Plus (from MCB University Press) has the full text of more than 130 journals in management, human resources and related fields.

To access the databases, go to the Faculty Services page on the university's Web site at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu/info/services/letterml.html and click on "Databases." D

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.

For more information, call ext. 6-1254 or send a request to Cal Poly.
Campus Security Report, HEA disclosures available

Cal Poly's Campus Security Report is now available online at http://www.calpoly.edu/CampusPolice.

To request a paper copy, call University Police at ext. 6-2281.

To view the report, go to http://www2.calpoly.edu/CampusPolice.

Cal Poly is required to make certain disclosures and institutional information readily available to prospective and enrolled students, employees, the general public and the Department of Education annually.

Required HEA disclosure information and statistics are available online at http://www.acs.org/HEA.htm.

The site provides links to all required HEA disclosure information and grants contact information for additional data.

The links include:

- Rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA);
- Required financial aid information;
- Cal Poly's completion/graduation rates;
- Cal Poly's Campus Security Report;
- Cal Poly's report on athletic participation rates and financial support data;
- Cal Poly's report on completion/graduation rates for student athletes; and
- Other required institutional information.

To request a paper copy of any of the disclosure information, call the Educational Equity Services office at ext. 6-6770.

Surplus auction to be Oct. 14

An auction of surplus items such as computers, electronic equipment, audio-visual equipment, office furniture, automobiles and loot-and-found items is scheduled for 8 a.m. until approximately 6 p.m. or until everything is sold on Oct. 14 in the facility services parking lot. The items will be available for review 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Oct. 13. For more information, call John Martin at ext. 6-5215.

North County commuters entitled to incentives

Because of the Cuesta Grade Project, Cal Poly employees who live in the North County and use alternative transportation, such as a car pool, a van pool or the bus, qualify for a special incentive program.

Simply join the Commuter and Access Services Registry program and keep track of your commute on a special form furnished by Commuter and Access Services. In addition, under the Higher Education Act of 1965 and its many amendments, Cal Poly is required to make certain disclosures and institutional information readily available to prospective and enrolled students, employees, the general public and the Department of Education annually.

Required HEA disclosure information and statistics are available online at http://www2.calpoly.edu/CampusPolice.

The site provides links to all required HEA disclosure information and grants contact information for additional data.

The links include:

- Rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA);
- Required financial aid information;
- Cal Poly's completion/graduation rates;
- Cal Poly's Campus Security Report;
- Cal Poly's report on athletic participation rates and financial support data;
- Cal Poly's report on completion/graduation rates for student athletes; and
- Other required institutional information.

To request a paper copy of any of the disclosure information, call the Educational Equity Services office at ext. 6-6770.

Morrobel-Sosa, Grimes...

(Continued from page 1)

North County commuters entitled to incentives

Because of the Cuesta Grade Project, Cal Poly employees who live in the North County and use alternative transportation, such as a car pool, a van pool or the bus, qualify for a special incentive program.

Simply join the Commuter and Access Services Registry program and keep track of your commute on a special form furnished by Commuter and Access Services. In addition, under the Higher Education Act of 1965 and its many amendments, Cal Poly is required to make certain disclosures and institutional information readily available to prospective and enrolled students, employees, the general public and the Department of Education annually.

Required HEA disclosure information and statistics are available online at http://www2.calpoly.edu/CampusPolice.

The site provides links to all required HEA disclosure information and grants contact information for additional data.

The links include:

- Rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA);
- Required financial aid information;
- Cal Poly's completion/graduation rates;
- Cal Poly's Campus Security Report;
- Cal Poly's report on athletic participation rates and financial support data;
- Cal Poly's report on completion/graduation rates for student athletes; and
- Other required institutional information.

