Dorm Fire Started by Shaving Lotion; Damage Is Slight

A small bottle of shaving lotion started a fire recently that caused some damage but was quickly extinguished. The fire broke out in the room of a student living in one of the dormitories.

The fire was started when a shaving lotion bottle was left open and the spread of the fire was contained to a small harrass between two rooms. The cause of the fire is unknown and it is being investigated. The student living in the room is safe and has returned to his studies.

Budget Boys Get Braced For Heavenly Angel

Propaganda prepared by the College Union Committee for the tryouts of the show, "College Union Assembly at 7 p.m. — Young Farmer Talent Show"

The show turned out to be a large turnout for the tryouts and was a success. The students involved are eager to perform and look forward to the next show.

Activity Calendar

Tuesday, Jan. 31 — 8:30 p.m. Intramural basketball

Wednesday, Feb. 1 — 7:45 p.m. — Young Farmer Talent Show

Thursday, Feb. 2 — 7 p.m. — Freshmen Class meeting

Student Union

Space Travel To Be College Union Talk

Space flight and artificial satellites will be discussed Thursday night in the College Union, under the sponsorship of the College Union Committee for the tryouts of the show, "College Union Assembly at 7 p.m. — Young Farmer Talent Show". The event is free and open to the public.
Alumnus Appointed To Honduran Job

A dairy husbandry alumnum has been appointed director general of livestock and veterinary services in Honduras. He is General L. De Gonzalez, son of a well-known Honduran livestock and ranch owner.

Announcement of Gonzalez's promotion was received here by George Drumn, dairy husbandry department head and an internatinal livestock judge. Drum, says Drumn, returned from a trip to Honduras three years ago to the appointment post as a livestock specialist.

Gonzalez, who, traveled in training conferences and波动, is proficient in English and other Colombo languages. He is now an editor of the Ollio News, a weekly publication.

The new government of Vivets has suspended import of beer and wine.

GREEN BROTHERS

Known for Good Clothing by Poly Students since the dawn of the century.

—We Stand Behind Our Merchandise—

* Manhattan * Pendleton * Croiby Square

We give 50¢ Green Stamps 871 Monterey St.

ON CAMPUS

Radio & T.V. Service

3 DAY ECONOMICAL SERVICE TO STUDENTS & STAFF

Laboratory F-9, North (exterior, Radio Service, Adjacent to the Clock Tower Phone 336

4-6 Daily 9-12 Sat.

SPECIAL

558

REG PRICE $ 97

ALL SERVICE GUARANTEED

TIRE SALE

JANUARY 10 TO JANUARY 31

O.K. Auto Float Tire Store

1413 MONTEREY

"BY THE RAILROAD UNDERPASS" WE GIVE 50¢ GREEN STAMPS

EL MUSTANG

TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1957

The Gavel's Beat

By Ed Klein

Here's the scope of student government activities this week. Participation and interest continues to grow. Go to these meetings and add to the interested students through HAC. The officers of the following boards have submitted their reports:

Our Clothesline

Is Complete

For you this winter

—Pendleton Shirts —Robes —Poly Jackets

We Don't Sell—You Buy

THORNTON DEANERY

CARL KIRK

GREAT MORTGAGE

by the agency of the Board of Control of the University of California

Tall Men Help Boys

A man never stands as tall as when he helps a boy.

In early December, the University of California H.A.C. (High School) Airline Program which operates in the junior and senior high schools of the state gave an air show in the University of California Rose Bowl Stadium in Los Angeles.

Outlaw Smoking—Custodian

Failure to use the cigarette lighter located in the first floor hallways and gaveaway cases for Big Brother Knights would be stopped by the custodian. He would like to see smoking at 1037 better managed.

"I used to be a hobo, Man, I've smoked as much as any man..." he said and took off his cap. "But when I went to college, they gave me a cigarette lighter..."
Thirty-nine Teams Open Intramural Cage Competition

A thirty-nine team entry, representing a new record for Poly's Intramural Basketball Program, began competition this week. The Wildroot's teams have been divided into four leagues with three leagues having 12 teams each and one with 13 teams. Each league represents a day of the week starting with Monday and running through Thursday. The intramural basketball season is in competition Friday due to other gym commitments.

Team competition is confined to their respective leagues with no inter league competition until the playoffs. This will be a better program since the time element is a major factor in the interest of the teams entered, all contests to be played will be completed by 5:30 p.m. Saturday, except the last league which will be completed by 7:30 p.m. Sunday afternoon to accommodate the Christmas holiday.

This year's program should prove to the athletes of Poly's history, with a record that increases in league games, many more spectators and a new Free Time Forest on a few contests. The intra league program is not only for those who compete, but also for those who enjoy basketball. As usual, Poly will have the program and choose the best players who have athletes who have attended in basketball here at Poly. As a result, the players competing will enjoy the facility as possible. This year the success of the intramural basketball Program is that the officials, time men, and spectators are all students of the college.

