Dear Editor:

I attended a very fine and thoroughly enjoyable program last Saturday evening put on by our residence hall here at Cal Poly. This event was held to benefit the male students in the ROTC program, as they are raising funds for the last 500 rounds of ammunition required for their training.

It was arranged by the Student Affairs Council, and both education and fine entertainment was provided. The display table was nicely set up, and the floor show of higher caliber was quite enjoyable. Let's say a hearty "thank you" to the participants and do a better job of reporting the future. A Disappointed Reader.

Dear Editor:

I often think it is quite possible that the recruiters from industrial firms that visit this campus take home the wrong impression. I was there, too, last week, and I'm sure the ROTC Rifle Team would be pleased to have me as a student. You should try it fellow. You might like it. Senior.

Fencing Tomorrow

Cal Poly fencing group, coached by Clifford Cooman, Electronic Engineering Instructor, will meet the University of California, Ban- ta at University College. In order to be eligible to go, it is necessary to sign up in the ROTC office by 4 p.m. after the first week.

We are presently waiting for word about the results.

On February 15th, the Cal Poly ROTC Rifle Team, under Santa Barbara ROTC, is a shoulder-shield match. The probable firing lineup for this match will include Gary Taylor, Richard Hardwick, John Sanford, George Grace, Bob Ovett, Dennis Monak, and Bob Brodie.

Wouldn't you like to have as much fun on a Friday night as your wife thinks you have?

Out of The Din

on the alarming campus fashion trend may make some of the critics in the tight jeans and cowboy boots set think twice about going on campus. They think their style of dress is the current thing in college wear? Unbuttoned, tight jeans, sunbonnets and western boots are seemingly "in" this fall. But think of the thing for doing the chores back on the ranch, but I can't see any reason for wearing this sort of costume to a college event.

I often think it is quite possible that the recruiters from industrial firms that visit this campus take home the wrong impression. I was there, too, last week, and I'm sure the ROTC Rifle Team would be pleased to have me as a student. You should try it fellow. You might like it. Senior.

Mustangs Meet Matadors Tonight in Non-League Basketball Clash

After christening the new Men's Physical Education Building in the correct manner with an 11-0 victory over Oregon State College Tuesday, Ed Jergensen's Mustang roundballers plan to make it two in a row tonight when they meet the Matadors of San Fernando Valley State College in the new plant at 8:30 P.M.

Tuesday's contest saw the Mustangs ride off on a comfortable 15-point charge in the game's staggeringly mellow while the Troupers reduced the Mustang advantage to five points, then regain a 40-30 halftime lead.

Second half play saw Jergensen's bench, especially the reserves, serve some enemies "under orders" against the outmanned opposition.

While "Jumpin' Joe" Ryrvan nabbed highest honors with 16 points, Jergensen was especially pleased with the heart-wrenching work of Dale Kuykendall, who tallied 11 marks during his abbreviated stint in the second half. "Kuykendall has come on strong in the last couple of games," said Jergensen. "He's a real hustler.

The Mustang combo--who discovered a new combination while falling to Los Angeles State 108-106 in a double overtime affair last week, said "The combination of Jim Clark and Kuykendall at center, and Jerry Batchelor and Joe Rycraw at forwards looks mighty impressive in the last few minutes against the Troupers. We'll be seeing them together oftener.

Despite the eventful, though scarcely exciting, showed flashes of former greatness grabbing 11 points, most of which came in the second half. Tonight's Mustang-Matador contest starts up as a carbon copy of the Oxy battle. The Valley State May 18.0-66; Rainier, 36-57, and Grand Canyon 104-71, while winning over Pomona 97-100, La Verne 98-93, and Cal Western 87-84.

Matador forward Jim Malkin will lead the State attack bringing four outstanding pugilists to take on the Triplets. Joe Rycraw leads the Mustang scoring parade with 28 points in 18 games, for a 15.6 average, followed by Jim Clark with 24 points and a 14.8 average.

In the second department, Rycraw has amassed a fantastic total of 170 rebounds to date for the contest with a 9.4 average. McCormick again follows with 188, who leads the Mustangs' points and a 18.8 average.

In the season department, Ryvra has amassed a fantastic total of 170 rebounds to the 9.4 average. McCormick again follows with 188, who leads the Mustangs' points and a 18.8 average.

In the season department, Ryrvra has amassed a fantastic total of 170 rebounds to the 9.4 average. McCormick again follows with 188. McCormick leads in the free-throw league, hitting 45 of 80 attempts to date, for a .56 average, followed by Jim Clark's 18 of 38 attempts for a .47 percentage.

Leemen Face Cal Tomorrow Night In Crandall Gym

Expecting an 11-0 bracket Cal, partly because of Tom Lee's return, Cal Poly plans to show their fans the noontime tonight in Crandall Gymnasium against the University of California Bears at 8:30 P.M.

Although Lee knows little of the breeding competition, he indicated that Bear Coach Ed Shange will bring four outstanding pugilists to face Lee Osago. Cal's standouts are heavyweight Jack Domich, 147 pounder, Dick Van Keesel, John Cleek and Dan Meet at 148 pounds.

Cal is a member of the California Collegiate Boxing Association formed last year, which includes Stanford, Ohio State, USF, Santa Clara, and Fresno State.

Lee pointed out that he has much respect for Osago, whom he considers one of the top boxers in the nation. The Cal school is second in the nation in years of service with more than 100 years activity.

The only catch he has won both the PCI and CIF titles.