To request a paper copy of any of the disclosure information, call the Educational Equity Services office at ext. 6-6770.
Dealing with Hostility on Campus

The Contract and Procurement Services office reminds campus offices of "Dealing With Hostility on Campus," the title of a panel discussion to be held 5:30 p.m. Oct. 18 in UU 208. Lloyd Craft, a master professor and 9th degree Blackbelt, will speak on "Martial Arts and Asian Philosophy" from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Oct. 18 in UU 208. Craft will demonstrate martial arts styles and techniques and discuss the traditional conception of martial arts as an avenue to spiritual development. The styles emphasized in the demonstration will include Kajukenbo and Modern Arnis, a variety of traditional Philippine stick fighting. The presentation is sponsored by the Philosophy Department. For more information, call ext. 6-2041.

Cal Poly students to go ‘Into the Streets’

Student Community Services’ fall special event, “Into the Streets,” will aid approximately 13 community agencies in the city of San Luis Obispo on Oct. 28.

“Into the Streets” is a national program that provides students an opportunity to serve their communities. This year Cal Poly students will help such agencies as ECOSLO, the Housing Authority of San Luis Obispo, the AIDS Support Network, and Woods Humane Society.

Last year 175 Cal Poly students from different colleges and organizations volunteered at eight sites. This year, the university hopes to send 200 students “into the Streets.” Cal Poly is seeking student volunteers to do the actual work and volunteers to lead a group and work directly with an agency. Volunteers receive a free breakfast and free tri-tip barbecue at the end of the day.

A variety of volunteer assignments is available, from cleaning up the environment and beautifying construction sites to playing with kids and assisting senior citizens. For more information or to volunteer, call Any Viertman at ext. 6-5834.

Martial arts demo, talk set for Oct. 18

Lloyd Craft, a master professor and 9th degree Blackbelt, will speak on "Martial Arts and Asian Philosophy" from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Oct. 18 in UU 208. Craft will demonstrate martial arts styles and techniques and discuss the traditional conception of martial arts as an avenue to spiritual development. The styles emphasized in the demonstration will include Kajukenbo and Modern Arnis, a variety of traditional Philippine stick fighting. The presentation is sponsored by the Philosophy Department. For more information, call ext. 6-2041.

Contracts & Agreements 101

The Contract and Procurement Services office reminds campus offices of the procedures for contracts and agreements involving the university and outside vendors.

Some common agreements include those for facility use permits, faculty-student exchanges, software licenses, standard or interagency agreements, student internships, and vendor supplier contracts. After departmental review, all contracts and agreements between outside entities and Cal Poly must be signed by "contracting officers," who are primarily Contract and Procurement Services personnel (Staw Purchasing).

Contracts and agreements signed by someone other than a contracting officer are invalid and not binding. The person who signs could be held personally liable for any damages or costs that occur.

Anytime with an agreement or contract that needs to be signed should call Contract and Procurement Services at ext. 6-2234.

SQAR forum to be on campus Oct. 19

The Cal Poly Brock Center for Agricultural Communication will host a forum on ballot measure M, the "Saving Open Space and Agricultural Resources" initiative, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Oct. 19 in the Performing Arts Center’s Cohen Center. The speakers for the moderated forum will be local businessperson Susan Mullins, Social Sciences Actuary Jan Keeg, and area farmers Steve Soderstrom and Dan Warden.

Veteran journalist Jill Rickett of KSBY will be the moderator.

For more information call J. Scott DeCosta, coordinator of the Employee Assistance Program. Coffee, tea and cookies will be provided. For more information e-mail nsungar@calpoly.edu.

How to find funding online

The Grants Development Office has scheduled a hands-on training session for faculty and administrative staff members to learn how to locate funding sources online through the Web based service called SPIN (Sponsored Programs Information Network). SPIN and its e-mail notification service, SMARTS, are available free to staff and faculty members at http://www.infoed.org (select Access Info’d). The class will be from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Oct. 15 in Room 105-D of the Air Conditioning Building. The session will be limited to 15 people. To reserve space, call Grants Development at ext. 6-2982 or e-mail jost@calpoly.edu.

