Blood Donors Sign In Registration Line

Blood drive information will be available today during registration in the Black Gym.

At Men's Gym Tomorrow

At Men's Gym Tomorrow, The Health Center will be the venue for the blood drive. Students may sign up at the Health Center or in the Student Union.

The Health Center will be the site for the blood drive. Students may sign up at the Health Center or in the Student Union.

Parking Meters Hit By Night Vandal

Fifteen campus parking meters were blacked out by an unknown person or persons. The vandalism appears to be a prank, as the meters were not damaged beyond the black paint.

Smothers Brothers Perform At Men's Gym Tomorrow

The Smothers Brothers, who are both married, will be performing tomorrow at Men's Gym. The performance will begin at 8:00 PM and tickets are available for purchase at the box office.

Smother's Brothers' Contract Signed

The Smothers Brothers have signed a contract to perform at Men's Gym on March 26. The performance will begin at 8:00 PM and tickets are available for purchase.

Grades Out at Gym Before April Fool's

The grades for Winter Quarter will be distributed on April 1. Students are encouraged to come to the gym to receive their grades before April Fool's Day.

Surf

Winter Quarter grade sheets are available. Students should be aware that the grades for Winter Quarter will be distributed on April 1. Students are encouraged to come to the gym to receive their grades before April Fool's Day.
Jordan River Dispute

The United Nations Dispute Committee has been meeting with the Jordan River between the Jordanian and Israeli territories for several months. This student, Vor Van Binh from Vietnam, has enriched our lives just by developing the country peacefully. Israel's government to be meted out to my two offspring. He took the Johnston Plan, and not a drop more, to be used for the Jordan River between the countries in that area. This plan was approved by the governing councils of both the Arab countries and Israel, but has been rejected by the Jordanian government. Vor Van Binh, although he officially at war with Israel, is independent of the United Nations and the Arab countries. This is true, but it was not mentioned that Jordan is also taking steps to increase their buying from our country according to the agreement. This is a good time to stop the Jordanian and Israeli conflict, and we need to fight so that Israel's interests are taken into consideration.

Sincerely Appreciate:
The Ag. Business Club wishes to express sincere appreciation for student support in starting our exhibit at the 6th annual Poly Royal.

Car Problem

When the dust flies, rear ends get dirty. A car can be washed and looked over, and it can still get dirty after three or five days. It's impossible to keep a car presentable. The women who work in the offices, wash the cars as they go. Often, "Frank" will wonder why and exhibit his "human nature." He's the last. I feel it's very disgusting and indecent of these young people to handle cars and drive them without caring for them. When we clean a car, we take pride in it. People who work at a car business take care of it when they are done. It's a matter of respect for the car, and it should be respected.

Silly Satire

The brothers were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge. They were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge. They were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge. They were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge. They were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge.

The brothers were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge. They were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge. They were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge. They were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge. They were introduced as a group of artists for the Saturday night problem at the Sigma Nu lodge.

GI Loans Still Available for Veterans

Many World War II and Korean War veterans are eligible for GI loans. The VA has extended the deadline for applications for GI loans, which will be accepted by the VA until November 1. In addition, the VA has extended the deadline for applications for GI loans, which will be accepted by the VA until November 1. In addition, the VA has extended the deadline for applications for GI loans, which will be accepted by the VA until November 1. In addition, the VA has extended the deadline for applications for GI loans, which will be accepted by the VA until November 1. In addition, the VA has extended the deadline for applications for GI loans, which will be accepted by the VA until November 1.
Tent-Shaped Shell Nearly Complete; Architectural Senior Project

A tent-shaped concrete shell is nearing completion in Poly Campus. The shell and garage are being constructed, while the shell is the latest in structural design of the shell and garage method of building. In being constructed as a senior project by six students in the Architectural Engineering Department, Ronald Heald, one of the students involved in the project, explained that the concept and planning of the shell has been underway for about a year while the actual construction began last September by Paul Quarr. The structure will be erected in time for Poly April Rew. The structure will be completed in time for Poly April Rew.

The preliminary post-construction shell was actually constructed as a model to prove the validity of the shell, and to determine the feasibility of the method of building. The students involved in the project are: John Danbo, Bruce Sparling, John Heald and Bob Cook. The project is being supervised by Assistant Professor of Architectural Engineering, Earl Lancaster.

The project has been underway for about a year while the actual construction began last September by Paul Quarr. The shell and garage are being constructed, while the shell is the latest in structural design of the shell and garage method of building. In being constructed as a senior project by six students in the Architectural Engineering Department, Ronald Heald, one of the students involved in the project, explained that the concept and planning of the shell has been underway for about a year while the actual construction began last September by Paul Quarr. The structure will be erected in time for Poly April Rew. The structure will be completed in time for Poly April Rew.

The preliminary post-construction shell was actually constructed as a model to prove the validity of the shell, and to determine the feasibility of the method of building. The students involved in the project are: John Danbo, Bruce Sparling, John Heald and Bob Cook. The project is being supervised by Assistant Professor of Architectural Engineering, Earl Lancaster.

Library Head Appointed

Dr. Patricia W. Adkins, Southern Methodist University, who has been appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the post of dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at California State College at Long Beach, has been named to the position, according to President John R. Steinmetz, the university president. The appointment will be effective July 1, 1964, and the president said that Adkins will fill the vacancy left by Patricia Adkins, who resigned last year to become a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

Dr. Steinmetz said that Adkins, a native of Colorado, was appointed to serve as a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, where she was a professor of English and served as director of the College of Arts and Sciences. She was appointed to the pos...
Two Leagues Proposed For Intramural Sports

There will be a meeting to launch the intramural program Monday, March 11 at 5 p.m. at the Tech Union. The meeting will be held to discuss the rules and procedures of volleyball, softball, baseball, and football. Intramural sports are open to all students and will be under the supervision of the Intramural Sports Committee.

Sickness-Plagued Swimming Team To Face L.A. State

The Men's Swim and Dive team is due to face the University of Southern California this week. The team is currently ranked 9th in the state and 24th in the nation. The meet is scheduled for Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Davis Pool.

Judo Club To Meet Wednesday Nights

The Judo Club will meet Wednesday nights at 6 p.m. in the Tech Union. The club is open to all students and will be under the supervision of the Intramural Sports Committee.

We like doing business with Murray Black

And he likes Standard's policy of supporting local business

If you have an oil well not in the ocean, as Standard does, you'd deal with Murray Black. He helps his clients, and also services, underwrite oil leases.

Tuberculosis is airstage and other health problems are a concern to Murray, but he's not a middleman. He's an independent contractor, with many other deals under his belt, and thousands of dollars of oil money tied up in interest.

He started specifically to serve Standard's offshore drilling operations near Santa Barbara, and, from an early age, has become one of the busiest submariene contractors on the West Coast.

Record-Setting Mustang Thincloths To Meet Powerful OUP Tigers

By ALAN MARSDEN

Powerful University of Pacific Tigers will try to upset the potent Mustang track team this Saturday.

The Tigers from UOP have more experience than the Mustangs, but the Mustangs have the advantage of being in their home territory. The Mustangs have the advantage of being in their home territory. The Mustangs will be led by coach William Hicks, who has been with the team for three years. The Tigers will be led by coach Bill Williams, who has been with the team for one year.

The Mustangs have a record of 1 and 8, and will be trying to improve on this record this season. The Tigers have a record of 2 and 7, and will be trying to improve on this record as well.

The Mustangs have a record of 1 and 8, and will be trying to improve on this record this season. The Tigers have a record of 2 and 7, and will be trying to improve on this record as well.