Position Vacancies
STATE: The official listing of staff and management vacancies is posted at least two weeks prior to closing dates on Cal Poly's Web site at www.calpoly.edu. (Select "Employment" research from the Cal Poly Links drop-down box). As a courtesy to on-campus employees, job vacancies also are published in the Cal Poly Poly, Problems marked with an asterisk indicate that qualified on-campus applicants are encouraged to apply. Gaining support for positions 2, 5, 7 and 9 will be given first consideration. Job applications must be received in Human Resources, Admin. 110, by 5 p.m. on the closing date.

#02-Administrative Assistant (Administrative Support Assistant II*), Computer Engineering, College of Engineering, half-time position, $1,097.50-$1,646.50. Closing date: Feb. 1.

Expanded Studies offers program certification
Updated Strategies is offering management certificate program courses and one in information technology beginning Jan. 2.

Management courses:
- Basics of Finance and Accounting, 6:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesdays starting today (Jan. 23) through March 6, $165 or $155 for certificate enrollees.
- Leadership Skills, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., Saturdays, Jan. 26-Feb. 9, $165 or $155 for certificate enrollees.
- Team Building and Continuous Improvement, 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m., Saturdays, Feb. 23-March 9, $165 or $155 for certificate enrollees.

The information technology certificate program course, Project Management, will be offered 6:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesdays, Jan. 30-March 20, $360.

For complete course descriptions and online registration, go to the Extended Studies Web site at www.extendedstudies.calpoly.edu or call ext. 6-2053.

DATELINE
(11) Admission charges
Exhibits
University Art Gallery (Decoy): "50 Books/50 Covers," works by members of the American Institute of Graphic Artists. Through Feb. 3. Hours: 11 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday-Saturday.

Wednesday, January 23
Music: Ray Mushcher, BackStage Pizza, 11 a.m.
Concert Industry Panel: Bruce Howard (KORT-FM), Bobby Engeles (Variety Arts), Diana Costi (ASD), Marc Davison (personal manager), Dave Pinkus (tour manager), Curt Morgan (Ernie Ball), and David Atwood (Clear Channel) on careers in music. 4 p.m. daily plus 7-9 p.m. Wednesday.
Music: Student piano recital, Davidson Music Center 218, 7:30 p.m.

Friday, January 25
Cardboard Boat Regatta Preview: Architecture student designs for the Regatta (Sunday, Jan. 27). Dexter Lawn, 1 p.m. and 10 a.m. on Jan. 27.

Saturday, January 26
Cal Poly Pizza Regatta and Preview: Architecture student designs for the Regatta (Sunday, Jan. 27). Dexter Lawn, 1 p.m. and 10 a.m. on Jan. 27.

Sunday, January 27
Music: 3 Urban Visions (electronic music and interactive video), Davidson Music Center 218, 7:30 p.m.

Monday, January 28
Music: Roadhouse Rockers, BackStage Pizza, 11 a.m.

Tuesday, January 29
Music: Dorothy Segovia, BackStage Pizza, 11 a.m.

Thursday, January 31
Music: Roadhouse Rockers, BackStage Pizza, 11 a.m.

Dalton now executive vice provost, chief planning officer
President Warren Baker and Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Paul Zingare have named Linda Dalton as executive vice provost and chief planning officer. Dalton has been serving as vice provost for institutional planning since 1997. Her expanded role reflects her increased responsibility for strategic planning and for implementing the recently approved campus Master Plan.

As executive vice provost, she will work with the colleges, the University Center for Teacher Education, instructional support areas and campus auxiliaries as they articulate program and space needs. Dalton will continue to work closely with other offices directly involved in implementing the Master Plan, including Facilities Planning, Budget and Analytic Business Services, University Advancement, the Foundation and the Cal Poly Housing Corp., which she chairs.

As the executive vice provost, she will also serve as a liaison with the city and county of San Luis Obispo, other public agencies, community organizations and contractors and the county's Board of Education.