Most students registering on Web

For fall 2000, 79 percent of students registered using POWER (Poly Web Registration), Cal Poly’s latest online registration system, and 90 percent of the newly admitted freshmen used it. POWER can create student schedules from a list of open sections that is updated every five minutes. It also allows students to add and drop classes online and to select credit/no credit grading, where appropriate.

New this quarter, POWER has been enhanced to allow students to drop one course on condition that another course is available (conditional add/drop). The enhancement was a collaboration between Academic Records and Information Technology Services’ technical staff. POWER will be available for winter quarter class scheduling when scheduler goes on sale Friday (Oct. 13).

POWER was first available to students living in the residence halls during fall 1998. POWER is at www.power.calpoly.edu.
Jazz Bands to give ‘Centennial concert’

Two generations of Cal Poly jazz musiccial will perform together at the first concert celebration of Cal Poly’s Centen-yr—the Fall Jazz concert at 8 p.m. Oct. 21 in the Theatre.

The featured guest artists, the Collegians, are jazz band and faculty members of Cal Poly in the 1950s, 60s, and 70s. Current students in the University Jazz Bands will perform with the alumni.

“Connecting past and jazz students with our current ones is a perfect way to celbrate Cal Poly’s history and Centennial year,” said Music Professor Paul Rinzer, director of jazz studies.

The Collegians established an endowment — the Collegians Scholarship — that provides money to two outstanding student jazz musicians each year.

The Collegians will perform with the University Jazz Band No. 1, directed by Rinzer, who will also direct the two jazz concerts. The University Jazz Band No. 2 will be directed by Music Professor William Johnson.

Ticket cost $7-10. The Fall Jazz concert is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts, Music Department and University Activities program.

For more information and a complete calendar of Music Department events, call the department at ext. 6-2406. Event information is also available on the department’s Web page at www.calpoly.edu/mu.

Two online databases available until Nov. 10

Faculty and staff members are invited to examine two online databases during a CSU systemwide trial that lasts until Nov. 17:
— Elsevier Science Direct contains the full text of more than 900 journals in the sciences, engineering and other fields.
— Emerald Plus (from MCB University Press) has the full text of more than 130 journals in management, human resources and other fields.

To access the databases, go to the Fac-sion Services page on the library’s Web site at http://www.lib.calpoly.edu/info-services/libcat/ and click on “Demo Database.”

ASI Children’s Center

(Continued from page 1)
dedicated to improving quality of early education childhood.

The Children’s Center serves 130 children from 4 months to 6 years. The center’s primary mission is to serve the care needs of students, faculty and staff members.

The Children’s Center is accepting applications for its preschool and kid-garden programs for children older than 3. First priority goes to University families.

Applications are being accepted from low-income student-parents for subsidized child care. For more information call ext. 6-1267.

Prof. Zulficar to review book on Taliban movement

Social Sciences Professor Malaha
Zulficar will review “Taliban: Militant Islam, Oil and Fundamentalism in Central Asia” by Ahmed Rashid in Thursday’s
(Oct. 12) Books at High Noon program.
The book, an analysis of the Taliban movement’s development, delves into the movement’s background and the impact it had on that country.

Professor Mary Kay Harrington of the Writing Skills Lab will talk about the book “Daisy” by Bob Greene at the next program, on Monday (Oct. 17). The book is a love story that Maclean’s magazine described as unclear whether to understand his dead father — who was a member of the World War II generation quiz — by getting to know Paul Tibetts, the pilot of the plane that dropped the atomic bomb on Hiroshima.

All Books at High Noon presentations are at 12:10 p.m. in the Veranda Café.

For more information about the program, including how to participate as a reviewer, contact Phil Fetzer at ext. 6-6147 or e-mail pfetzer@calpoly.edu.

Homecoming to feature Honored Alumni Open Forum

Homecoming 2000, set for Oct. 20-22,
will include the university’s first Honored Alumni Open Forum at 2:30 p.m.
Oct. 21 in the Pavilion in the Performing Arts Center.

