Meet The Press Today At Noon

Today at noon in El Corral will be a special program called "Meet The Press" being sponsored by SAC and the El Corral. This program is similar to the popular television show and will feature members of the El MUSTANG news staff. The program is broadcast on radio KWOC and is a part of the ABC network.

The program plans to be heated and exciting, with candidates being asked questions concerning their platforms. All members of the student body are urged to attend.

SAC Report

Defacing Campaign Material Forbidden

George Marro, Election Committee chairman, asked Student Affairs Council to recommend that students be prohibited from defacing campaign material. It is the purpose of the defacing to give the impression that the candidate is not to be trusted.

Candidates seeking SAC office will attend a workshop at 6:00 p.m. Monday in the Air Conditioning Auditorium. This is an opportunity for all the student body to ask questions of the candidates and we hope they will be a large attendance. Marro said.

SAC adopted a recommendation from Finance Committee to charge admission fee of $1.50 and five cents for the El Corral. This is an effort to raise money for future activities.

A sell-out of $2,000 was put on the amount of the profit and the amount of the profit will be used for the purchase of equipment that students can receive by SAC.

H. El MUSTANG representatives gave a detailed report on their progress on the program and the amount of medical expense for the college registration.

No Recognition To Discriminant Group

Recognition has been denied by the Chico Board of Education to the chapter at a state college of "Abolish Bondage Bondage," the state's only student group devoted to the fight against race, religion or national origin.

The decision was made by the faculty after a full investigation and consultation among the members of the group.

The group has been advised by state college officials that it will be dissolved unless it changes its name to something more meaningful.
