Campaign' Protest Clouds Election

By CHRISTINE HOFF

The race for Associated Student Body president was held yesterday, and the outcome was to be decided by a vote of the ASB General Body. The result was announced later in the afternoon.

The contest between the two candidates, Phil Almond and Bob Austin, was hotly contested, with Almond leading by 10 votes. The race was decided by a vote of 51 to 41 in favor of Almond. The contest was a close one, with the two candidates running neck-and-neck throughout.

Almond, a senior, ran on a platform of student representation and the improvement of the student body. Austin, a junior, campaigned on the issue of campus safety and the abolition of the student council.

The election was held in the Student Union, and the voting was conducted by the ASB Election Committee. The results were announced at the end of the day.

Grad Applications

Doe Asian

Due April 17

To: All Students

Graduation applications will be accepted at the Asian Pacific Cultural Center, located in the Asian Pacific Cultural Building, until April 17. Students who have not yet applied for graduation are urged to do so immediately.

The application fee is $10, and students are required to provide a copy of their transcript and a completed application form.

Graduation applications should be submitted to the Asian Pacific Cultural Center, located in the Asian Pacific Cultural Building, and should be accompanied by a $10 fee.

The deadline for submission of applications is April 17.

WOW Counselors

Standing Room Only

Due May 1

This is a standing room only announcement for WOW (Women of the World) counselors. The WOW program is a domestic violence awareness program and will be held on May 1.

The program is open to all students, and interested parties are encouraged to attend.

World Affairs Speaker Predicts War If Arms Race Continues

By DAVE KITSHAWA

The world is on the brink of war, according to an expert on the subject of world affairs. "The world is facing a dangerous situation," he said. "If we don't take action now, we will face a war of unprecedented规模 in the world today.

The speaker, who has been a student at Cal Poly for three years, is an expert on world affairs and has traveled extensively in the region.

The speaker cited the recent increase in nuclear arms as a cause for concern. "The increase in nuclear arms is a clear indication that war is imminent," he said. "If we don't act now, we will face a war of unprecedented scale in the world today.

The speaker also criticized the United States for its role in the arms race. "The United States is a major player in the arms race," he said. "We must stop this arms race before it is too late.

The speaker concluded his speech by calling for action. "We must take action now to prevent war," he said. "We must work together to ensure world peace.

The lecture was attended by a large audience of students, faculty, and staff.

Victory Smells Sweet For Flower Judgers

By DIAN SCHULTE

The student government's Flower Judging team enjoyed a successful outing yesterday. The team was led by Coach Mike Fenton.

The team consisted of the following members: Mike Fenton, Coach; Rob Houghton, Captain; and Bill Holley, and Paul Holley.

The team won first place in the competition, and will advance to the state competition. The team is expected to win the state competition and make it to the national competition.

The team worked hard throughout the day, and their dedication paid off. The team's success was due in large part to the hard work of the team members.

The team's victory was a result of hard work and dedication. The team members worked tirelessly throughout the day, and their efforts were rewarded with a well-deserved victory.

The team is expected to continue their success in the upcoming competitions. The team is looking forward to the challenges that lie ahead.

Postage Stamp Required

On Poly Royal Brochures

Due May 1

To: All Students

Please note that postage stamps are required on all Poly Royal brochures. This is due to the policy of the United States Postal Service.

The brochures will be mailed to all students who have not yet completed the required application process.

The application process is simple and can be completed online. Students who have not yet completed the process are encouraged to do so immediately.

The deadline for submission of applications is May 1.

El Mustang

April 14, 1964

Volume 36, No. 26

PAS LUI OBSVNS, CALIFORNIA

TUESDAY, APRIL 14, 1964

el mustang

CALIFORNIA STATE POLYTECHNIC COLLEGE

World Affairs Speaker Predicts War If Arms Race Continues

By DAVE KITSHAWA

The world is on the brink of war, according to an expert on the subject of world affairs. "The world is facing a dangerous situation," he said. "If we don't take action now, we will face a war of unprecedented scale in the world today.

