The Finest of First Impressions

Editors Note

Budget Update

Freedom in Flight

Alumni in the News

University News

Something to Chew On

Poly Days

Looking Ahead

ALUMNI IN THE NEWS

Grinds

Business grad Matt Canepa and Pat Pezet have a new kind of chew for Major League Baseball players.

Digital Domain Media Group hired Jim Berry (Computer Science, 1994) to be head of data at DDG in Florida, overseeing day-to-day operations of the company's studios. DigitalDomain nutritious.

Alumni in the News

Wine VI Graff's Choose Cheese Company Getting Attention

Researchers announced that William Tran (BS, Economics, 2001) has been named an executive vice president of California Union Bank since 2009. A graduate in 1991, Tran worked as a corporate banker for Bank of America and in more recent years as a corporate banker for a number of other banks. Tran has been with the bank since 2001. In 2009, he was named executive vice president of California Union Bank.

Business Administration Grad Named VP of Audio Company

Stephen Flaxing (BS, Business Administration, 1989) was named chief vice president of Marketing and Business Development of Parametric Sound Corporation. The studio creates visual effects for feature films, military and industrial applications, sports teams and venues, and original animated features.

Kinesiology Grad Takes Mindfulness Trip to Peru

The Microchip Daily reported on

WOW slideshow Alumni in the News Looking ahead

See images from this year's Week of Celebrations. President Jeffrey D. Armstrong talks about the family and the positive momentum that has the university starting the new academic year strong.

Engineering Alert! Develop Marxovan

A pair of Cal Poly grads received media recognition over the summer for their work in developing the Mars rover. Bart Santis (BS, Mechanical Engineering, 2009) and his team of engineers worked on the Mars rover project.

Business Grad Mark Goodale and Pat Pezet have a new kind of chew for Major League Baseball players.

Economics Grad Named Bank VP

Researchers announced that William Tran (BS, Economics, 2001) has been named an executive vice president of California Union Bank.

A pair of Cal Poly grads received media recognition over the summer for their work in developing the Mars rover. Bart Santis (BS, Mechanical Engineering, 2009) and his team of engineers worked on the Mars rover project.

Buisness grads Matt Canepa and Pat

Pezet have a new kind of chew for Major League Baseball players.

See images from this year's Week of Celebrations. President Jeffrey D. Armstrong talks about the family and the positive momentum that has the university starting the new academic year strong.

A pair of Cal Poly grads received media recognition over the summer for their work in developing the Mars rover. Bart Santis (BS, Mechanical Engineering, 2009) and his team of engineers worked on the Mars rover project.

Economics Grad Named Bank VP

Researchers announced that William Tran (BS, Economics, 2001) has been named an executive vice president of California Union Bank.