"With today being a beautiful day," said Ralph Terry, "I can't stand to miss much golf during the fall season. So I don't really go out that much during October. The weather's cool, and it's crucial for my job to maintain a balance between work and leisure activities."

"Two Blind Mice" To Play On Campus

"Two Blind Mice" by Bernard Shaw will be presented on Nov. 6, 7, 8 and 9 at 8 p.m. in the Little Theatre.

The play may be described as a "technical and social comedy and a "comedy of errors." Two sweethearts, a shy teacher, and a fussy business man run an abolished government of the United States. The action is set in the house of the teacher and the business man. The teacher is a well-meaning, inept woman with a reputation for getting into such difficulties as the woman in the play. She is the brains of the operation, and the business man is the heart, the flesh, and the blood.

The comedy will be staged by the Cal Poly Drama Club. Tickets may be purchased only at the door for $1.50 for Cal Poly students and $2.00 for the general public.

With each day, Bell System communications become more important to homes, businesses and defense.

The Long Beach State men's basketball team is far from serious about its two-game homestand against the Los Angeles State and Cal State Fullerton teams.

The team, which will start a two-game road trip against Los Angeles State on Thursday and Cal State Fullerton on Saturday, has already announced that it will use tomorrow's game against Los Angeles State as a preseason tune-up for its two games with the 49ers.

The game against Los Angeles State will be at 7 p.m. tomorrow night in Veterans Memorial Gymnasium.

The 49ers, who are contenders for the league title, will be playing their first home game of the season.

The Mustangs, who are in third place in the league, will be playing their first road game of the season.

The Mustangs have already beaten the 49ers in the only previous meeting of the two teams.

The Mustangs have lost five of their six games and are looking for their first league win of the season.

The 49ers, who are in trouble of their own, will be looking to rebound from a loss to the University of California, Los Angeles, last week.

The game against the 49ers will be at 4 p.m.
Saturday in Veterans Memorial Gymnasium.

The 49ers, who are
in second place in the league,