Dalton and her assistant, Carol Morris, are in Adm. 14. 412 and can be reached at ext. 6-2185. Institutional Planning and Analysis is in Adm. 308; the office phone number is ext. 6-2201.
Lawrence Kelley ...

Continued from page 1

Business students will have opportunities for faculty research, financial accounting, human resources, internal auditors, physical plant, police, the performers' arts center and more.

Prior to that, he held several positions at the University of Maine, Kent State University, Miami University and the University of Akron. Earlier in his career, Kelley served as a financial manager for two food corporations.

He earned a bachelor's degree in education, with a minor in accounting, as well as a master's degree in technical education-educational finance from the University of Akron. He also pursued doctoral course work in higher education administration.

Vicki Stover, Cal Poly's associate vice president for administration and finance, will be the administrator in charge of the division until Kelley arrives. Rick Ramirez, associate vice president for finance, budget and analysis, will serve as the chief financial officer until then.

---

Cal Poly Report to be online only as of Feb. 6

Because of budget cuts, the Cal Poly Report will be available to on-campus employees exclusively online beginning Feb. 6.

The Report will be posted online by the Public Affairs office every Wednesday.

The deadline to submit articles will remain the same: 10 a.m. one week before publication. Letters can be emailed to polynews@polymail, faxed to ext. 6-6553, or mailed to Public Affairs, Herald Hall. Look for the Cal Poly Report at www.calpolynews.calpoly.edu. Click on "Cal Poly Report" in the left-hand column. For more information, call ext. 6-1511 B.

---

Talk on American Indians, popular culture Monday

Michael White Bear Claws, great-great-grandson of Chief Crazy Horse, will speak on "Images of American Indians in Popular Culture" at 4-10 p.m. Monday (Jan. 28) in Room E-27 in the Science Building.

White Bear Claws, a member of the Cheyenne River Lakota tribe, was raised in Minnesota and on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota.

He is a member of the Los Angeles County Commission on HIV Housing and Services and is a co-founder of Sacred Circles, an American Indian gay and lesbian group.

He was featured in the book "Spirit and the Flesh" by Professor Walter Williams and in the Smithsonian Institution's documentary "Gender, the Enduring Paradox."

The free talk is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and Ethnic Studies.

For more information, call ext. 6-1707 D.

---

Ticket information

Tickets to the performances listed in today's Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2878, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088. B.

---

Former Xerox Corp. exec to direct new institute

The newly formed Graphic Communication Institute (GCI) has appointed Steve Godin, a Xerox Corp. executive with more than 30 years of industry experience, as its first director.

The GCI is the research and industry education arm of the Graphic Communication Department. The institute provides research, testing, product evaluation, seminars, workshops and conferences for the printing, packaging, publishing, electronic imaging and related industries, as well as for the equipment and supply manufacturers that serve those industries.

Godin will be responsible for directing the university's research, testing, consulting and industry education programs in graphic communication.

At Xerox, from 1970 to 2001, Godin held a number of senior positions in worldwide marketing, strategy, consulting, manufacturing, product development and new-business start-ups.

---

Warning: e-mail scam sent to campus computer users

University Police Chief Tony Aceti warns the campus community about fraudulent e-mail schemes, in particular a recent incident in which a letter was sent describing a Nigerian financial opportunity.

"Cal Poly employees continue to receive official-looking e-mail messages containing promises of easy riches for helping with possible illegal conduct," Aceti said.

In this instance, help was requested in moving millions of dollars in petroleum company overpayments from Nigeria to its overseas account. Purported officials of the Nigerian government offered to transfer this money and pay the victims a commission.

Anyone who has been contacted by Nigerian representatives soliciting any type of business arrangement are encouraged to call the University Police at ext. 6-2281.

---

Feb. 1 is deadline for scholarship nominations

The Status of Women Committee reminds campus departments that nominations are due Feb. 1 for the five scholarships that recognize students who have demonstrated a commitment to the rights of women.