This year's program will run approximately ten weeks. At that time, the winners of each league will play in a two day play - off tournament at 8:00 p.m. Friday and Saturday with the winner getting a consolation game. Each player on the winning team will be awarded a trophy. The league is already in progress and if you aren't on a team, come on down to gymnasium and enjoy basketball as your roommate can say. There is no charge for admission and the games are open to the public.

Sports Hi-Lites

Nobody Gave A Hoot For J. Paul Sherry* Till Wildroot Cream-Oil Gave Him Confidence

"Was everybody afraid of me?" I asked J. Paul. "Because you're such a ruffled old bird," replied his best buddy. Well that really opened Sherry's eyes. He took a cold-demineralized stress and poured a bottle of Wildroot Cream-Oil. Now he's the picture of confidence because he knows his hair always looks its best from morning to night. If you people are afraid to keep hooting at your messy hair, scratch for a bottle of Wildroot Cream-Oil. It's guaranteed to keep your hair neat but not greasy. And all the gals will go out of their way to you.

* 111 S. Harris Hill Rd., Williamsburg, N. Y.

Wildroot Cream-Oil gives you confidence

Mustangs Capture Double In Southland Hoop Meet

The Mustangs return home from the Southland Sunday with 2 more wins on their season's record. They beat the Whittiers 78-66 at the Posta 84-51 Friday night and topped the Long Beachers 63-60 in a CCAA contest Saturday night.

The Friday night contest will be battling Los Angeles State in a game that had been scheduled for Saturday. It has been made up with one notch because of TV commitments.

Poly's short bench caused Coach Ed Jorgensen some anxious moments in the two games. With a possible broken nose being suffered by Wilbur Strong the bench is that much weaker. But Prutikin will be brought up from the junior varsity and possibly one other player who Jorgensen feels is ready for varsity play.

Poly's Dunn was the leading point maker and rebounder for the Mustangs over the weekend. He gathered half of Poly's points against Whittier and ended up the only starter with 11 rebounds. Coach Jorgensen commented, "This was Dunn's best game. He showed his shooting ability once more and seemed to look like a better player when he got back into the game with the injury."

Sports Hi-Lites

with Ray Hughes

10:30 10:45 AM
Every Saturday

CHANNEL

AND

Listen To The
Cal-Poly Show
Every Week Day Evening
8:15 P.M.

KVEC Radio

SportsHi-Lites

TODAY’S BARR’S Drive In

Hwy 1 near Santa Rosa

Current Basketball Schedule

Jan. 18 Westmont College at Cal Poly

Jan. 25 Long Beach State at Cal Poly

Volkswagen Club meeting Tuesday, Jan. 15 at 7 o’clock in the Library Rm. 114 Purpose election of clubs first Officers.

Typewriters and Adding Machines

Sales * Rentals
Repairs on all makes

Sede and Services on all makes Electric Shavers

Bob Walker's

Smith-Corona Distributor

1233 Harris Street—For Pickup and Delivery Phone U-1227

Discount to Poly Students and Faculty
(Parking Sticker Your Identification)

Spark Plugs

porcelain 10,000 miles

TOM’S MOBILE SERVICE

505 Higuera St.
Liberty 3-4042

Cal Poly Group Activities

Poly Groups who wish to use this space may contact Mr. Barr at BARR’S Drive In, on or before Thursday one week prior to publication of El Mustang.
EL MUSTANG

You Like El Mustang, Student Survey Shows

How would you edit El Mustang if you had the opportunity? Chances are that the paper would remain pretty much the same, according to a survey recently conducted by Ag Journalism major Jim Luther as a term project in his public relations class. Purposes of the poll were to determine reader opinions of El Mustang and general knowledge of the paper's financing and to present sample and editorial suggestions to people in positions capable of applying these suggestions to any problems. As a class project it had been connected with the staff of El Mustang.

Of 1500 questionnaires, 880 returned prepared questionnaires on El Mustang's news content, editorial content, and layout. The poll was distributed over a two-week period. Distribution of the questionnaires was divided between men and women students and among the three divisions according to their percentage of the total enrollment. Answers to 13 specific questions on the poll determined the following:

The newspaper could be improved according to the majority by providing more and better material. The column "To Say the Least" is widely read, and rates from very good to just fair. The majority read most of El Mustang's features, and many want to see more letters printed.

Most students didn't know whether El Mustang receives any outside money, but whether the paper is self-supporting. For an eight-page El Mustang without ads, they would pay an average of 5.6 cents, and for a year's subscription would pay 87 cents.

The second part of this study will be continued in Friday's edition, with more comments and criticisms, and the conclusion of the survey.

