Collegians Swing At Homecoming

Dr. Robert Mott, head of the Physical Education department, said, "First of all, a young coach must be clean cut. Mott said that, above all, a novice mentor must believe in what he is doing. Moreover, he has to like boys and have confidence in them." Coaching can become a heartbreaking proposition of any sort must be able to absorb the defeats along with the victories while keeping the boys’ spirits high, Mott added. The spirit of a team greatly comes from the coach, so if he is happy, naturally his team will follow.

"Most of the fellows who have been active in Cal Poly's extracurricular intramural program, playing as well as organizing, have been our best contributors to coaching. This program, along with our policy of giving a number of scholarships to the aspiring basketball and baseball, are in keeping with Cal Poly's 'learn-by-doing' philosophy and give the prospective coach valuable practical experience going out in the field," Mott said.

"Almost all of Cal Poly's graduates are spreading all over the West after graduation and many of our now coaching are coming back, often, and are in leading capacity," Mott noted. "That is why I have confidence in Cal Poly's extracurricular program as a source of the bigest and best benefit of the future." Mott also emphasized that any float must be safe to personal and property areas. No float shall exceed 50 feet in length and 15 feet in height, measured from the ground.

Best athletes don't always make the best coaches, in fact, often the reverse is true. Bonfire Opens Homecoming Rally committee plans for Homecoming promises to keep campus spirits high during the 34th annual Homecoming here Nov 8.

The freshman team will build the biggest and best bonfire ever for Friday evening's bonfire rally. The captain of the Montana State-Cal Poly game will light the fire.

This year's rally will be held at 7:30 from the farm school and will be boosted by the song leaders, the cheerleaders, the parade floats and the band. The bonfire will be held immediately following the parade on the Court House steps. Rules governing parade entries are as follows: (1) Total expenditures of floats must not exceed $500, including formations; (2) All trophies or Another float shall be given forward; (3) Driver of the float shall have clear vision of all feet in front and 45 degrees from one front to each side; (4) Reason for entry, including the divisional trophies for the biggest and best bonfire; (5) Floats must be safe to personal and property areas. No float shall exceed 50 feet in length and 15 feet in height, measured from the ground.
Alumni from Hawaii Have Surprise for Homecoming Court

Never before in the history of Homecoming activities has the Alumni Association presented an award of this magnitude to a student from Hawai'i. The Alumni Association has decided to award the Van Horn Memorial Trophy to the most outstanding Cal Poly athlete in recognition of the athletic achievements of the student from Hawai'i. The trophy will be awarded to the outstanding Cal Poly athlete from Hawai'i during the Homecoming activities.

Athlete's Courage Starts Track

Oscar Van Horn was a one man gang — a terrific competitor," says Coach Howie O'Danlele, who coached the 1958 track squad when Van Horn was voted the most valuable member. But the 1958 track season was to be Van Horn's last as a Mustang track star. Following the 1958 football season, his senior year, Oscar Van Horn died of an intestinal disorder.

"Van Horn was a big, strong, likable fellow, the finest kind of a team man and an excellent student," recalls O'Danlele. The Mustang grid great was the uncle of Gary Van Horn, who played fullback and end on this year's Poly varsity squad.

To show their great respect for their teammate and fellow student, the Poly students have made a special request that the team that the Van Horn memorial trophy in his memory. The trophy is awarded to Lewi Gentry, a football and baseball star, each year by the Poly varsity squad.

Building Program Does Present Some Parking Problems

By Stuart Holles

Fall quarter students at Cal Poly have some new problems in parking created by the very building crowd who have been contented to add to the present housing and parking facilities.

One problem was brought on by the paving synchress through Santa Lucia street, which became a fastproof deterrent of cars, ped-estrians and humans in general.

These trenches are the groundwork for the new, two-story Anti-cultural classrooms building.

Parking lot "O" is flanked by the other half to wander in and out of staff men's getting tickets.

The expansion which Cal Poly's 3,000 acre campus is experiencing began some time in June, 1958.

Ridding the campus Animated silver stream of cars and students, was wiped out and Mellivy street, the only other exit from Cal Poly, was destroyed.

Married students' housing suffered because the state legislature could not provide all the oduments needed throughout the entire state. Single students are given preferences on the grounds of economic feasibility of providing them with housing.

According to Dr. Clyde Fisher, building program director at Cal Poly, all expansion is geared to enrollment projections five years in advance. Plans for construction in 1961 must be determined by the fall quarter of 1958, which are compiled in the state department of finance by a demographer.

Present buildings under construction, gym, health center, Agicultural classrooms, and resid-dence halls, will provide facilities to add an additional 100 men and 400 women to the student enrollment.