Only nominations submitted by faculty and staff members will be considered. For specific criteria refer to the Jan. 16 Cal Poly Report or call ext. 6-2851.

Send nominations to Nilgun Sungar, Physics Department.

---

Cardboard Boat Regatta planned for Sunday

Cal Poly's Cardboard Boat Regatta will be held at the Recreation Center Pool 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Sunday (Jan. 27).

More than 75 students in a fundamental architecture design class, design and attempt to navigate vessels made from two 4-foot-by-6-foot sheets of cardboard, brown-paper bags and waterproofing. To qualify for the regatta's "Cardboard Cup," each raft must weigh after attempting to paddle itself across the pool.

The project was coordinated by Architecture Professor Howard Weisenthal with help from professors Barry Williams, James Bagnall and Laura Jones-Novotny. Visitors can preview the rafts and take a spin in the cell during the event (Jan. 25) on Dexter Lawn. (Bad weather will move the advance viewing to the starwell area of the Architecture and Environmental Design Building.) Entries can also be inspected 10-10:30 a.m. Sunday, before the races begin.

The event is sponsored by the College of Architecture and Environmental Design.

For more information, call ext. 6-7420.

---

Ticket sales end Sunday

Tickets to the annual Service Awards Luncheon on Feb. 21 at Chaminade Auditorium are on sale until Sunday (Jan. 27). This year's theme is "Thoughts of Yesterday - Dreams of Tomorrow." The luncheon recognizes employees with 10, 15, 20, 25, 30 and 35 years of service. Those being honored for 30 or more years of service are:

- 30 years - Fred Abina, Joseph Amanzio, Harvey Blatter, Joseph Boone, David Chippling, Robert Cichowski, Jake Foldsman, David Grady, Tvoritsyn Kuner, Richard Kranzoff, Daniel Krieger, Panagiotis Papakyriazis, Pam Parsons, Gilbert Reggles, Keith Stowe and Bob Ward.
- 35 years - Harold Cota, Bill Johnson and Charles Blandin.

Tickets, at $10 each, can be bought from Annawan Am, ext. 6-2097, Kathy Blackham, ext. 6-1718, Mark Baltes, ext. 6-2117, Gori Bolivar, Facility Services, ext. 6-3231; Jill DeMers, Kinesiology, ext. 6-2545, Deb Holland, Career Resources, ext. 6-1699; Carol Leong, Architecture, and Environmental Design, ext. 6-1313; and Kristy Perko, BioResource and Agricultural Engineering, ext. 6-2287.

Cardboard Boat Regatta planned for Sunday

A free concert of live electronic music combined with interactive video, performed by three internationally recognized artists, will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sunday (Jan. 27) in Recreation Center Pool 4-5. Tickets are $8 in advance, $10 at the door.

The group 3 Urban Visions, made up of Amy Knole, Lindsay Vickery and cellistër performances to situations by Knole and Vickery. The program combines music and images in such a way that neither the music nor the visual elements stand alone.

Knole is a founding member of the Los Angeles avant-garde musical group the California E.A.R. Unit, Vickery lectures in music in western Australia, and Filip, professor of music, is a co-founder of the San Francisco performing and acting as a solo vocalist.

The concert is sponsored by the Music Department and the College of Liberal Arts. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

---

Terrorism, democracy to be focus of talk

Sean O'Brien, distinguished graduate of the Army Logistics Management College, will speak on "Terrorism, Counter-Terrorism, and Civilian Pawns: Implications for Democracy in the 21st Century" at 7 p.m. Jan. 31 in Philips Hall in the Christopher Cohan Center.

O'Brien will address what terrorism is, what causes it, what terrorists hope to gain by using it, why it is so difficult to defeat terrorists, and what can be done about terrorism.

As team chief for "global futures" at the Center for Army Analytic Studies, he studies ways to develop models that will shape long-term goals and the domestic policy.

For more information, call the Political Science Department at ext. 6-2985.

