Diatelme... Continued from page 1

Flamenco flair

Renowned flamenco master Antonio Marquez will perform traditional Spanish dance with a company of 19 dancers, singers and musicians at 7 p.m. March 24 in the Christopher Cohan Center's Harman Hall. He began his formal training at age 11 and joined the Ballet Nacional de España at 18. He danced in leading roles with the company for 15 years before forming his own group, the Compagnia Española de Antonio Marquez. Tickets to this Cal Poly Arts performance are $20 to $80.

Rominger... Continued from page 1

where specific needs have been determined, may be developed as a result of this collaboration.

Rominger served as California's secretary of agriculture during Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr.'s administration. In 1999, President Clinton appointed him as the deputy secretary for the U.S. Department of Agriculture, a post he held until 2001.

Dairy cattle... Continued from page 1

The four-member team, coached by Dairy Science Professor Stan Henderson, placed first in the Reasons, Swiss and Jersey divisions at the recent competition. Team member Natalia Borba also earned the title of High Scoring Individual in the same divisions. Other team members are John Azevedo, Sarah Renner and Tony Evangelo.

Cal Poly wins silver... Continued from page 3

Director Albert Numer," Admissions Director James Maraviglia said.

Cal Poly's award-winning CD-ROM includes a section on Central Coast activities, with short feature movies of students kayaking, hiking, rock climbing and surfing; 360-degree photos of Central Coast beaches; campus photo tours and interactive maps; and interviews with each of the university's department heads.

PAGE 4
Open forums scheduled for dean of agriculture

Candidates for the position of dean of the College of Agriculture have been invited to campus and will give short presentations during a March 10 forum. The faculty and staff are invited to meet the finalists at the following events:
- David Weimer, interim dean, College of Agriculture, Cal Poly, 10-11 a.m., Friday (March 15), 132 Student Services Building.
- Henry (Hank) Robitaille, executive vice president, World Arts and Sciences Program, 2:30-3:30 p.m., Tuesday (March 12), Veranda Café.
- Andrew Thulin, department head, Animal Sciences, Cal Poly, 2-3 p.m., March 13, Cline Auditorium.

Heidelberg donates four-color digital press to GrC

A recent equipment donation from Heidelberg USA to the Graphic Communication Department is giving students an advantage in mastering the latest technology in four-color digital printing.

Heidelberg, a long-standing "partner in education" with Cal Poly, installed a Quickmaster DI four-color digital printing press.

"The new press provides the opportunity to teach on state-of-the-art equipment and also recognizes he capability of Show' places in a national competition.

"The Key," an interactive CD-ROM featuring 360-degree "panorama" pictorials, interviews with faculty members from each department, and a "Gen-Y-worthy" soundtrack, took the prizes in the 17th Annual Admissions Advertising Awards Competition. The CD-ROM is available in the Internet/World-Wide-Web site competition category with schools from 10,000 to 20,000 students. Cal Poly placed second, behind Binghamton University and ahead of the University of North Carolina, Charlotte. The University of Dayton, Indiana University of Pennsylvania and Southern Illinois University.

Cal Poly wins silver medal for high-tech recruiting

Cal Poly's latest high-tech student recruiting effort captured a silver medal at a national "Showplace" competition.

"The Key," an interactive CD-ROM featuring 360-degree "panorama" pictorials, interviews with faculty members from each department, and a "Gen-Y-worthy" soundtrack, took the prizes in the 17th Annual Admissions Advertising Awards Competition. The CD-ROM is available in the Internet/World-Wide-Web site competition category with schools from 10,000 to 20,000 students. Cal Poly placed second, behind Binghamton University and ahead of the University of North Carolina, Charlotte. The University of Dayton, Indiana University of Pennsylvania and Southern Illinois University.

The Student Life and Leadership office is seeking nominations for The Leadership award, which recognizes students who exemplify the core values of excellence, stewardship, collaboration, integrity and community. The award will be announced at the conclusion of the annual Leadership luncheon.

For more information, contact Harris at ext. 6-5282 or by e-mail. □

Leadership changes...

Continued from page 1

enable Bill Pendergast to focus his work for the university on areas aligned with his own interests and institutional needs, and they will bring to the Board of Regents' College of Business an individual with solid experience and credentials to move the college forward.

"I expect that the faculty, staff and students will provide Dr. Swartz with the support she needs and must be ready for the board to continue its work to achieve our goal of the California Polytechnic State University Business, a top 50 institution," Zinge said. "I also expect that the faculty, staff and students will provide Dr. Swartz with the support she needs and must be ready for the board to continue its work to achieve our goal of the California Polytechnic State University Business, a top 50 institution."

Nominations sought for student 'Quest' award

The Student Life and Leadership office is seeking nominations for The Leadership award, which recognizes students who exemplify the core values of excellence, stewardship, collaboration, integrity and community. The award will be announced at the conclusion of the annual Leadership luncheon.

