Mustangs Host S.F. Valley State

When the Cal Poly Mustangs take the field against the Mountain West Aggregate working team Saturday night in Poly Stadium, the presence in the lineup of a hometown halfback just might be the spark needed for the "green machine" to pull home a win. In last week's game against San Diego State, little foot-four-inch halfback, 170 pound jim Ramos, gave a demonstration of fine running skill. He led the Mustangs on the ground, rushing for 65 yards on 11 carries and gained 47 yards in seven receptions. When Ramos passed the ball, he did so with speed and accuracy.

Vision tonight, well, I was at the Mustangs, said Lindsay Dan with confidence. The young mentor, a Cal Poly colt junior varsity head coach, will work to take the squad to a 1-4 record as their lone win.

The Cal Poly Mustangs have a new coach, Vic Hitchcock. Hitchcock gained his first coaching job along with wrestling coach, Jim Ruccoln.

"The Mustangs are a very fine organization," Hitchcock said. "They are a bunch of very good kids and they work very hard. This year, we have a very good opportunity to do some fine things."

Hitchcock's Mustangs will face a challenge in their first game at their alma mater. The Colts have a new coach, Vic Hitchcock. Hitchcock compiled a 16-7-1 record while his team was at the University of Southern California. Hitchcock was also the head football coach at North Carolina State University.

The Mustangs will be looking for their sixth win of the season. The Mustangs' record in the past three years has been 1-3, 0-3, and 2-3, respectively. Hitchcock said that the Mustangs have a "great team spirit," and that the team is "a tough, hard-working bunch of kids." He also said that the Mustangs have "a lot of potential."