Moderated by graphic communication
alumnus Brian Lawler, the panelists will
answer two questions:
— What tenure did Cal Poly provide for
you that allowed you to be successful in
your life and career?
— As we enter the new millennium, what
should be tomorrow’s treasure or tradition
in your life and career?

Hendricks to coordinate Rec Administration

Associate Professor Bill Hendricks of the Natural Resources Management Department will succeed Professor Carolyn Shank as program coordinator of the Recreation Administration program.

Shank is stepping down as coordinator and
will assume full-time teaching responsibilities after a fall sabbatical.

Hendricks has been teaching at Cal Poly
since 1994. He can be reached at ext.
6-1246 or whendric@calpoly.edu.

Ticket information

Tickets to the performances listed in this issue of the Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 1-6 p.m. weekends. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your orer to ext. 6-6088.

Cal Poly to honor alumni, Service Award recipient

Cal Poly’s College of Liberal Arts, and
the University’s Service Award recipient
for 2000, all of whom will be recognized during Homecoming.

The Collegians established an endowment—the Fall Jazz concert at 8 p.m. Oct.
21 in the Theatre. Cal Poly Arts is presenting in association with Cal Poly Arts.

The presentation is part of the Rec-
ervation Administration program.

...In Wasow’s evening talk and presentation on Monday (Oct. 16). The book has had impact on that country.

As we enter the new millennium, what
should be tomorrow’s treasure or tradition
in your life and career?

Homecoming 2000, set for Oct. 20-22,
will include the university’s first Honored Alumni Open Forum at 2:30 p.m.
Oct. 21 in the Pavilion in the Performing Arts Center.

Moderated by graphic communication
alumnus Brian Lawler, the panelists will
answer two questions:
— What tenure did Cal Poly provide for
you that allowed you to be successful in
your life and career?
— As we enter the new millennium, what
should be tomorrow’s treasure or tradition
in your life and career?

Hendricks to coordinate Rec Administration

Associate Professor Bill Hendricks of the Natural Resources Management Department will succeed Professor Carolyn
Shank as program coordinator of the Recreation Administration program.

Shank is stepping down as coordinator and
will assume full-time teaching responsibilities after a fall sabbatical.

Hendricks has been teaching at Cal Poly
since 1994. He can be reached at ext.
6-1246 or whendric@calpoly.edu.

Ticket information

Tickets to the performances listed in this issue of the Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 1-6 p.m. weekends. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your orer to ext. 6-6088.

Cal Poly to honor alumni, Service Award recipient

Cal Poly’s College of Liberal Arts, and
the University’s Service Award recipient
for 2000, all of whom will be recognized during Homecoming.

The Collegians established an endowment—the Fall Jazz concert at 8 p.m. Oct.
21 in the Theatre. Cal Poly Arts is presenting in association with Cal Poly Arts.

The presentation is part of the Rec-
ervation Administration program.

...In Wasow’s evening talk and presentations on Monday (Oct. 16). The book
has had impact on that country.

As we enter the new millennium, what
should be tomorrow’s treasure or tradition
in your life and career?

Homecoming 2000, set for Oct. 20-22,
will include the university’s first Honored Alumni Open Forum at 2:30 p.m.
Oct. 21 in the Pavilion in the Performing Arts Center.

Moderated by graphic communication
alumnus Brian Lawler, the panelists will
answer two questions:
— What tenure did Cal Poly provide for
you that allowed you to be successful in
your life and career?
— As we enter the new millennium, what
should be tomorrow’s treasure or tradition
in your life and career?

Hendricks to coordinate Rec Administration

Associate Professor Bill Hendricks of the Natural Resources Management Department will succeed Professor Carolyn
Shank as program coordinator of the Recreation Administration program.

Shank is stepping down as coordinator and
will assume full-time teaching responsibilities after a fall sabbatical.

Hendricks has been teaching at Cal Poly
since 1994. He can be reached at ext.
6-1246 or whendric@calpoly.edu.