For more information, contact Harris at ext. 6-5282 or by e-mail. □

Leadership changes...

Continued from page 1

enable Bill Pendergast to focus his work for the university on areas aligned with his own interests and institutional needs, and they will bring to the Board of Regents' College of Business an individual with solid experience and credentials to move the college forward.

"I expect that the faculty, staff and students will provide Dr. Swartz with the support she needs and must be ready for the board to continue its work to achieve our goal of the California Polytechnic State University Business, a top 50 institution," Zinge said. "I also expect that the faculty, staff and students will provide Dr. Swartz with the support she needs and must be ready for the board to continue its work to achieve our goal of the California Polytechnic State University Business, a top 50 institution."
Rackley wins his third Silver Omni music award
David Rackley, Mustang Marching Band director, composer and teacher, was recently awarded a Silver Omni — his third for music he composed for the video documentary “The Midisagnosis of Death,” which recently aired on “The Learning Channel.”

Entries were judged by a panel of experts from some of the world’s top production companies. "The Midisagnosis of Death" explores situations both real and mythic in which people have pronounced dead have actually come back to life.

Rackley has earned a number of music awards, including six IDA’s, a CINE Golden Eagle Award, the National Education Media Network’s Gold Apple Award, the International Association of Audiovisual Communicators’ Gold CINDY, and two Bronze Awards from the WorldFest International Film and Video Competition.

He is also on the music faculty at Cuesta College.

Business students place 2nd in investment contest
A team of undergraduate students from the Orfeales College of Business took second place in a recent national investment management competition.

Cal Poly’s Student-Managed Portfolio Program placed second at the RISE-redefining Investment Strategy Education Symposium and Portfolio Competition at the University of Dayton, Ohio.

The competition involved 33 universities from across the nation with student-managed portfolio projects similar to Cal Poly’s.

The SMPP team, under the guidance of Finance Professor John Lindwall, manages about $500,000 of the Cal Poly Foundation’s endowment funds. From Dec. 1, 2000, to Nov. 30, 2001, the Cal Poly SMPP fund earned 0.1%, compared to an S&P 500 loss of 13.3 percent and a NASDAQ loss of 25.7 percent.

To make the finals, the students had to assemble a detailed report on the SMPP’s holdings, gains and losses over those 12 months. The competition offered three fund management categories: value, growth and blend. The team was one of 11 teams in the blend category and was among the top five chosen to go on to the finals.

The SMPP team placed second, behind Michigan Tech.

All members are business seniors: Ian Bronzon, Nicole Costette, Matt Mahlmann and Dan Pavlinik, coached by Finance Professor Larry Gorman.

Cat program needs supplies
The Cal Poly cat population is holding a Food and Supply Drive during March.

A variety of items are needed, such as dry and canned food for adult cats (Friskies) and kittens (Kitten Chow), towels, sheets, medium-size trash bags, liquid dish detergent, litter scoopers, paper towels, cat beds and toys. Items can be dropped off at Facilities Services.

For more information, call Edie Griffin-Shaw at ext. 6-2340, or visit www.facilities.calpoly.edu/department/Facilities_Planning/directory/pet.html.

Leadership changes... Continued from page 1
enable Bill Pendergast to focus his work for the university on areas aligned with his own interests and institutional needs, and they will bring to the leadership of the Orfeales College of Business an individual with solid experience and credentials to move the college forward.

"I expect that the faculty, staff and students will provide Dr. Swartz with the support she needs and merits in order for the college to continue to grow and to maintain our position as one of the premier colleges of business in the nation," Zingg said. "I also expect that Dr. Pendergast and his staff will be successful with faculty, administrators and external audiences to advance an important university initiative."
Dateline...
Continued from page 1

Renowned flamenco master Antonio María makes his Bay Area debut at Cal Poly Performing Arts 7:30 p.m. March 24 in the Christopher Cohan Center's Harman Hall. He began his training at age 13 and joined the Ballet Nacional de España at 18. He danced in leading roles with the company for 15 years before forming his own ensemble. The Campesina Española de Antonio María. Tickets to this Cal Poly Arts performance are $20 to $85.

Flamenco flair

Books at High Noon:
Phil Fetzer (Political Scientists), "Russell's Preposterous Task." By Adam S. "Tasting of the Shrew," Theatre, 8 p.m. (S) Pre-lecture by Patricia Timol (English), PAC Phillips Hall, 7 p.m.

Tuesday, March 12
Music: Chris Laterza, Backstage Pizza, 11 a.m.
Music: Sweet Honey in the Rock, Christopher Cohan Center's Harman Hall, 1 p.m.

Rominger...
Continued from page 1

where specific needs have been determined, may be developed as a result of this collaboration.

