Holiday Gift Drive still needs sponsors

Cal Poly's Holiday Gift Drive still needs groups that can sponsor San Luis Obispo homeless children or children from families with very low income to help make their holiday season brighter.

Potential sponsors are given information about several children plus the kids' personalized "wish lists" to help groups determine which children to "adopt."

Any group interested in participating should stop by the Community Service Center, UU 217, or call Sam Lutrin at ext. 5839, as soon as possible.

Student Affairs sets holiday wassail

Student Affairs invites the campus community to join in the traditional holiday wassail at its open house from 2 to 4 pm today (Dec. 9), in Adm. 209.

Parking no longer free during breaks

Remember that weekday parking on campus is now by paid permit or meter year-round, including academic breaks. The only exceptions are "campus closed" holidays, which will be Dec. 23, 24, 30 and 31 during the coming quarter break.

The requirement will be in effect Monday through Friday, 7 am to 5 pm, through the break. Annual parking permits are valid, as well as quarterly permits for either the previous or upcoming quarter — Fall '93 or Winter '94.

Special ed plan on view at library

A plan to help ensure that Californians with disabilities and their families get an education will be on review at the Kennedy Library until Jan. 7.

Parents, guardians and anyone else interested can review the California State Plan for Special Education in the library's Learning Resources Center. The plan will be submitted to the U.S. Secretary of Education as one step in the process to participate in the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

The plan describes how California will provide a "free, appropriate, public education" to disabled individuals to age 22, as well as their families. Forms are available for comments.

For more information, call ext. 2273.

Campus steam plant to close for holiday

The campus steam plant will be shut down for maintenance from 4 pm, Wednesday, Dec. 22, until 4 pm, Sunday, Dec. 26. During this time there will be no building heat or hot water. For more information call Bob Pahlow or Ed Naretto at ext. 2321.

How to add holidays to your e-calendar

You can now add all university holidays for 1994 to your personal OfficeVision calendar. Just follow these simple steps:

1. Press PF1 (Process calendars).
2. Press PF10 (View calendar main menu number 2).
3. Press TAB. Type "01/01/94" over the current date.
4. Press PF3 (Add all company holidays to the calendar starting from 01/01/94 to the end of that year).
5. Press PF12 (Return).

If you add the holidays, OfficeVision will alert you if you later try to schedule a meeting on a holiday.

Please note that only university holidays are added to your calendar this way. If you want to put academic holidays on your calendar, you'll need to add them manually using the OfficeVision Process Calendar functions. If you need assistance, call the End User Support Help Desk at ext. 5506.

Burton named interim director

Ken Burton, director of computing services, will assume the additional role of interim director of administrative computer systems until a permanent director is hired. Burton succeeds Jeff Williams.

Joanne Temple, formerly in charge of the business computer systems group, will now also coordinate the student systems group. Holly Sletteland will continue to head End User Support.

In addition, Administrative Systems has established a "new technologies" group to evaluate and test information technology tools and assist other groups.
Jan. 6-7 auditions set for winter play

Auditions for “Brighton Beach Memoirs,” the Theatre and Dance Department’s winter quarter production, will be held Thursday and Friday, Jan. 6-7, from 7 to 11 pm in Room 212 of the Davidson Music Building.

Three performances of the Neil Simon play will be staged in the Theatre Feb. 24-26. Voted Best Play of the Season in 1983 by the New York Drama Critics Circle, the comic drama revolves around a 15-year-old boy growing up in Brooklyn. The original production featured the Broadway debut of Matthew Broderick playing Simon as a teenager and aspiring writer in 1937.

Anyone interested is welcome to audition and will be asked to read from the script. Although no advance preparation is necessary, copies of the script are available for limited check-out in the Kennedy Library.

In addition to the role of 15-year-old Eugene Jerome, there are parts for other family members.

Theatre and dance professor Michael Malkin will direct “Brighton Beach Memoirs.” For more information, call the department office at ext. 1465.

Position Vacancies

Vacant staff positions at Cal Poly and the Cal Poly Foundation are announced in this column and are posted outside the respective offices. Contact those offices (State: Adm. 110, ext. 2236 — Foundation Administration Building, ext. 1121) for applications and additional position details. Both Cal Poly and the Foundation are subject to all laws governing affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply. Applications must be received by 5 pm or postmarked by the closing date.

Who, What, Where, When

Hernan Castellano-Giron, Foreign Languages and Literatures, was awarded first prize in the International Literary Contest established by the Chilean “Lautaro” Cultural Centre in San Francisco, for his short story “La destruccion de una peluqueria.”

Three City and Regional Planning faculty members have been elected to various professional posts: Linda Dalton and Paul Wack, to the Board of Directors of the California Planning Foundation, an arm of the American Planning Association; Paul Crawford, to the California Planning Roundtable, a group of planning professionals who address statewide planning issues; and Dalton as chair of the national Planning Accreditation Board, which reviews all professional undergraduate and master’s degree programs in the United States. Dalton and Michael Smith-Heimer delivered a paper, “Plan Quality, Implementation and Achievement — Alternative Interpretations of State Mandates,” at a recent meeting of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning, in Philadelphia.

David Dubbink, won the “Innovative Use of Technology” award from the American Planning Association for his Interactive Sound Information System, which simulates a variety of noise environments.

An article by Gloria Velasquez, Foreign Languages and Literatures, “Soldadera as Self,” will be published in the anthology of the Proceedings of the IV International Conference on the Hispanic Cultures of the U.S., held in Germany.
