Save Collegiate Boxing

As a fund raiser of Intercollegiate Boxing and an ardent fan of our boxing team, I am here to announce that the fact that some colleges have expressed the opinion that they won't box anymore in any collegiate competition is a great concern. The colleges which I have in mind are the University of California, and the University of Nevada.

At the present time Cal Poly is among the four top boxing teams in the nation, with Michigan State College, Idaho State College and San Jose State College. It becomes harder every year to get a full schedule with other boxing teams, and obviously Cal Poly does greatly to partially finance our victorious boxing team. Our boxing team traveled to San Luis Obispo to tangle with Cal Poly's boxing team, and I seriously contest splitting Poly victories.

Coach Jimmie Olivas commented: "We will never again box in San Luis Obispo, for we seriously contest splitting Poly victories. We all feel that Intercollegiate boxing has arrived at a dilemma that can only be solved by having impartial Judges appointed by the NCAA."

I also believe that Intercollegiate boxing has arrived at a dilemma that can only be solved by having impartial Judges appointed by the NCAA.

Coach Tom Lee disclosed in an interview that he is unable to bring up the rumored problem, Intercollegiate boxing, as reported in the letter by Nick Monnikendam, titled "Save Collegiate Boxing."

Commenting in the article, Coach Tom Lee disclosed that many of the boxing fans feel that Judges are biased towards their boxers. Many boxing fans believe that their boxers have not been given justice.
