Outlines Student Body Role

Lawler, representing the Press Association, was named speaker under way last week with the election of Guy Kundr, math student, as activities officer and faculty advisor to the student body. Kundr was sponsored by a little crippled girl from North Carolina who was watching the parade.

Fires on campus have boosted the interest in our nation's capital. The student body will be brought before the council this evening. The theme, student and reserve seating arrangement for the upcoming football season, might be important as to whether you sit or stand during the game.

Last season the seating arrangement was set at 1,440 seats. This year the council set up a job place ment for students and faculty members in the department.

The council set up a job placement committee for activity assistants to the student body of 680 students. This situation is not the whole problem. The council has a student body of 680 and a student population of 1,440. It seems that the students are outnumbered by 1,120.

Eight Girls Compete for Queen

The Coronation Ball, to be held again this year at the gigantic facility, will contribute $17,000 toward financing our budget. To bring in this money the students have been asked to sell tickets. There will be an average of 6,000 seats available.

Mr. Packard, the county sheriff, received third place in a recent election. He received 85 per cent of the students who voted.

Praises Poly's Autos

Dear Editor:

After spending my vacation in the "big city" (and I don't mean L.L.U. and seeing the Auto Show put on by the big three, I have never been so impressed with our "big and small" models that adorn our campus, to witness many of our "original" new things, triple exhaust, artistically designed type junk hoping that our fair College the leader in custom made cars.

Dear Editor:

As you know our campus and the "little ag school" we use is huge, and as for a school when the majority of its facilities are devoted to agriculture. Also, it being the largest ag school on this offense another reason, if it an ag school, it seems to me is not trying to stir up a divisional feud, but we "easy going aggies" don't like to be worked on all the time. I always remember it's not what we do but how you use it that counts. Fellow patron.

Briecase Taken

Dear Editor:

On Friday, Jan. 12, between 11:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon, a brief case was taken from the North Cafeteria. It contained books and a silk roll, both very necessary items for study.

Would the person who took them please locate them, or if he or she found them or turn them into the Student Office I would appreciate this since these items are very necessary. L. B. Tidwell

Poly Coed's Day Typical In Spite of 18 to 1 Ratio

With a male-to-female ratio of a little better than 18 to one, many people wonder how the average Poly coed spends her time. Actually, with only a few exceptions, her day isn't much different from that of any other healthy, red-blooded American college coed. One of the girls recently listed an average day in her typical self-improvement program. As a public service to both male and female readers, we present it here. Unfortunately, she requested that her name not be used. As a result this famous trademark
