by Martin Rikle

Graduate Manager Bob Bostrum was given a vote of confidence by Student Affairs Council Tuesday night after the group heard Jim Troxel give the final report to the Air Travel Company Investigation Committee.

Troxel told the council “The information which this committee has gathered on the company is that travel has been as economical as possible. No changes were recommended that the company have made; the recommendations presented in their report are not the final report.”

A speaking for the council, ASB president Chuck Cunningham told the students at the meeting that the beginning of the investigation and the findings of the committee feels are indeed sorry this situation has developed and that the council feels they want to thank you for your infor-

Collegians Continue Search For Elusive 'Vimple Fingers'

by Larry Little

For more than twenty years, Cal Poly's Collegians have provided music for a thousand and one dances and student activities. This year will be no exception—if they can locate a piano player—and search is on! Already, four aspirants have shown up for the Monday and Wednesday placement tests. As was explained in an earlier issue, a piano player is needed immediately to replace former Dean Don Wilkin, who is Air Force bound.

Only three individual contestants have shown up for the Monday and Wednesday placement tests. Most of the boys in the student body, If they can locate a piano player, will interview for the job, as it was explained in the Collegian in April. By the end of the month, the pianist needed will be in place. In the meantime, music will be provided for a thousand and one dances and student activities. This year will be no exception.

TO SAY THE LEAST

By Allen Pryor

FROM MY HEART... This isn't much, but it is "To Say The Least".

FROM MY MIND... A note which claims two striking pages were used in the advertisement department hours sometime last week. Now that January is here, those girls are actually "in the groove" with the "hallowed marble bars" upsets. A little slip in the "hallowed marble bars" upset.

Ag Engineers Visit Southland Industries

Agricultural engineers recently visited the southern California area to acquaint students with various phases of engineering related to agriculture.

From Coach Tom Leary

Here are a few suggestions for the use of time made by you in the November 21 issue.

1. Prepare for the class by reading the assignments. Write up some real questions about the general content. Raise these questions and press the man for answers. These instructors have been known to answer the "I don't know" question of a class in this fashion.

2. When slipping fingersmacker in a lecture class, give the individual"marble bars" so that they provide a long-term discipline. Girls can be effective if they bring class and every little bit to play, too.

3. Bring drawing boards and other drafting equipment to lecture time. Draft at all expense. Work while everyone else is playing. That's why you don't hold a fellow make a plan. The book of notes is more valuable than any other source.

4. Get a copy of the Mustang, same in the same place, and abuse yourself and those around you for indicating the clever side and articles with appropriate comments.

5. If all else fails, prepare a list of sometimes dealt with by the instructor several meetings back and put these to him at different times during several consecutive class meetings. This has considerable harmonizing value.

Fortunel At TCU

Year fortunes in fake money were won and lost at the gambling tables, comic nonsense otwork was given as a door prize, and a copy of 400 whipped and initialed at "Las Vegas Night" yesterday.

The "door show" was complete with a colorful can-can chorus and time novelties, vocal selections, and a drawing of lucky numbers. Even a justice of the peace was available. Offered business was Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilkinson.

Members of the College Union Social Committee responsible for this gala evening were Ed Emblick, chairman and treasurer; Dale Crossay, Norm Hambly, Junior Croxton, and Mrs. Joan Kristkun, advisor.
