A twinkle-eyed middle-aged man from Los Angeles has supplied information on what is probably the most carefully nourished, longest delayed revenge in State Polytechnic college history. He is D. A. Fulwider, M. B. North, Parmenton Ave, Temple City, who on his first visit to the Cal Poly home campus since his graduation in 1925, related the start of the prank, which required some four years from start to completion.

"It all began when we were freshmen," recalled Fulwider, now a test technician for Southern California Edison. "The sophomores stole some large wooden lanterns we were using as dormitory 'sleepers.' We hired a firm to put them up for us. But when we went up there the next day, it really wasn't there any more. "

"When these sophomores first had the lanterns, they were mighty proud of themselves. Among other things, they used to build the college an immense trophy every year. It was to the memory of the annual intramural track meet, which, in those days, was one of the college's top events. Actually, since they had about 70 percent of the school's track team, they were looking for a trophy of their own. And when we went, we knew our 'time' had come at last."

"The cup was still in its original packing when we arrived. The whole "trip" could not be found. Not a single 'tinsel' of the trophy was left. It was too much to expect that cup until just last year."

"But now the school is finally taking the trophy platform in the assembly hall."

Lookout Prism! Poly's royalty is being crowned in the Cow Palace, Rake 89, Saturday, beginning at 2 p.m. Thursday the big cow-loaders will be running their cattle carrying sheep and swine will be on San Francisco 49er fan from which we saw a glimpse of the Great National livestock show.

Accompanying the livestock to San Francisco will be some of the best and most outstanding groups of livestock and some of the best shows. Both the boys have pulled their money, bought the steers, fed them out and are now jointly hoping to make a profit at the fair. All together, the judging of the animals was handled most expertly. But there are six Shorthorns and there are some of the best.

STATISTICS: FAVORABLE JOBS

The electronic engineering department has just completed a survey of all of the B.S. engineering graduates since the first class of 1948. As of Oct. 15, returns have come in from 94 percent of the graduates.

The chart indicates that the “new look” in salaries began in 1962. The first chart shows a growing acceptance of the Cal Poly graduate engineer. Job offers were limited. This fact is substantiated by the 1058 class. There are 12 percent more graduates than in the previous class.

Thumbs Up

Dear Editor;

I don’t know if I am suffering from insomnia or having trouble with my reading glasses, but I believe I am beginning to suffer from a case of shoddy Journalism. I am referring to the column in our September 16th issue that was attributed to Mr. George B. Af콩t.

Obviously, the writer must have been in a hurry to get the column typed because it contains several errors. It is only unwarranted, but an explicit example of shoddy Journalism.

With increasing frequency, the stories that we print in this column seem to be getting worse. I believe that the writer should be reprimanded for his behavior.

It was a spectacular affair in the Football Stadium last Friday evening when the Poly and the Cal Poly majors met in a friendly game over the Senators to the delight of the large crowd. The Poly won by 8-0, all red shirts, all red shoes, all red everything.

Here's an opportunity for all music lovers. The Downbeat wishes to extend an invitation to the Poly students to come and fill out our repertoire. They are looking for new voices, new faces.

The Majors and Minors, Barbershop singing group of the Poly Department, have been invited to come and fill out our repertoire. They are looking for new voices, new faces.

Poly Grange Host To Grover City
The California State Polytechnical College Grange will host the Grover City Grange for its annual International Orange Wednesday, Oct. 23, in basement of Library, Grover City, when members present first and second degree work in a candlelight ceremony, according to Dennis Kerstes, Poly mast.

Initiation will follow a pot-luck supper, which will begin at 6 p.m. The meeting will be followed by a dance in honor of "Enchanted Tales." Following the meeting, a "coffee hour" will be held, with high points being a cake sale and awarding of orange royalty prizes.

All Grange members are invited to attend.

Ad Libbers Casting For Year's First Production
Ad Libbers (Cal Poly drama club) will hold their first meeting of the year next Monday night.

Scheduled for Library 116 at 6 o'clock, reading of a play for casting of the new production will be held. Anyone interested in any part of the show will attend.

For those new students who are not acquainted with the Ad Libbers, a special invitation to join the group is extended.

Housing Now Available in Dorms and Trailers
There are a few rooms now available on the campus to students, and a few trailer units, according to word from Housing Office. All rooms and trailer units rent for $42 a month, including utilities.

The requirement that all rooms be reserved by Aug. 15, together with the fact that at this time only a few units are available on the campus, has resulted in this opportunity. Many students now living in town will be glad to make themselves of residence on the campus.

The trailer units rent for $24 a month including utilities. The housing office is now conveniently located in the lower floor of Chase dormitory, which is next to cafeteria No. 1. There, room applications will be received.

Reclaim Your Property; Time is Running Out
Has anyone lost an old auto?

This may seem a fantastic question, but along with the automobile there is a peculiar-looking man, who has set his sights on our "lost and found department." He is selling "gimmicked" autos to unsuspecting buyers, and it is high time someone came forward and reclaimed these auto relics. The winner of this auto auction is sure to be a winner for the estate of his deceased owner. The auction will be held at 6 o'clock Oct. 23, and the "gimmicked" autos will be sold to the highest bidder. The proceeds will be used to benefit the "lost and found."

"The terror of the midlands," that's how the Mustangs describe the Waves of Pepperdine College. The Mustangs are beginning to reap the ugly reward for their past efforts. "The waves have come and are taking their toll," the Mustangs say. "We're not going to let them get away with it," the Mustangs declare.

Despite the Mustangs' success, they know they can't take the Waves lightly. "We have to be prepared for anything," the Mustangs say. "The Waves are a tough team, and we can't afford to take them lightly.

With the exception of Moran, the Poly line is ready to stop anything the Waves can offer. The Mustangs are definitely on top of their game and are ready to take on the Waves.

The Waves have scored 850 yards and three touchdowns in their last game. The Mustangs have scored 850 yards and three touchdowns in their last game. It will be a battle of two teams with great offenses.

Waves Next For Mustang Grids

Cal Poly's bid of rampaging football Mustangs beat Los Angeles tomorrow morning to do battle with the Waves of Pepperdine college, with both teams expected to make a run at the Conference crown. The Mustangs, with a record of 2-0, have already won three games to one. Last year's Mustangs became the first team in Pepperdine history to win a Conference championship, and the Mustangs are again the favorite to win this year's Conference crown.

After League Crown

For those readers who may not know that the Mustang football team is on an unprecedented streak of success in Conference play. The Mustangs have won their last nine league games, and are currently sporting a record of 2-0 in Conference play. With a total of 850 yards and three touchdowns, the Mustangs are definitely on top of their game.

CHOOSE OF YOUNG AMERICA
FOR THE FIFTH STRAIGHT YEAR

CHESTERFIELD IS THE LARGEST SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA'S COLLEGES...

by a 1953 survey audit of actual sales in more than 800 college co-ops and campus stores from coast to coast. Yes, for the fifth straight year Chesterfield is the college favorite.

CHESTERFIELD IS THE ONLY
CIGARETTE EVER TO GIVE YOU PROOF OF LOW NICOTINE, HIGHEST QUALITY

The country's six leading brands were ana-yzed—chemically—and Chesterfield was found low in nicotine—highest in quality.

This scene reproduced from Chesterfield's famous "center spread" line-up pages in college football programs from coast to coast.