---

Policies protect research subjects, deal with fraud

The university has policies and procedures for protecting people and animals involved in research projects and for addressing fraudulent scientific claims.

The Human Subjects Committee reviews all projects involving human subjects, including animal research projects, thesis and dissertation work and faculty research.

Continued on page 4

---

Calendar

---

CAL POLY REPORT, JANUARY 23, 2002

---

CAL POLY REPORT, JANUARY 23, 2002
Lawrence Kelley...
Continued from page 1

services, facilities planning, financial accounting, counseling services, human resources, internal audits, physical plant, police, the performance arts center and research.

Prior to that, he held several positions at the University of Maine, Kent State University, Miami University and the University of Akron. Earlier in his career, Kelley served as a financial manager for two food corporations.

He earned a bachelor’s degree in education, with a minor in accounting, as well as a master’s degree in technical education—educational finance from the University of Akron. He also pursued doctoral course work in higher education administration.

Vicki Stover, Cal Poly’s associate vice president for administration and finance, will be the administrator in charge of the division until Kelley arrives. Rick Ramirez, associate vice president for finance, budget and analytics, will serve as the chief financial officer until then.

Cal Poly Report to be online only as of Feb. 6

Because of budget cuts, the Cal Poly Report will be available to on-campus employees exclusively online beginning Feb. 6. The paper will be posted online by the Public Affairs office every Wednesday during the academic year. The deadline to submit articles will remain the same: 10 a.m. one week before publication. Issues can be emailed to polynews@calpoly.edu, faxed to ext. 6-6553, or mailed to Public Affairs, Herbar House. Look for the Cal Poly Report at www.calpolynews.calpoly.edu. Click on “Cal Poly Report” in the left-hand column. For more information, call ext. 6-1511B.

Talk on American Indians, popular culture Monday

Michael White Bear Claw, great-great-grandson of Chief Crazy Horse, will speak on “Images of American Indians in Popular Culture” at 4-10 p.m. Monday (Jan. 28) in Room E-27 in the Science Building.

White Bear Claw, a member of the Cheyenne River Lakota tribe, was raised in Minnesota and in the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota.

He is a member of the Los Angeles County Commission on HIV Education and is a co-founder of Sacred Circles, an American Indian gay and lesbian group.

He was featured in the book “Spirit of the Lakota” and in the film “Spirit, the Enduring Paradox.”

The free talk is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and Ethnic Studies

For more information, call ext. 6-1707.

Ticket information

Tickets to the performances listed in today’s Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2877, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.

Warming: e-mail scam sent to campus computer users

University Police Chief Tony Acili warns the campus community about fraudulent e-mail schemes, in particular a recent incident in which a letter was sent describing a Nigerian financial opportunity.

“Cal Poly employees continue to receive official-looking e-mail messages containing promises of easy riches for helping with possible illegal conduct,” Acili said.

In this instance, help was requested in moving millions of dollars in petroleum company overpayments from Nigeria to its overseas account. Purported officials of the Nigerian government offered to transfer this money and pay the victims a commission.

Anyone who has been contacted by Nigerian representatives soliciting any type of business arrangement are encouraged to contact the University Police at ext. 6-2281.

Cal Poly ‘chooses from Cabaret’

‘Cabaret’ to play Feb. 4-5

The reinvention of the Broadway hit musical “Cabaret,” winner of four 1972 film version of “Cabaret,” many at the start of the Third Reich. The 1972 film version of “Cabaret” directed by Bob Fosse and starring Liza Minnelli and Joel Grey, won nine 1998 Tony Awards including Best Revival, which ran from 1997-1998. The film was directed by Sam Mendes. The film was directed by Bob Fosse and starring Liza Minnelli and Joel Grey, won nine Academy Awards.

Tickets are $42 to $54, with student discounts available.

Feb. 1 is deadline for scholarship nominations

The Status of Women Committee reminds campus departments that nominations are due Feb. 1 for the five scholarships that recognize students who have demonstrated a commitment to the rights of women.