Rominger served as California's secretary of agriculture during Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr.'s administration. In 1999, President Clinton appointed him as the deputy secretary for the U.S. Department of Agriculture, a post he held until 2001.

Tuesday, March 12
Music: Sweet Honey in the Rock, Christopher Cohan Center's Harman Hall, 1 p.m.

Dairy cattle...
Continued from page 1

The four-member team, coached by Dairy Science Professor Stan Henderson, placed first in the Reactions, Swiss and Jersey divisions at the recent competition. Team member Natalie Borba also earned the title of High Scoring Individual in the same divisions. Other team members are John Azevedo, Sarah Renner and Tony Evangelos.

Cal Poly wins silver...
Continued from page 3

Director Albert Nunez," Admissions Director James Maraviglia said.

Cal Poly's award-winning CD-ROM includes a section on Central Coast activities, with short feature movies of students kayaking, hiking, rock climbing and surfing; 180-degree photos of Central Coast beaches; campus photo tours and interactive maps; and interviews with each of the university's department heads.

Position Vacancies
STATE: The official listing of staff and management vacancies is posted at least two weeks prior to closing dates on Cal Poly's Web site at www.academic-poly.edu. (Select "Employment" from the Cal Poly links drop-down box.) As a courtesy to our on-campus employees, job vacancies are also published in the Cal Poly Report. Positions marked with an asterisk indicate that qualified on-campus applicants in bargaining units 3, 5, 7 and 9 will be given first consideration. Job applications must be received in Human Resources, Admin. 110, by 5 p.m. on the closing date.

St.275-Clinical Laboratory Technologist II, Health Services, Student Affairs, $22,533-$29,580/month, temporary, intermittent, on call to June 30. Closing date: March 15.

St.276-Clinical Laboratory Technologist II, Health Services, Student Affairs, $13,470-$15,235/month, temporary to June 30. Closing date: March 15.

St.278-Adviser (Student Services Professional III), Advising Center, Orfalea College of Business, $31,454-$34,236/month. Closing date: open until filled. Review of applications begins March 19.

St.291-Records Associate Pool (Administrative Support Assistant I), Enrollment Support Services, Academic Records, $12,923-$19,304/month, temporary, intermittent, on call to June 30. Closing date: March 15.

St.299-Public Affairs/Communications Specialist I*, Extended University Programs and Services, $3,101-$4,645/month. Closing date: May 1.

FACRT Conditions are asked to contact the administrative department office at the phone number listed for more information or to request an application. Additional information and qualifications for each position may also be obtained online at http://www.academic-poly.edu. Please submit all applications materials to the department head/chair unless otherwise specified in the ad. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience (and time base where applicable), unless otherwise stated.

#0454: Lecturer, Full Time, Marketing Department (ext. 6-6123). Closing date: April 8.

#0461: Lecturer, Full Time, Food Science and Nutrition Department (ext. 6-2660). Closing date: May 1.

#0499: Lecturer, Full Time, Department of Food Science and Nutrition Department (ext. 6-2660). Closing date: April 12.

#0470: Lecturer, Full Time, Department of Economics (ext. 6-2788). Closing date: April 12.

#0479: Lecturer, Full Time, Orfalea College of Business, $2,510-$3,641/month. Closing date: March 15.

#0488: Lecturer, Full Time, Department of Economics (ext. 6-2788). Closing date: April 12.

#0490: Lecturer, Full Time, Department of Economics (ext. 6-2788). Closing date: April 12.

#0847: Lecturer, Full Time, Department of Economics (ext. 6-2788). Closing date: April 12.

#0486: Lecturer, Full Time, Department of Economics (ext. 6-2788). Closing date: April 12.

#0499: Lecturer, Full Time, Department of Economics (ext. 6-2788). Closing date: April 12.

#0461: Lecturer, Full Time, Department of Economics (ext. 6-2788). Closing date: April 12.

Dairy science students take top honors

Dairy science students took top honors today at the California State Dairy Forage Awards in Fort Worth, Texas.

Leadership changes made in Orfalea College of Business
Provost Paul Zingg announced today two administrative changes affecting the Orfalea College of Business and Institutional initiatives in the areas of entrepreneurship and community development.

On Feb. 26, William Pendergast stepped down from the deanship of the college to undertake an assignment for a university to foster programs on entrepreneurship and community development. In this role, he will work closely with the faculty and leadership of the college and other academic units of the university engaged in entrepreneurship and community development studies and programs.

Succeeding Pendergast as the interim dean of the college will be Terri Swartz, who previously served as head of the Marketing Department, associate dean and acting dean.

Students have also participated in state and national-level leadership development institutes, including the prestigious Bryn Mawr HERS Summer Institute. Swartz's appointment will be through academic year 2003-2004.

"These changes effect a beneficial situation for the university in two principal regards," Zingg said. "They will..."