Poly AIA Members

To Attend Convention

Fifty Cal Poly Architectural Engineering students will travel to Yosemite Oct. 29 for the American Institute of Architects State Convention. George J. Howard, department chairman, reports that the AIA Convention will start Oct. 31.

One of the first projects at the convention will be a special presentation of the Cal Poly students. The students will be the delegates to the convention. All students are invited to attend the presentation and afterwards will be able to trace the history of the AIA and its relation to the development of architecture.

Bud and Travis Highlight CU's Folk Concert

"Folkbug!!! A'01," a presentation of the College Union Assembly, offering the popular school folk band, will be held Wednesday, Oct. 18 at 9:30 in the new Poly Gymnasium.

Bud and Travis have a true understanding of songs which are included in the school folk band's repertoire and are able to bring a new twist to their folk material.

The concert is currently touring on tour of west coast universities and colleges in Cal Poly after a successful at U.C.L.A. last month. They have written more than 400 songs for Cal Poly including "A Folkbug!!" and "Let's Go For Liberty!" in which they were voted the most promising singing duet of the year by the nation's disc jockeys.

Bud and Travis came together in 1961 after meeting in San Francisco where Bud was playing the Purple Onion and Travis the Hungry I. They evolved a new approach to folk singing, using counter folk melodies.

Tickets are on sale at the Associated Student Body office in the Administration building at $1.50 per person and $2 for general admission. They may also be obtained at the boxes nestled beside Cal Coral on 7th and 10th.

For the Editor:

October or not, the feeling leaves the air the way it did in the autumn of last year. I still believe, however, that we have a story that should be told, and I'm sure you will enjoy reading it.

All American hero Bob Brucker has made an heroic stand against the elements, and his courage and determination have inspired the world. He has won the Brickell Award of the United States and the University of Toronto for work that is so unique that it could be described as "the most beautiful piece of art in the world."

According to Brucker, the world is not prepared for his work, and he has been forced to seek refuge in Canada, where he is receiving a hero's welcome.

The Canadian hero has reached an important point in his work, and his efforts have been recognized by the Brickell Award, which is given to the most beautiful piece of art in the world.

Colts Meet Bullpups in Mustang Stadium Today

With the prospect of continuing a string of six games without a loss shattered by Modesto Junior College's 8-6 victory last week, Coach Tom Law's 1960 freshman Colts will attempt to start another win when they return at 6 p.m. when they host the Fresno City College Mustangs at Mustang Field.

Law's Colts, striken somewhat by injuries sustained in the Modesto game, will probably take the field with almost the same lineup which they tallied against the Bull­

Montana State Tests Mustang
Air Strength Tomorrow Night

Rubbing shoulders with the Fresno State Bulldogs at the top of the CCAA League heap as a result of last Saturday's 84-6 aerial bombardment of the San Diego State Aztecs, the Cal-Poly Mustangs renew a grid war with the Montana State Bobcats tomorrow night that started back in 1946. With the firewoks scheduled to start at 8:15 P.M. in Mustang Stadium, the Montana-Montana State tilt is in fact the 51st annual gridiron meeting between the two former western mining powerhouses.

Statistical minded persons will probably appreciate the fact that 1st last week Mustang Football Coach Ray Hugger garnered his 100th win in in coaching career at 1st against some 30 years at inter­

BOBCAT GROWLER... Back for his senior season for Montana State is halfback Tommy Mol and who brings a 1950 total of 989 yards gained in 74 carries for an 8 yard per carry average to Mustang Stadium in tomorrow night's Mustang-Bobcat game. Molten, a commerce major at MSC, will start at halfback for the 'Cats.

Montana's Bobcats are the Marksmen of the Big Sky Conference, and the single biggest factor in the Bobcats' success is the backfield combination of Tommy Molten, a commerce major who averages 8 yards per carry; Rich Hughes, the Mustang backfield's center, and John Sine who has earned All-Conference honors the past two seasons.

Hughes has made all-Mountain All-American and All-Conference in 1959 and 1960.

Montana State, though still winless on the season, is scheduled to field a stronger team this week than at any previous contest this year.

Bobcats Coach Ray Hugger may appear to be "jumping the gun" on his season's schedule of games, but last Tuesday saw Jerry and a fairly large group of potential rainhellers meeting to discuss the formation of a Mustang Football Tailgate party.

Head Basketball Coach Ed Jordan may appear to be "jumping the gun" on his season's schedule of games, but last Tuesday saw Jerry and a fairly large group of potential rainhellers meeting to discuss the formation of a Mustang Football Tailgate party.

Coeds Find Cal Poly "Challenging Experience"

Why did the average Cal Poly coed come to college to find a husband, yet away from the old hometown, or to learn a profession? More than 55 girls were asked recently to comment on this question.

Most of the girls interviewed were unmarried and active in college affairs. Interests ranged from livestock to homemaking. Statements were both startling and humorous.

"There are too many men," said a shy freshman. She explained that in many of her classes she is outnumbered and finds she is competing on the scholarship list with too many male minds.

Said an enthusiastic sophomore, "Cal Poly has everything!" in classifying this she said, "It is an outstanding school in an ideal location—close to Avila and far enough from home." The average junior coed was active in extra-curricular activities yet maintained a 3.5 grade point average. It was apparent that by her junior year in college a girl has learned to budget her time for studies and still have time for fun.

The "best three years," said an obviously concerned senior, "and I'm not even engaged yet." Sold in jest, this statement reflects the views of a few of the girls questioned.