The speaker, who has been a student at Cal Poly for three years, is an expert on world affairs and has traveled extensively in the region.

The speaker cited the recent increase in nuclear arms as a cause for concern. "The increase in nuclear arms is a clear indication that war is imminent," he said. "If we don't act now, we will face a war of unprecedented scale in the world today.

The speaker also criticized the United States for its role in the arms race. "The United States is a major player in the arms race," he said. "We must stop this arms race before it is too late.

The speaker concluded his speech by calling for action. "We must take action now to prevent war," he said. "We must work together to ensure world peace.

The lecture was attended by a large audience of students, faculty, and staff.

Victory Smells Sweet For Flower Judgers

By DIAN SCHULTE

The student government's Flower Judging team enjoyed a successful outing yesterday. The team was led by Coach Mike Fenton.

The team consisted of the following members: Mike Fenton, Coach; Rob Houghton, Captain; and Bill Holley, and Paul Holley.

The team won first place in the competition, and will advance to the state competition. The team is expected to win the state competition and make it to the national competition.

The team worked hard throughout the day, and their dedication paid off. The team's success was due in large part to the hard work of the team members.

The team's victory was a result of hard work and dedication. The team members worked tirelessly throughout the day, and their efforts were rewarded with a well-deserved victory.

The team is expected to continue their success in the upcoming competitions. The team is looking forward to the challenges that lie ahead.

Postage Stamp Required

On Poly Royal Brochures

Due May 1

To: All Students

Please note that postage stamps are required on all Poly Royal brochures. This is due to the policy of the United States Postal Service.

The brochures will be mailed to all students who have not yet completed the required application process.

The application process is simple and can be completed online. Students who have not yet completed the process are encouraged to do so immediately.

The deadline for submission of applications is May 1.
AH Major Has Outstanding Record
As Livestock Judge; He Can't Lose

By LAST CAIN

Ralph Loya, 20, can't lose!
If there is one person at Cal Poly who knows what it takes to win, the advanced veterinary student and junior Livestock judging team member Ralph Loya, a junior Animal Science major from Hanford, has known all along what it takes to win.

The 20-year-old student has "learned" out of competition. Loya has accumulated two impressive titles.

First off, "I only knew of one person," Loya said, "this year, who was ranked as the best Livestock judging team, "I was a top 5 team," Loya said. "I was ranked as a top 5 individual." In fact, Loya, along with teammates John Bogetti and Steve Rockey, have ranked as the top Livestock judging team in the country for the past two years.

As a sophomore, Loya became a member of the Brantford judging team. "It was my first year," Loya said. "I was ranked in the top 30 individuals." Loya explains that the team's main goal is to "do their best." "We have always been a top-notch team," Loya said.

In the past two years, Loya has been judged at the National and California State judging finals. Loya has been judged as the second highest infant in the country and in the national finals and Loya was judged as the highest infant in the country.

Loya is a better than average student and is a top student in his class. He is a member of the Brantford judging team and is ranked as the highest infant in the country.

"I remember the roatest well," Loya said. "It was my first year and I was ranked as the highest infant in the country." Loya explains that the team's main goal is to "do their best." "We have always been a top-notch team," Loya said.

In the past two years, Loya has been judged at the National and California State judging finals. Loya has been judged as the second highest infant in the country and in the national finals and Loya was judged as the highest infant in the country.

Loya is a better than average student and is a top student in his class. He is a member of the Brantford judging team and is ranked as the highest infant in the country.

"I remember the roatest well," Loya said. "It was my first year and I was ranked as the highest infant in the country." Loya explains that the team's main goal is to "do their best." "We have always been a top-notch team," Loya said.

Loya is a better than average student and is a top student in his class. He is a member of the Brantford judging team and is ranked as the highest infant in the country.
Freshman English Courses May Undergo Changes In Fall

The Freshman English courses are expected to be revised, according to Dr. Philip Garfield, chairman of the freshman Division. Information given is in the process of determination, and a final decision will be made later. According to Garfield, if the students are still unsatisfied with the English courses, they will be able to change their English courses. The purpose of the changes in freshman English is to improve the students' ability to communicate effectively in English in the future.

