Cal Poly authors to be honored at April reception

Cal Poly faculty members, current students and staff members whose books were published in 2002 will be honored in April at the fifth annual Cal Poly Authors Celebration.

The reception and awards ceremony, sponsored by the Kennedy Library, El Corral Bookstore and the Provost's Office, will be 5-7 p.m. April 9 in the library's elevator lobby.

Authors must identify themselves or be identified by a colleague by March 7.

For guidelines and a submission form, go to the Cal Poly Authors 2003 Web site at www.lib.calpoly.edu/authors. For more information e-mail Rebecca Nadel at rnadel@calpoly.edu or call her at ext. 6-6246.

Current Periodicals Room now open in library

The Kennedy Library recently celebrated the opening of a Current Periodicals Room.

The room houses new and archived periodicals and newspapers, as well as the Course Reserve Collections. The area is adjacent to Pony Prints, the Poly Connect Lab, and Bytes, an expanded vending machine food-service facility. Materials and services in these areas are available 7:30 a.m.-1 a.m. Monday through Thursday; 7:30 a.m.-8 p.m., Friday; 10 a.m.-8 p.m., Saturday and 10 a.m.-1 a.m. Sunday.

Dean of Library Services Hiram Davis, Provost Paul Zingg, Foundation Director Frank Mumford, Facilities Services' Tom May and ASI President Jake Parnell were on hand at the ribbon-cutting ceremonies.

Long appointed chair

Political Science Professor Dianne Long has been appointed chair of the department for spring quarter.

Pezo-Silva retires; interim director picked

Armando Pezo-Silva, director of student academic services, retired from Cal Poly Dec. 7, after 30 years of service. Susan Sparling has been selected interim director.

While at Cal Poly, Pezo-Silva also served as associate director and director of the Educational Opportunity Program. He was instrumental in developing the Student Academic Services department and was active in efforts to support diversity and first-generation college student success.

Sparling, a Cal Poly employee since 1974, has worked in Student Health and in the Counseling Center. In 1978, she joined the Educational Opportunity and Student Academic Services program.

Donna Davis, who began working in Career Services in 1979, has been appointed assistant director of student academic services.

Wind Orchestra to play show, Carnegie tunes

The Wind Orchestra, under the direction of Music Professor William Johnson, is planning a musical tour of New York City in a concert at 8 p.m. March 1 in Harman Hall in the Christopher Cohen Center.

The benefit concert, billed “Broadway to Carnegie,” will begin with the familiar tunes of hit Broadway musicals and finish with the “extraordinary repertoire the ensemble plans to perform in its April 3 Carnegie Hall concert,” according to Johnson.

Orchestral suites from “West Side Story,” “The Producers” and “Phantom of the Opera” and a Salute to Richard Rodgers” will highlight the Broadway portion of the program.

“The Carnegie Hall selections will pay tribute to the fallen heroes and survivors of 9/11,” Johnson said.

Tickets to “Broadway to Carnegie” cost $9 to $19. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2607.

Lecture-recital planned

Music faculty members Katherine Arthur, soprano, and Susan Azaret Davies, pianist, will give a free lecture-recital on Robert Schumann’s “Liederkreis,” Op. 39, at 11 a.m. Feb. 27 in Davidson Music Center 218.

Schumann wrote the “Liederkreis,” a cycle of 12 songs, in 1840 based on poems by Joseph von Eichendorff. In describing the music to his wife-to-be, Schumann referred to the songs as “my most romantic music ever, containing much of you in it.”

For more information, contact the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

Single-protein molecules to be topic of Feb. 20 talk

Everett Lipman of the Laboratory of Chemical Physics at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md., will speak Feb. 20 on “Investigating the Behavior of Single Protein Molecules with Resonance Energy Transfer.”

Lipman, a candidate for Cal Poly’s Physics Department faculty, will speak from 11 a.m. to noon in Science E-26 as part of the Physics Colloquium series.

For more information, call the Physics Department at ext. 6-2448.

PolyView available online

The Institutional Planning and Analysis office has released the fall 2002 edition of PolyView, which contains demographic and academic characteristics about students enrolled in fall 2002 and degree information for the previous year.

Copies were to be distributed campus-wide this week.

PolyView and other publications such as the quarterly InfoBriefs and the yearly Fact Book, is available at http://www.ipa.calpoly.edu/. Printed copies can obtained by calling IP&A at ext. 6-2204.

Blood drive set for Tuesday

The Student Health Advisory Council is sponsoring a blood drive through Tri-Counties Blood Bank from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday (Feb. 18) at the blood bank’s mobile donor coach parked in front of Mott Gym.

All blood types are needed. A blood donor must be at least 17 years old, weigh 110 pounds or more and be in good health.

Donors are encouraged to eat a good meal within six hours prior to donating.

Although appointments are not required, participants are encouraged to telephone in advance for a specific donation time to reduce unnecessary waiting.

Call Bob Negranti, SHAC advisor, at ext. 6-5428 to sign up.

Thai art to be featured

Four artists, all faculty members from Silpakorn University in Bangkok, Thailand, will exhibit their work – from cast glass to video projection – in an exhibit Feb. 11-March 9 in the University Art Gallery.

The exhibit is titled “Pacific Cross Currents.” A talk and opening reception are planned from 4 to 6 p.m. Feb. 11, also in the University Art Gallery. The gallery, in the Dexter Building, is open 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday and 7-9 p.m. Wednesday. For more information, call ext. 6-1571 or ext. 6-6038.

Ticket information

Tickets to the performances listed in today’s Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office 10 a.m.-6 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturdays. Call ext. 6-2787, or fax your order to ext. 6-6088.
