Flu Bug May Bite
Again: Vaccine Now Available

The next wave of Asian flu is expected to hit the campus in the spring, according to Dr. Earl Lovett, health center director. The vaccine is available for those who wish to be protected.

Flu shots are available anytime from 2 to 4 P.M., daily.
Students are free to students. Shots cost $1 to $2 per student.

AH Club To Hear
Champion Roper

B.J. Pier also will speak to its members of the state's top rider. It's a timely program for the AH Club.

Flu shots are important, but also important is the proper care of your throat and body. Be sure to get plenty of rest, and stay away from crowded places.

Students To Get Awards At Joint
Ag Clubs Meeting

Sponsorship of the Ag clubs meeting will be held Thursday night at 7:30 P.M. in the administration building. The meeting will be held in association with the joint meeting of the National FFA and the California State FFA associations.

Awards will be presented to the top junior and senior students in each club. There will also be an award for the best essay on the theme of the meeting, which is "The Importance of Food and Agriculture in the Future of our Country.

Knock-Out Candidates

One of the biggest College Hour attractions, the Gateway Club, will appear Thursday in Cramail Gym.

The Gateway Club, four young people and three instruments, sing folk songs in inimitable style from all over the world, with a new and present day set list and sound.

Eunice Thomas, lead singer, George Wolfe, drums, and Jerry Welter, the five string banjo, form the unique and personal troupe.

The group was organized four years ago when a band of college students asked to move from his band, and the Gateway Club has been rehearsing since then.

Starting with a theme of "Knock-Out Queen," the group will perform for five weeks and choose a new queen each week. In the final week, the three previous winners will be chosen as "Last Men Standing" and the winner will be determined by a vote among the audience.

The group will perform each Monday night in the Cramail. The next theme will be "The Beatles" and the group will perform songs from that group's album "Help!"

For more information, contact Gateway Club, or Eunice Thomas, lead singer.

Two Poly Entries In Bay Area AAU Gym Meet

Two—Poly gymnasts—Herman Farlough and Artie Day—participated recently in an out-of-season meet when they aided San Francisco's Southern Pacific AAU affair at the Olympic Club.

Farlough, who earned, local followers last year with his outstanding Stiff Upper Lip, was back in the event this year. The 4½-minute Day, a freshman, missed the scoring column and third place, but scored 4½ points in tumbling competition. Poly's gymnastic season starts next March.

SJIS and Long Beach

RULED FAVORITES IN WATER POLO TOURNAMENT

Long Beach and San Jose State were rated favorites in the State Water Polo Tournament, hosted by Coach Dick Anderson's Mustangs, this Friday and Saturday, Nov. 22 and 23.

On the basis of season performances, Long Beach and San Jose are rated heavy favorites. Anderson feels that Long Beach is a solid team of depth and talented personnel. The Mustangs have one of the top five goalies in the nation this year.

The locals fell to both SJIS and Long Beach, but the Mustang mentor says he feels his own team would "get lucky" and defeat either of the favorites. He sees a fight between the Green and Gold and San Francisco State for third place honors. Los Angeles State is not expected to be a factor in the locals.

Coach Dunn underestimates Friday night at 7 o'clock with games to be played.

In another tournament, a 57-41 rout.

It was definitely a "must-win" next Friday night at Poly's Big Green ruled its sixth straight Big Bay AAU Gym semi-final at the Olympic Club, Francisco's Southern Pacific AAU meet recently, in an out-of-season place in the event up in the Bay Area. A freshman, missed the scoring column and third place, but scored 4½ points in tumbling competition. Poly's gymnastic season starts next March.
