Irvin selected for leadership program
Glenn Irvin, associate vice president for academic affairs, has been selected by the Institute for Educational Inquiry to participate in the second year of a three-year educational leadership training program.
Irvin is one of 18 educators nationwide chosen for their accomplishments and promise. During the year, Irvin and the other associates will attend four seminars that address schooling and education within a moral, political, and ecological context.

The Seattle-based Institute for Educational Inquiry is affiliated with the University of Washington's Center for Educational Renewal.
Irvin, who came to Cal Poly in 1986, earned bachelor’s, master’s and doctoral degrees from Arizona State University.

The sound of sirens to play Aug. 21
Public Safety Services wants the campus community to know that San Luis Obispo County will hold a test of its early warning system at noon and again at about 12:30 pm on Saturday, Aug. 21.

Solicitation of vacation, sick leave
Employees are asked to donate sick leave or vacation credits on behalf of Jennifer Cox, a dispatcher in Public Safety Services.
Because of a serious illness, Cox will have to take at least six weeks off from work.
Donations of either sick leave or vacation credits will help her remain in pay status during her absence. Anyone interested in donating credit should contact Helen Willis in Human Resources, ext. 6471, for the Catastrophic Leave Donation Form.
Eligible state employees may donate up to 16 hours total of sick leave and vacation credit per fiscal year in increments of one hour or more.

Adopt-A-Kitten ends Friday
The Cal Poly Campus Cats group is holding its first kitten adoption project this week.
Kittens of all colors up to a year old are available for $12 at 5:15 pm today and Friday at the “Cat Shed,” behind the Vet Clinic on Mount Bishop Road, off Highland Drive. Vaccinations for the first year and a certificate for a discount on neutering or spaying are included in the adoption fee.
The Campus Cats group is asking for donations of food, litter and vaccines. For more information, call Sheri Jacobsen at ext. 5931.

Typesetting services available on campus
Typesetting and paste-up of campus publications are available through the Communications Dept.
There is a $10 minimum on small orders such as letterhead and invitations. The cost is $20 per page for 8½” x 11” flyers, $40-$50 for basic three-fold brochures, and $40 for 11” x 17” posters.
These prices (except for the $10 minimum) are for projects submitted on a computer disk. If keyboarding is involved, a labor cost of $20 per hour will be added.
For more information, call Betty Holland, ext. 1511.

Kellogg fellowship awarded to Flores
Robert Flores of the Agricultural Education Department is one of 50 individuals chosen by the Kellogg Foundation to receive its 1993 National Fellowship Award and pursue the theme of “Taking the Lead in Transforming Society.”
Flores will receive a three-year $35,000 grant plus money for 1/4 release time to follow a study plan he designed himself.
The program involves individuals from a broad range of professions in a variety of activities designed to increase the nation’s pool of capable leaders by increasing the recipients’ insights into areas outside their chosen disciplines.
Flores was chosen for the honor from more than 800 applicants. He teaches graduate and undergraduate courses in agricultural education and serves as director of the Minority Agriculture Program for the College of Agriculture.
Flores earned bachelor’s and master’s degrees from Cal Poly and a doctorate from Texas A&M. He has taught at Cal Poly since 1983.

Summer CPR schedule
The two remaining issues of the summer Cal Poly Report will be published Aug. 19 and Sept. 2. There will be no issue during quarter break.
The first issue of Fall Quarter will be Monday, Sept. 13, with another on Thursday, Sept. 16.
Send typewritten, double-spaced copy to Jo Ann Lloyd, Heron Hall, by NOON a week before you’d like it to appear. Items can be faxed to ext. 6533. Articles submitted will be edited for clarity, brevity, and journalistic style.
