AIDS Memorial Quilt

July 1, 1995, and now is a traveling exhibit. In San Francisco, the quilt was made up of 3-by-6-foot panels designed to remember those who have died from AIDS. Portions of the quilt are continually displayed around the country, and more than 900 panels are expected at Cal Poly.

The theme, "Bringing the Quilt Close to Home," expresses the fact that local people are among those who have contributed to the quilt, and some of the names on the panels are those of local residents.

Since 1987, more than 12.5 million people have visited the quilt in thousands of displays worldwide. Five displays in Washington, D.C., are the only ones to have featured the quilt in its entirety, which now includes more than 34,000 names and would stretch across 16 football fields.

Palm Corp. donates 28 'hand-helds' to UCTE

Palm Corp. has donated 28 Palm handheld PDAs -- or personal digital assistants -- to students in the University Center for Teacher Education.

The computers will allow students to access course content, complete and turn in class assignments, and communicate with fellow students and teachers via e-mail anytime, whether on campus or off. Students will also use Palm PDA technology to create lesson plans. Valued at $3,200, the computers will become the property of the UCTE's Instructional Technology Lab, being developed in conjunction with Information Technology Services.

The lab will give education students experience with the latest technology so that they can meet the tough new state standards required for teachers.

Equipment donated by the Portmante Corp. will connect the Palm handheld computers to Cal Poly's network, allowing the students to transmit data electronically.

AIDS Memorial Quilt to be displayed May 17-19

The Names Project AIDS Memorial Quilt will be on display at the Recreation Center May 17-19. Public viewing will be 10 a.m.-9 p.m. May 17-18 and 10 a.m.-2 p.m. May 19.

The project, which began 15 years ago in San Francisco, is made up of 3-by-6-foot panels designed to remember those who have died from AIDS. Portions of the quilt are continually displayed around the country, and more than 900 panels are expected at Cal Poly.

The theme, "Bringing the Quilt Close to Home," expresses the fact that local people are among those who have contributed to the quilt, and some of the names on the panels are those of local residents.

Volleyball challenge to add to Mark Reuling endowment

Sign-ups for the May 10 Mark S. Reuling Memorial Endowment Volleyball Challenge begin today (April 24) at the Recreation Center.

The cost per six-member team is $60, and each team will receive six T-shirts. Proceeds from the registration fee will add to the endowment.

Faculty and staff members and student employees may play May 10 at noon and 6 p.m. with playoffs scheduled later that afternoon. Members of fraternities, sororities and student clubs will compete at 6 p.m.

For more information, contact Joe Long at ext. 6-5845 or Bob Negrant, ext. 6-5432.

ReMember Week to be Monday through May 2

ReMember Week, a program designed to increase personal safety and awareness, is set for Monday (April 29)-May 2.

In the past, ReMember Week will be held from May 7-11, but this year’s event will include a self-awareness information event, self-defense presentations, a Take Back the Night Speaking Tour, and a Community Awareness Information Fair and a silent candlelight walk.

The ReMember program started in 1999 to support survivors of sexual assault. The event also serves as a remembrance of college students Rachel Newhouse and Aundria Crawford, who were lost to violence, and Kristin Smart, who has been missing since 1996.

Self-defense presentations by Scared Safe and SLO Kickingbox will take place 6-8 p.m. Tuesday in Bishop’s Lounge in the UU.

The ARWC-endorsing poet, Bobbi Morgan, will deliver the keynote speech at 7:30 p.m. May 1 in Chumash Auditorium.

Morgan is an artist-feminist activist, journalist and editor.

Her talk will focus on her prize-winning book, “The Demon Lover: The Roots of Terrorism,” which examines the links between terrorism and misogyny. A reception and book signing will follow Morgan’s talk.

A Community Awareness Information Fair, 11 a.m.-1 p.m. May 2 in the UU, will feature representatives from the Cal Poly Women’s Center and Women’s Studies Programs, the San Luis Obispo Sexual Assault and Prevention Center, the local chapter of the National Organization of Women, the San Luis Obispo Women’s Resource Center, and Planned Parenthood.

