Cal Poly Brass Choir to Perform Spring Concert May 14

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- The Cal Poly Brass Choir will be joined by four other ensembles during its annual Spring Concert, planned this year for Mother's Day, Sunday, May 14.

The 19-piece ensemble, under the direction of Music Department faculty member Keith Snell, will perform at 3 p.m. at the Community Presbyterian Church of Cambria. The afternoon program will include works by Walter Hartley, Edward Elgar, Percy Grainger, Giovanni Gabrieli and Edvard Grieg.

The concert will also include performances by the Cal Poly Horn Choir, Cal Poly Euphonium and Tuba Quartet, and the University Brass Quintet. The University Brass Quintet, along with the Cal Poly Wind Ensemble and PolyPhonics, Cal Poly's premier choral ensemble, is preparing for a summer performing tour to Europe.

The quintet will be performing several works from their tour repertoire. The concert is the first that any of these ensembles have performed in Cambria.

In recognition of Mother's Day, tickets for mothers will be half-price. In addition, some Cambria merchants and businesses have donated gifts for mothers in attendance.

Tickets are $5 for students and seniors, $8 for the public, and children under 12 are admitted free. Tickets will be sold at the door the day of the concert. The Community Presbyterian Church is located at 2250 Yorkshire Drive in Cambria.

The concert is sponsored by the Cal Poly Music Department and College of Liberal Arts. For more information, call the Music Department at 756-2406.

###