Ticket information

Tickets to the performances listed in this issue of the Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 1-6 p.m. weekends. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your orer to ext. 6-6088.

Cal Poly to honor alumni, Service Award recipient

Cal Poly’s College of Liberal Arts, and
the University’s Service Award recipient
for 2000, all of whom will be recognized during Homecoming.

The Collegians established an endowment—the Fall Jazz concert at 8 p.m. Oct.
21 in the Theatre. Cal Poly Arts is presenting in association with Cal Poly Arts.

The presentation is part of the Rec-
ervation Administration program.

...In Wasow’s evening talk and
presentations on Monday (Oct. 16). The book
has had impact on that country.

As we enter the new millennium, what
should be tomorrow’s treasure or tradition
in your life and career?

Homecoming 2000, set for Oct. 20-22,
will include the university’s first Honored Alumni Open Forum at 2:30 p.m.
Oct. 21 in the Pavilion in the Performing Arts Center.

Moderated by graphic communication
alumnus Brian Lawler, the panelists will
answer two questions:
— What tenure did Cal Poly provide for
you that allowed you to be successful in
your life and career?
— As we enter the new millennium, what
should be tomorrow’s treasure or tradition
in your life and career?

Hendricks to coordinate Rec Administration

Associate Professor Bill Hendricks of the Natural Resources Management Department will succeed Professor Carolyn
Shank as program coordinator of the Recreation Administration program.

Shank is stepping down as coordinator and
will assume full-time teaching responsibilities after a fall sabbatical.

Hendricks has been teaching at Cal Poly
since 1994. He can be reached at ext.
6-1246 or whendric@calpoly.edu.

Ticket information

Tickets to the performances listed in this issue of the Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 1-6 p.m. weekends. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your orer to ext. 6-6088.

Cal Poly to honor alumni, Service Award recipient

Cal Poly’s College of Liberal Arts, and
the University’s Service Award recipient
for 2000, all of whom will be recognized during Homecoming.

The Collegians established an endowment—the Fall Jazz concert at 8 p.m. Oct.
21 in the Theatre. Cal Poly Arts is presenting in association with Cal Poly Arts.

The presentation is part of the Rec-
ervation Administration program.

...In Wasow’s evening talk and
presentations on Monday (Oct. 16). The book
has had impact on that country.
Position vacancies

STATE: For a complete listing of employment opportunities for state staff and management positions, you can:
• Check Cal Poly’s Web site at www.calpoly.edu. Select “Employment” from the Cal Poly links drop-down box;
• Come to the HREE office, Adm. 110, and view the posted positions;
• Call the HREE Job Line at ext. 6-1533, for a listing of new openings, check The Tribune’s Sunday edition.

Please note that applications for job openings must be received in the Human Resources and Eym ajud Equity Office, Adm. 110, by 5 p.m. on the closing date. Envelopes postmarked by the deadline will not be accepted.

If you have questions, please call HREE at ext. 6-2377.

Candidates are invited to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information or to request an application. Additional information and qualifications for each position may also be obtained online at: www.academic-personnel.calpoly.edu. Please submit all application materials to the department head/chief, otherwise specified in the ad.

FACULTY

Candidates are invited to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information or to request an application. Additional information and qualifications for each position may also be obtained online at: www.academic-personnel.calpoly.edu. Please submit all application materials to the department head/chief, otherwise specified in the ad.

Interim policy in place for responsible technology use

At the Sept. 18 meeting of the President’s management staff, President Baker formally approved implementation of the campus-wide “Interim Policy on Responsible Use of Information Technology Resources” (RUP). The action was taken to ensure that the policy would be in full effect when fall classes began.

Baker reiterated that the policy encompasses existing law, policy and accepted campus compliance processes and enforcement practices. It reflects extensive campus input, best practices, and system-wide policy impacts.

The policy was endorsed by the Administrative Advisory Committee on Computing, Instructional Advisory Committee on Computing, and Information Resource Management Policy and Planning Committee and reviewed by the ASI and Academic Senate last year.