Annual Home Concert Will Be Held Friday

The annual home concert will be held Friday evening, according to Dr. George S. Wilson, vice president of the college. The concert will feature a variety of music, including classical, jazz, and contemporary pieces. The concert will be held in the college auditorium, and admission is free to the public.

Library Celebrates National Week; Adds 13,500 Books This Year

The library celebrates National Book Week this year, adding 13,500 books to its collection. The books cover a wide range of subjects, including history, science, and literature. The library has been working to expand its collection, and this year's additions reflect the library's commitment to providing a diverse range of resources for students and staff.

Make Your Own Shirts

The college library is offering a workshop on how to make your own shirts. The workshop will be held on Tuesday, April 18, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the library. Participation is free, and all materials will be provided. The workshop is open to all students and staff, and no prior experience is necessary.

The Colorful World of the Earsman's Gate

The colorful world of the Earsman's Gate is brought to life in this issue of the college newspaper. The Earsman's Gate is a student-run newspaper that provides a platform for students to express their opinions and share news from the college. This issue features articles on a range of topics, including campus events, academic news, and student life.

You don't have to write a thesis to be a master

You don't have to write a thesis to be a master. A master's degree can be achieved through a combination of coursework, research, and practical experience. A thesis is not always required, depending on the program and the school. The key is to engage in meaningful and challenging work that demonstrates your expertise in your field.

The Place To Go For Brands You Know

The Place To Go is the go-to destination for brand-name clothing and accessories. With a wide selection of brands, including ARROW, the Place To Go offers a variety of options for men and women. Whether you're looking for dress shirts, suits, or casual wear, you'll find what you need at The Place To Go.
Walker, Aceves Lead Spikers
Past Poly Broncos, 103 To 42

By ALAN HAMMICK

The Mustang track team staged an upset in the way of 103 points to 42 points to defeat the Past Poly Broncos. The score was the last in a series of California State at Long Beach. The Mustangs won 15 of 17 events Saturday to defeat the Broncos.

The winning run came in the eighth inning. Long Beach swept to a 12 to 4 win in the first of a twin bill Saturday. The Broncos won 13 of 17 events.

Dave Anderson was asked if his team was ready for the outdoor track season. Anderson said, "We've had two meets in a row and before. "But physically, "he said, 'we estamos in Silver City and we didn't have a chance to rest for awhile having hosted Fresno the day before."'Anderson was asked if his team was ready for the outdoor track season. Anderson said, "We've had two meets in a row and before. "But physically, "he said, 'we estamos in Silver City and we didn't have a chance to rest for awhile having hosted Fresno the day before."

The high jump went to Colorado Springs High School's (track) and the long jump was won by the Afghan in the 16 scales utilized on advanced model Pickett Slide Rules.

The Mustangs bolted thirteen runs in the first two innings of the game. The winning run came in the eighth inning. Long Beach swept to a 12 to 4 win in the first of a twin bill Saturday.

The winning run came in the eighth inning. Long Beach swept to a 12 to 4 win in the first of a twin bill Saturday. The Broncos won 13 of 17 events.

The Mustangs won 15 of 17 events Saturday to defeat the Broncos.

DEAD DUCK . . . Mustang third baseman Bob Phillips takes relay throw to first after hike in the first game on Saturday. "The way people are playing, we have to be ready for the outdoor track season. Anderson said, "We've had two meets in a row and before. "But physically, "he said, 'we estamos in Silver City and we didn't have a chance to rest for awhile having hosted Fresno the day before."

The winning run came in the eighth inning. Long Beach swept to a 12 to 4 win in the first of a twin bill Saturday. The Broncos won 13 of 17 events.

The Mustangs won 15 of 17 events Saturday to defeat the Broncos.