APPASSIONATA:

Giant heavy perfumed magnolia buds
The smooth voluptuous flesh of their petals
Like unmounted jewels on naked branches.
The uplifted arms of the trees
Lost in airy clouds of new green lace
Traced against the dark winter pine.
Pale froth of pink blossom.
Young strong breezes
And endless sky.
Spring has come again.

Earth gives birth
Fairer than I ever remember
As if to say:
This is my love story.
Look at me.
Cannot you see
How beautiful I am.

Adore me.
I am Goddess.
I am
The Heart of Mystery.
