Mock Disaster on Campus
Will Stress Real Situations

Disaster strikes Cal Poly. Perhaps a building explodes, a bus crashes, fire goes out of control. Could you help? Would you?

At 11 a.m. Thursday a mock disaster will hit the campus for Cal Poly's first exercise in facing just this type of situation.

More than 400 mock patients will be treated for shock, burns, cuts, and other injuries at the football stadium.

The training program will include the shoe-plant, Red Cross Society, R.L.O.C., and Red Cross Medical officers, around realism to the rescue of the situation. Throughout the day, all patients will be cared for at the school's treatment area. Passengers and students observing may be asked to help medical officials.

Wounds will be authentic looking and simulated but painless, realistic make-up in the patients.

Although about 100 persons will participate officially, Dr. Lornett explained that anyone might be needed to help as an actual aid.

"The exercise will be good training and good experience for everyone on campus," said Dr. Lornett.

SAC Eyes Long Talks

Student Affairs Council members anticipate another long session beginning today, as they have another "groundswell" of interest in the SAC's reorganization plan. The next meeting of the plan will be discussed.

1. Election of Intercollegiate Council chairman.
2. Resolution of Residence Hall council chairman.
3. Election of representatives.

Addcart recommendations of the committee include a foreign student council, an off-campus breathing group council, SAC representatives on the Executive Council, and committees for consideration of study and two- and three-branch system for the university.

During the four and one-half hour session, SAC covered three out of 20 recommendations, including Addart Transportation election, formation of a Board of Library Trustees, and temporary recognition upon which a club was granted.

A.M. President Lee Forrest will give the keynote address on the "Why College?" theme on Wednesday evening in the auditorium. The student government will be recognized as an official campus organization.

On May 4 Forrest told SAC, "It was my fault that the university did not go on May 4 (that the refund of the Student Union fee) was required by the state. Is the California Polytechnic Student Union, Inc. apparently was made on May 4, 1962. If the students of University with unaccustomed activity, the club might be recognized as an official campus organization.

Senior Class Representative Joe Salas said that SAC should organize a committee to assist in the planning of the Spring Sing. At the Spring Sing a ticket may be provided to any club for the opening night of the Spring Sing Friday night. For a review of the program turn to page 6.

CSEA Elects New Officers For 62-63

The California State Employees Association (CSEA) recently elected new officers and chose another member of the Association's Legislative Committee as president of the Animal Husbandry Department as vice president. Paul Korken of the Business Division was elected as the new Secretary, and Mary Lee Green of the Associated Student Body was elected as the new Regional Director. Both were elected to the position of the Agricultural Council for President of the California State Employees Association for the 1962-1963 term. FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Compliments Today

This is to be something different.
While we may raise a little rain with those students who would rather see editors in the student newspaper only when something is to be criticized, we have decided to do so complimentary today.

After hearing the Music Department's Home Concert recording, we wonder if the student body realizes how fortunate it is in having such talent as the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs and the Collegians so readily available. The Collegians, for instance, are probably one of the best college dance bands in the country. Their music compares very favorably with that of many of the nation's leading dance bands.

The above organizations are a tribute to themselves, to Cal Poly and to Harold F. Davidson, Music Department chairman, who organized these groups and taught them the music he loves so well.

Others deserve complimenting too. SAC, for instance, for taking up the AAB Reorganization Committee's plan for a revised student government and giving it a complete hearing, even though discussion sometimes ran in circles.

We also thank the Grounds Department for finishing the landscaping of the Graphic Arts Building. It looks as though we're in here to stay now. Incidentally, the Grounds workers do a great job everywhere on the campus which is a showcase for visitors.

Lastly, we hope you remember to read this before you did deserve a word. These are the students who do the production work on El Mustang. Printing is a big job, and as far as we are concerned, the Printing Engineering and Management Department handles it well.

Was this wasted space? We don't think so. —J-Mc.

INTEGRITY MORE THAN A CATCHWORD

It's a way of doing business and a way we enjoy. It has helped us to grow and prosper. It's like the way we do business and tell us, as not just in words but in their conduct, to retain their patronage. They entrust to us the task of selecting the merchandise, their selection of diamonds. We appreciate that and we strive always to continue to merit that confidence, every possible way.

Musti Award In New Home; Trinity Tops Spring Sing

By MITCH HIDER, Staff Writer

A colorful and fast-moving, Broadway-styled song and dance medley by 43 Trinity Hall coeds brought down the house and brought home the Musti Trophy at Cal Poly's 1962 Spring Sing, Friday in the Men's Gym.

Entries in the singing this year involved nine clubs and dormitories and nearly 800 participants. An audience of about 600 watched division awards go to Trinity, second; Poly, third; Poly's University Fellowship, fourth; Hillside, fifth; and Trinity's production, sixth.

Among the former Musti winners playing this year are Ted Tolman, Chip Director, Roger Kean, Bob O'Connor and Fred Brown of the 1961 team. Team Woods represents the 1960 team. Buster Clapper, a 1960 team, is still around.

Bob Buxhard, Claude Turner, Willy Hudson, Bob Max, John Allen and John Maddox from Poly's CCAA championship team of 1961 and 1962 will also appear.

The program began, master-of-ceremonies Paul Jacob introduced each entry which responded with a snappy refrain from backstage. Reque to Hall began the competition with a quaintly trimmed "Kentucky Babe" and "An Original, "Break Down That Iron Curtain" and "Dandy." The audience gave the group a standing ovation.

After introduction, Trinity Hall presented with a high-stepping "Hey, Mr. McLean," "Anything You Do Can Do," "You Can Catch a Man With A Gun," "My Mother's House," "We Wish You A Merry Christmas," "Ev'rybody Knows," "I Can Do," and "We Enjoy Just Being Girls." The Hillside Club members international Opening evening featuring "Vivacious," "Vh Mbaa," "Harvard Ring," "Gone Down Moses," and "Vh Atlas."
