SPECIAL OFFER TO CALL POLY FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS

LET'S DINE OUT

Here's How It Works:

Your $5.00 provides you with a membership to Dine-Out. You pay for one dinner only and the second dinner is absolutely free. "Compliments of The Dining Club." Rather than having to eat a specified dinner, the participant has a choice of any restaurant participating in the program with up to 70% off their normal price. On your membership card you will find the restaurants that are participating. The restaurants participate by offering a course that will provide a meal worth $6.00 for $5.00, which includes tax and tips. Consult the Directory of restaurants for names and phone numbers. You may add more than one dinner to your membership card by purchasing additional punch cards for $5.00 each. The punch card is good for one dinner only, and must be surrendered at the time of your record selection. This promotion is open to faculty, staff and students of the Polytechnic campus. A representative from each of the 18 present colleges will be here to participate in the program with information about their particular dining needs and Cal Poly is the official host. This is the first time Cal Poly has taken the initiative to cover a course. If the information isn't in the book or the lecture, it's sure to be in the menu." Barry Cohen

Honor Society Names New Members: Scholarship, Leadership Required

The Cal Poly Honor Society named the following students as new members during the last week of January. They were selected based on their performance in the classroom, participation in campus life, and leadership abilities. The new members are:

- Edward W. Bradshaw Jr., Ormiston College, from Walnut Creek, engineering student.
- William F. Russell, chairman of the board of Trustees, from San Luis Obispo, business administration student.
- Mary Parkin, Home Economics, student teacher at San Luis Obispo High School.
- Mary Frey, Home Economics, student teacher at Arroyo Grande High School.
- Mary Ann Calliott, Elementary Education, student teacher at Los Osos Elementary School.
- Donald Schlaich, Industrial Arts, student teacher at Arroyo Grande High School.
- Carol Freeman, Henry Hemborg.

The procedure used to select members is:

1. An IBM machine selects 10 students from each of the major schools and one from each of the colleges.
2. The 100 students so selected are then placed in a hat and drawn at random.
3. Approximately 12 hours before the drawing takes place, the names are removed and the draw is made.
4. The procedure is to be repeated during the present quarter.

When Fred Schoppe was asked what prompted him to build the image of President John F. Kennedy, he explained, "I have a great affection for this man."

The only totem pole we ever bought

Strange purchase? You'd be surprised at all that Standard buys...and where!

The totem pole, carved by Chilkat Indians for our Mutual of Alaska Mutual—Alaska's first refinery—depicts the story of oil in the 49th State.

While it's one of the most unusual purchases we ever made, it illustrates a Standard Oil Company of California policy: To support local businesses and communities with local purchases.

The Chilkat clan was one of the more than 18,000 suppliers who filled our exploration, producing, manufacturing, transportation, research and our marketing requirements last year.

Our annual shopping list is more than 50,000 items long, and it helps many a small, local business to prosper.

Yes, even the money Standard pays for this space in your newspaper is another example of local spending. By helping dollars into your community, it helps you.

Hourly was stretched in growth and as a result, let the Mustangs pour in more points from the free-throw line. Stanford College made 24 of 35 in a row and was ahead by 14 points, 6 to 2.

Saturday night the table was turned on the tang and the Mustangs found themselves in a double figure lead. At the end of the first half the Mustangs had a 50-39 lead. Gymnastic Squad Looks Impressive

Rick O'Bannon repeated his 15 points. Basil, a resident of Bangor, Maine, loved to go home each weekend to spend time with his faithful dog, Kxit. What joy, what wreathed smiles, when Basil and Kxit returned to California to understand his dilemma. One more try, one more chance; the man of the hour...the man of the hour...