The interim policy promotes individual responsibility while respecting academic freedom, privacy, intellectual property and the law.

“It is important to have such a policy to protect university assets while informing individuals of their responsibilities with respect to the use of limited information technology resources,” Baker said.

Jerry Hanley, vice provost, Information Technology Services, will lead implementation of the final campus reviews and make any appropriate changes, if necessary, within 60 days. The review process will include input from the departmental Administrative Policies Ad Hoc Editorial Coordination and Review Committee.

Information Technology Services will document procedures to permit adoption and implementation of the final policy by Jan. 1.

Baker further affirmed that the vice president of information services, or the campus officer responsible for ensuring compliance with the RUP and other IT policies and that the Web will be an official mechanism for formally publishing and promulgating IT policies.

For more information, go to http://www.calpoly.edu/information/services/it-policy.html.

Honored Alums

Continued from page 5

Company’s database and application server technology and data warehousing products.

• College of Liberal Arts: Mary LaVentura, a 1977 journalism alumna, is being honored for her career in theater as well as her support of the Cal Poly Theatre Program. “As co-founder, immediate past president, and ombudsman of Friends and Alums Network of Supporters of the Theatre Program, LaVentura has served as an innovative and tireless emissary between the Theatre Program and the entertainment industry,” said Theatre and Dance Professor Michael Malkin. She is an authority on Civil War and Victorian costume. LaVentura has taught dozens of workshops for Cal Poly students, has sponsored a number of student internships, and has helped place Cal Poly graduates in entry-level industry jobs.

• College of Science and Mathematics: William J. Allison is a 1977 bachelor's graduate now serving as president of Litton Industries' new Integrated Systems Division. Allison joined Litton in 1992 as director of quality assurance in the Defense Systems Division. He was promoted to vice president and general manager of the division's operations in 1994 and was promoted to vice president and general manager of the division’s operations in 1994 and 1996.

• Department of Management: Terri R. Fournet, a 1985 graduate, joined the psychology faculty at the Claremont Graduate University. She is superintendent of schools for the Lucia Mar Unified School District, which enrolls more than 10,000 students in the southern part of Monterey County. DePue began teaching sixth grade in 1968 at North Oceano Elementary School. She has served in a number of management roles, including area administrator for Arroyo Grande High School, where she previously taught English and mathematics.

• Cal Poly Alumni Scholarship Award recipient Richard O’Neill graduated with a degree in animal science in 1948. A supporter of Cal Poly Athletics for more than three decades, he was instrumental in helping to fund a competitive athletics program by providing needed resources.

• Dateline •••

Tuesday, October 17
Learn-to-Lose– Nisha Michael Williams (therapist) “Pun Fun and Succeeding as a Parent,” Veranda Cafe, noon.
Music: John Kramer, BackStage Pizza, noon.
Wednesday, October 18
Speaker: Lloyd Craft, "Master's Acts and Anta’s Purity;" UU 208, 5 p.m.
Music: Kevin Fritz, "Frijoles and Greens;" Thebes, 8 p.m.

Campus Closed for Veterans' Day Nov. 10

The collegians, a jazz band of Cal Poly alumni, will join the University Jazz Band for the first time in the concert season of Cal Poly’s Centennial. (See story on page 2.)

ASI Children's Center earns reaccreditation

The ASI Children’s Center has been reaccredited for another three years by the National Association for the Education of Young Children, a recognition achieved by approximately 7 percent of early childhood programs nationwide.

NAEYC accreditation is a rigorous, voluntary process in which early childhood programs demonstrate that they meet national standards of excellence. Childcare centers, preschools, kindergartens and before- and after-school programs are eligible for accreditation.

Programs seeking accreditation undergo an intensive self-study that involves collecting information from parents, teachers, administrators and classroom observers. An on-site visit is conducted by early childhood professionals to validate the self-study results. All information is independently reviewed by a team of national experts.

NAEYC is the nation’s oldest and largest organization of early childhood professionals.