High GPA Traditional
2.5 At Crops House

Twelve young men with a clear idea of what they want out of life, and the means to reach their goals, is a point made while acquiring the skills to lead them to where they want to go.

These students have several things in common. They are all students in the Crops Department, and they absolutely love what they do.

Their common dwelling is the Crops House, a campus and Dorm Hall, that stems in America throughout the year.

The students are divided into four groups, each group having their own kitchen and four rooms in the house. This setup enables each group to have their own space and freedom.

The 12 students who live at the Crops House were selected by Dr.
Clemens, head of the Crops Department, and Arnold Beckstrom, assistant in the department. In addition to offering a unique living environment, the Crops House also provides an opportunity for the students to work as a team.

High GPA students in the Crops Department are expected to maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0.
