The Aggie Teams placed high at the Pacific Inter-collegiate Agricultural Exposition held recently in Portland, Ore. This is rather strange, considering that the team has been off for more than a week and is not as well rested as the other teams. The team is expected to place high at the national competition.

Homecoming Is Huge Success

Harvest Weekend Reaps Bumper Crop Of Fun

It was another big weekend at Cal Poly. "Fall Harvest" turned out to be a bumper crop. That is just one way of saying that Homecoming '62 was judged by almost all participants to be a huge success. From the heart-felt cheers of hands up and fraternities working overtime to the "Holy Cow!" of a little boy who was also busily engaged in the dancing, in the activities, in the individual and group performances, the weekend was a huge success.