Only nominations submitted by faculty and staff members will be considered. For specific criteria refer to the Jan. 16 Cal Poly Report or call ext. 6-2851.

Send nominations to Nilmong Sungur, Physics Department.

Cardboard Boat Regatta planned for Sunday

Cardboard Boat Regatta will be held at the Recreation Center Pool 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Sunday (Jan. 27).

More than 75 students in a fundamental architecture and design class design, construct and attempt to navigate vessels made from two 4-foot-by-6-foot sheets of cardboard, brown-paper tape and clear polyurethane. Tickets are $42 to $54, with student discounts available.

Concert Sunday to combine electronic music, video

A free concert of live electronic music combined with interactive video, performed by three internationally recognized artists, will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sunday (Jan. 27) in Roop 218 in the Campus Recreation Center.

The group 3 Urban Visions, made up of Amy Knole, Lindsay Vickery and cellist Taryn Fiebig, will perform tonight. The concert is sponsored by the Music Department and the College of Liberal Arts. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

Terrorism, democracy to be focus of talk

Sean O’Brien, distinguished graduate of the Army Logistics Management Col­lege, will speak on “Terrorism, Counter­Terrorism, and Civilian Peacekeeping: Impli­cations for Democracy in the 21st Century” at 7 p.m. Jan. 31 in Phillips Hall in the California E.A.R. Unit, Vickery Lecture. Tickets are $42 to $54, with student discounts available.

Servio Awards Luncheon tickets go on sale Jan. 30

Tickets to the annual Service Awards Luncheon on Feb. 21 in Chumash Audiovisual Room 116 in Room 116 in the Visual Communications Building. For more information, call ext. 6-6533, or mailed to Public Affairs, Herbar House.

Tickets are $42 to $54, with student discounts available.

Figuring out the connections be­tween writing assignments to increase classroom participation and learning.
The workshop will be 10 a.m.-noon on six consecutive Fridays in Room 510 in the Library’s Faculty Development Center.

WINGED workshops provide a forum to discuss and establish the connections between writing, thinking and classroom success; design and implement writing assignments for various disciplines; and create standards for measuring student success.

Participants also learn test-taking and quick ways to respond to student writing.

For more information on the workshop and on writing assignments, visit the WINGED Web site, www.calpoly.edu/~acadprog/gene/owed/ WINGED.

Enrollment is limited to 12. To register, contact Melissa DeMeritt, WINGED coordi­nator, at ext. 6-6136 or mdeemer@calpoly.edu. The interested can also register on the Web site.

The university has policies and procedures for protecting people and animals involved in research projects and for ad­ dressing scientific fraud.

The Human Subjects Committee reviews all projects involving human sub­jects, including research projects, thesis work and faculty research.

Continued on page 4
Gay, lesbian movement to be focus of talk

University of Kansas political science professor Donald Haider-Markel will speak on "Redistributing Values in America: Evaluating the Success of the Lesbian and Gay Movement" 11:10 a.m.-noon Feb. 1 in Room 805 in the Science Building.

Haider-Markel will discuss the progress of the gay and lesbian movement in politics and law, with a minor focus on culture. He is the director of the University of Kansas's Survey Research Center of the Policy Research Institute.

For more information, call the Political Science Department at ext. 6-2985.

Position Vacancies

STATE: "The official listing of staff and management vacancies is posted at least two weeks prior to closing dates on Cal Poly's Web site at www.calpoly.edu. Select Employment Research from the Cal Poly Jobs link drop-down box."

As a courtesy to on-campus employees, job vacancies also are published in the Cal Poly Poly. Positions marked with an asterisk indicate that qualified on-campus applicants in bargaining units 2, 5, 7 and 9 will be given first consideration. Job applications must be received in Human Resources, Admin. B, 5 p.m. as the closing date.

#249-Administrative Support Assistant II, Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering, College of Engineering.