ReMember week will conclude with a silent, candlelight walk during Farmers’ Market in downtown San Luis Obispo May 2, followed by an open microphone session at Mission Plaza. The walk will begin at 5:30 p.m. at Mission Plaza.

To help support the ReMember program, the Cal Poly Women’s Programs office and all Corral Bookstores will sell ReMember T-shirts for $10 and $15.

For more information, contact the Women’s Center at ext. 6-2600 or visit the event’s Web site at http://remember.calpoly.edu.

Arboretum tour and plant sale set for Saturday

The Horticulture and Crop Science Department will give tours of the Leaning Pine Arboretum and hold a spring plant sale Saturday.

Students will give arboriculture tours at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. The five-acre arboretum is located on South Africa, the Mediterranean basin, California and elsewhere.

The plant sale will be 8 a.m.-3 p.m. at the arboretum, will include landscape shrubs, flowering perennials, annual color, succulents, herbs and ornamental grass.

Proceeds from the sale will support the development of the Leaning Pine Arboretum.

For more information, call ext. 6-2888.

Leaves solicitation

Jennifer Estelle, a police officer in University Police, has been selected as personnel catastrophic leave.

Eligible state employees may donate vacation credits to help an signifies that are matched with that of the college, but that is not required. Since requests are limited to proposals, they may be submitted at any time during the academic year. Because funds are limited, requests made early in the academic year have a greater likelihood of approval.

It is anticipated that three to six WTUs will be provided and will be reimbursed at the minimum faculty replacement level for an assistant professor.

For more information, call Research and Graduate Programs at ext. 6-1508.

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report is posted online at www.calpoly.edu every Wednesday during the academic year. It can also be accessed from the "A-Z" index on the Cal Poly home page (click on "C").

In addition, copies are mailed to each major university campus and noncampus locations.

Articles are due to Public Affairs by 10 a.m. Wednesday.

For more information, contact the magazine, call ext. 6-1511.

Funds available for proposal development

To stimulate research activity, the Research and Graduate Programs office will consider faculty requests for assigned time for the purpose of preparing grant or contract proposals.

The funds for assigned time are designed for grant writers and members to more time to prepare proposals.

Please submit written requests indicating the dollar amount of WTUs desired, the academic term for which the request is made, the agency or program for which the proposal is being prepared, and the application deadline, as well as any other information that supports the request, such as preliminary work completed either on the project or on proposal development.

The request should be directed to the dean of research and graduate programs and signed by the respective department chair/Dean.

Requests should include a current C.V. and a list of other university support received during the last five years. Special consideration will be given to requests that are matched with assigned time from the college, but that is not required.

Since requests are limited to proposal deadline, they may be submitted at any time during the academic year.

For more information, call Research and Graduate Programs at ext. 6-1508.

All-female vocal quartet to perform May 9

Convivia, an all-female vocal quartet that focuses on a cappella music from the medieval and Renaissance periods, and the Mendocino and Napa choirs, two choirs that have received awards from the 20th century, will perform at 8 p.m. Friday in Room 218 in the Davidson Music Center.

The group's repertoire also includes American folk and jazz. The May 9 concert will include sacred music from 1492 to 2002, the Kentucky folk song "Queens Jane," and the spirituals "I'm Down, Moses" and "Give Me Jesus," harmonized by Meredith Brammeier, a music professor and member of Convivia.

The concert is sponsored by the Music Department and College of Liberal Arts. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

Professor Steve Angley

Linda Vansau, a member of the Materials Engineering Department faculty since 1991, has been appointed chair of the department. Her three-year appointment begins fall quarter; however, she is also serving as chair this spring quarter, succeeding Robert Heidbrink.

Vansau was appointed

Vansau was appointed chair of the Department of Civil Engineering. She has been with the department since 1991 and has served as an associate professor, interim chair and chair.

She is currently a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and the American Society of Engineering Education.
