PRESIDENT KENNEDY DEAD

President John F. Kennedy was mortally wounded in Dallas, Tex., Friday, as he was riding in a motorcade on his way to a Democratic rally. The President was taken to Parkland Memorial Hospital in Dallas, where he was pronounced dead at 1:00 p.m. EST.

It was also reported that a secret service man was killed in the shooting incident, but this has not been confirmed.

President John F. Kennedy was the first president of the United States to be assassinated while in office. He was succeeded by Lyndon B. Johnson.

President John F. Kennedy was born in Brookline, Mass., on May 29, 1917. He served as a member of the United States Senate from 1947 to 1953. He was nominated for the presidency in 1960 by the Democratic Party and won the election.

He attended Harvard Law School and graduated in 1940. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II and was discharged in 1946. He was married to Jacqueline Kennedy.

President John F. Kennedy was succeeded by Lyndon B. Johnson, who served as president from 1963 to 1969.