$2,012-$3,019. Closing date: Feb. 8.

#251-Administrative Assistant (Administrative Support Assistant II*), Computer Engineering, College of Engineering.

Policies protect...

Continued from page 3

Research proposals should be sent to Steve Davis, chair, in the Kinonology Department, or to Susan Opava, dean of research and graduate programs, for referral to the committee.

Guidelines for preparing the proposals can be obtained from either office and at www.calpoly.edu/~rgpforms.html.

It is important to note that investigators who plan to carry out federally funded research involving human subject(s) that is not exempt from review under federal guidelines are required to obtain authorized training in the ethical principles and procedures for conducting research.

Federal funds will not be awarded without proof of the training. Training authorized by the Office of Human Research Protections is available online at http://ohrprc.ohrp.hhs.gov/educat.htm.

The Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee reviews all current and proposed projects or activities in which animals are used in teaching or research. For guidelines and forms, call or stop by the Research and Graduate Programs Office or visit www.calpoly.edu/iau.

Proposals on animal research or use of animals in the committee, via Research and Graduate Programs.

Copies of "Policies and Procedures for the Handling of Allegations of Scientific Fraud and Serious Misconduct" can be obtained online and from Research and Graduate Programs, Grants Development, and Foundation Sponsored Programs, all in the Mathematics and Science Building.

Georgia State V.P. to lead Administration and Finance

Lawrence R. Kelley, who has spent 25 years in executive business and financial positions at several universities, has been selected as vice president for administration and finance at Cal Poly.

Currently associate vice president for finance and administration at Georgia State University, Kelley will begin his new duties Feb. 25. He succeeds Frank Levenson, who has retired.

In addition to his role as the university's chief fiscal officer, Kelley will have oversight responsibilities for contract and procurement services, capital project planning, design and construction, facility maintenance, human resources, reprographic and mail services, risk management and university police.

"Lawrence Kelley, with his notable career in financial management and administration, especially at institutions of higher education, is the type of person who will help keep Cal Poly moving forward in the future," President Warren Baker said.

Kelley has served at Georgia State University since 1997 as treasurer and associate vice president. At GSU he oversees auxiliary services, budgeting, business services, University Advancement, the Foundation and the Cal Poly Housing Corp., which she chairs.

As the executive vice provost, she will also serve as a liaison with the city and county of San Luis Obispo, other public agencies, community organizations, neighbors and the general public regarding development planning for all campus properties.

Dalton continues to oversee the Institutional Planning and Analysis office, with Bonnie Krupp assuming additional leadership responsibilities as deputy director. Dalton and her assistant, Carol Morris, are in Adm. 412 and can be reached at ext. 6-2185. Institutional Planning and Analysis is in Adm. 308; the office phone number is ext. 6-2204.

Daleton now executive vice provost, chief planning officer

President Warren Baker and Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Paul Zingg have named Linda Dalton as executive vice provost and chief planning officer. Dalton has been serving as vice provost and chief planning officer since 1997.

Her expanded role reflects her increased responsibility for strategic planning and for implementing the recently approved Master Plan.

As executive vice provost, she will work with the colleges, the University Center for Teacher Education, instructional support areas and campus auxiliaries as they articulate program and space needs. She will work closely with other offices directly involved in implementing the Master Plan, including Facilities Planning, Budget and Analytic Business Services, University Advancement, the Foundation and the Cal Poly Housing Corp., which she chairs.

As the executive vice provost, she will also serve as a liaison with the city and county of San Luis Obispo, other public agencies, community organizations, neighbors and the general public regarding development planning for all campus properties.

Dalton continues to oversee the Institutional Planning and Analysis office, with Bonnie Krupp assuming additional leadership responsibilities as deputy director. Dalton and her assistant, Carol Morris, are in Adm. 412 and can be reached at ext. 6-2185. Institutional Planning and Analysis is in Adm. 308; the office phone number is ext. 6-2204.