El Mustang
California State Polytechnic College
Published twice weekly during the academic year by students enrolled in journalism courses. Editorial and Artistic work is the responsibility of the students, with James T. Leavenworth, advisor and major sponsor.

PAGE 4
EL MUSTANG

TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1957

You Like El Mustang, Student Survey Shows

How would you edit El Mustang if you had the opportunity? Chances are that the paper would remain pretty much the same, according to a survey recently conducted by Ag Journalism major Jim Luther as a term project in his public relations class. Purposes of the poll were to determine reader opinions of El Mustang and general knowledge of the paper's financing and to present sample and editorial suggestions to people in positions capable of applying these suggestions to any problems. As a class project it had been connected with the staff of El Mustang.

Of 1500 questionnaires, 880 returned prepared questionnaires on El Mustang's news content, editorial content, and layout. The poll was distributed over a two-week period. Distribution of the questionnaires was divided between men and women students and among the three divisions according to their percentage of the total enrollment. Answers to 13 specific questions on the poll determined the following:

The newspaper could be improved according to the majority by providing more and better material. The column "To Say the Least" is widely read, and rates from very good to just fair. The majority read most of El Mustang's features, and many want to see more letters printed.

Most students didn't know whether El Mustang receives any outside money, but whether the paper is self-supporting. For an eight-page El Mustang without ads, they would pay an average of 5.6 cents, and for a year's subscription would pay 87 cents.

The second part of this study will be continued in Friday's edition, with more comments and criticisms, and the conclusion of the survey.

El Mustang
California State Polytechnic College
Published twice weekly during the academic year by students enrolled in journalism courses. Editorial and Artistic work is the responsibility of the students, with James T. Leavenworth, advisor and major sponsor.

PAGE 4
EL MUSTANG

TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1957

You Like El Mustang, Student Survey Shows

How would you edit El Mustang if you had the opportunity? Chances are that the paper would remain pretty much the same, according to a survey recently conducted by Ag Journalism major Jim Luther as a term project in his public relations class. Purposes of the poll were to determine reader opinions of El Mustang and general knowledge of the paper's financing and to present sample and editorial suggestions to people in positions capable of applying these suggestions to any problems. As a class project it had been connected with the staff of El Mustang.

Of 1500 questionnaires, 880 returned prepared questionnaires on El Mustang's news content, editorial content, and layout. The poll was distributed over a two-week period. Distribution of the questionnaires was divided between men and women students and among the three divisions according to their percentage of the total enrollment. Answers to 13 specific questions on the poll determined the following:

The newspaper could be improved according to the majority by providing more and better material. The column "To Say the Least" is widely read, and rates from very good to just fair. The majority read most of El Mustang's features, and many want to see more letters printed.

Most students didn't know whether El Mustang receives any outside money, but whether the paper is self-supporting. For an eight-page El Mustang without ads, they would pay an average of 5.6 cents, and for a year's subscription would pay 87 cents.

The second part of this study will be continued in Friday's edition, with more comments and criticisms, and the conclusion of the survey.

El Mustang
California State Polytechnic College
Published twice weekly during the academic year by students enrolled in journalism courses. Editorial and Artistic work is the responsibility of the students, with James T. Leavenworth, advisor and major sponsor.

PAGE 4
EL MUSTANG

TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1957

You Like El Mustang, Student Survey Shows

How would you edit El Mustang if you had the opportunity? Chances are that the paper would remain pretty much the same, according to a survey recently conducted by Ag Journalism major Jim Luther as a term project in his public relations class. Purposes of the poll were to determine reader opinions of El Mustang and general knowledge of the paper's financing and to present sample and editorial suggestions to people in positions capable of applying these suggestions to any problems. As a class project it had been connected with the staff of El Mustang.

Of 1500 questionnaires, 880 returned prepared questionnaires on El Mustang's news content, editorial content, and layout. The poll was distributed over a two-week period. Distribution of the questionnaires was divided between men and women students and among the three divisions according to their percentage of the total enrollment. Answers to 13 specific questions on the poll determined the following:

The newspaper could be improved according to the majority by providing more and better material. The column "To Say the Least" is widely read, and rates from very good to just fair. The majority read most of El Mustang's features, and many want to see more letters printed.

Most students didn't know whether El Mustang receives any outside money, but whether the paper is self-supporting. For an eight-page El Mustang without ads, they would pay an average of 5.6 cents, and for a year's subscription would pay 87 cents.

The second part of this study will be continued in Friday's edition, with more comments and criticisms, and the conclusion of the survey.

El Mustang
California State Polytechnic College
Published twice weekly during the academic year by students enrolled in journalism courses. Editorial and Artistic work is the responsibility of the students, with James T. Leavenworth, advisor and major sponsor.