Notes On SAC Meeting

Student Body Receives Thanks For Building Winning Float

"It's a real pleasure to be able to congratulate Cal Poly's bi-campus student body for again winning a first-place award with a Rose Parade float," said Vice President Robert E. Kennedy in a letter to the student body read by Student Council Chairman Ken McLean. "The win is a source of pride for the entire student body and is a reflection of the dedication and hard work of all those involved in the project." The float, featuring different musical arrangements, was designed to "pay tribute to the students' hard work and dedication." The float was accompanied by a serenade rally that started at South Perimeter Rd. and Pepper Lane.

Kenton's Coming

Modern Music Men of Jazz To Play Concert Jan. 25

A personal appearance by Kenton, the famous clarinetist, will highlight social events of the winter quarter when he appeared at the state of modern music before Cal Poly students on January 25 in the new gym.

Kenton, a member of the clarinet trio that will be in the band, is a great artist and will be welcomed by all. The concert will feature different musical arrangements, and the audience is encouraged to come early to enjoy the performance. For more information, please contact the office of the Student Activities Committee.
Poly Players Plan Winter Production

Call him the grim reaper, the imperious visier, or the blank. No matter what his name, he will be the subject of the Poly Players winter production, "Death Takes a Holiday," by Alberto Cassani to be presented March 4 and 6. Dave Horton in the role of Death will be joined by other Poly students, including Jack Roberts, Bill Warren, Michael Adam, Kay Schneider, Julie Bingham, Alice Coronary, Don Olson, Charlotte O’Hagan, Ron Morgan, Tom Crawford, Kay Johnson, and Bryan Little. Carol Rice will be singing in the show.

Keith Nissen, drama instructor and director of "Death Takes a Holiday," has high expectations for an even more successful performance than the recent production of "Picnic." Another drama has been slated to serve a lifetime. Interest in the club by signing up may continue in the ABB office.

Students can indicate their interest in the club by signing up for a snow trip to Sequoia National Park, January 21, 20. 30, at the ABB office.

Studies Cal Poly
Training Methods

Visitng on the Cal Poly campus until Jan. 28 in Dr. K. V. N. R. Bhandary, Principal, Teaching Desp. for Extension Administration, Government of Nepal, a situation in the Himalayan nation of Nepal and Tibet.

Bhandary, who arrived in the United States last September, is visiting Cal Poly under the auspices of the International Cooperation Administration. It is studying the organization and administration of Cal Poly in relation to preparation of students for technical and teaching occupations in agriculture.

Obstacles Bhandary's visit are to study the Cal Poly philosophy as demonstrated by the "outside-in" curriculum, by doing and doing the same while learning in the laboratory.

Bhandary's itinerary includes visits to other colleges and universities, as well as to meetings of organizations related to United Nations agriculture.

Comedy Stated For CU Movie
