Library closure

As in years past, the Kennedy Library will be closed between the Christmas and New Year’s holiday, i.e., Dec. 26-28. Faculty working on special research projects requiring library materials during these days, should make arrangements through the Library Dean’s Office, ext. 2345. Also, please note that the online catalog, Polycat, will be down for maintenance Dec. 21-25.

Gov. orders ’90-’91 spending restrictions

Faced with increased expenditures and declining revenues, Gov. Deukmejian has issued an executive order prohibiting all state agencies from taking the following actions from any 1990-91 general fund appropriation:

* Hiring new employees;
* Ordering, leasing or purchasing of equipment; and
* Entering into, extending or amending any consultant or personal services contract.

The California State University has agreed to cooperate with the extent of the executive order. Implementation of the executive order and the granting of exemptions has been delegated to each campus president.

For Academic Affairs budgets in the General Fund, President Baker has delegated to Robert Koob, vice president for academic affairs and senior vice president, the campus authority to grant exemptions to the restrictions hiring new non-faculty employees and the restrictions on equipment, consultant/personnel services contracts.

Vard Shepard

Vard Shepard, 90, dean of the School of Agriculture from 1947-60, died Nov. 23 in Ukiah. A native of Park Rapids, Minn., he earned an undergraduate degree in agriculture from the University of Minnesota. Shepard was head of the Animal Husbandry Department at Cal Poly from 1932-38.

In 1941, he became head of the Animal Husbandry Department of the UC Extension Service. He returned to Cal Poly as dean in 1947, and retired in 1960. After retirement he was a consultant for the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Cairo, Egypt, and Guatemala. He is survived by two sons, two brothers and a sister.

School name change

The name of the School of Professional Studies and Education has been changed to School of Professional Studies. President Baker approved the change based upon the recommendations of the faculty of the school, Dean Harry Busselen, Vice President Robert Koob, and the Academic Senate.

Changes made in CSU Mission Statement

Gov. Deukmejian has signed SB 1570, a bill that reaffirms and amends the mission statements for public postsecondary education. The legislation was authored by Sen. Jim Nielsen (R.-Rohnert Park), who was a member of the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education.

The bill states that:

"The California State University shall offer undergraduate and graduate instruction through the master’s degree in the liberal arts and sciences and professional education, including teacher education. Presently established two-year programs in agriculture are authorized, but other two-year programs shall be permitted only when mutually agreed upon by the trustees of the CSU and the board of governors of the California Community Colleges.

"The doctoral degree may be awarded jointly with the University of California...The doctoral degree may also be awarded jointly with one or more independent institutions of higher education, provided that the proposed doctoral program is approved by the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

"Research, scholarship and creative activity in support of its undergraduate and graduate instructional mission is authorized in the CSU and shall be supported by the state. The primary mission of the CSU is undergraduate and graduate instruction through the master’s degree."
Degree candidates will be recognized

Degrees and certificates will be conferred on 1,088 candidates at the 1990 Fall Commencement ceremonies on Saturday, Dec. 8, in the Mott Gym.

The degrees will be conferred by President Baker, and conservationist Jean Lane of Portola Valley will give the commencement address.

Candidates from the schools of Architecture and Environmental Design, Business, Liberal Arts, and Professional Studies will be honored during the 9:30 am ceremony, and those from the schools of Agriculture, Engineering, and Science and Mathematics during the 2 pm ceremony.

Service awards help

The annual Service Awards Luncheon Committee is now being formed for 1991. The luncheon recognizes faculty and staff for years of service at Cal Poly and with the state and is one of the primary social functions of the year. The committee needs help in organizing the catering, decorations, ticket sales, advertising and program. If you are interested in helping with the luncheon, contact Sandy Sidah or Debbie Semling in Personnel, ext. 2236.

81 students chosen to study overseas

Eighty-one Cal Poly students have been selected to participate in the 1990-91 International Programs of the California State University system.

They are among a total of 475 people from throughout the 20-campus CSU system who will study at universities in 16 foreign nations during the next year.

Selection for the program is competitive. In addition to eligibility requirements, the selection process includes an interview with a committee of Cal Poly faculty and a final review by a statewide faculty committee.

Christmas tree sale

The Natural Resources Management Department and the Logging Sports Team are once again offering Christmas trees for sale. Monterey pines can be purchased for $16 (all sizes). Red fir trees will be available beginning Dec. 8 at a cost of $3 per foot. The farm is located on Stenner Creek Road just off Highway 1. It will be open from 3-5 pm weekdays and 9-5 weekends. Call ext. 1541 for more information.

Polyphonics on TV

The Cal Poly Polyphonics will be performing on a Christmas special produced by KCOY-TV, Ch. 12, on Saturday, Dec. 8, at 7 pm. Conducted by Dr. Thomas Davies, the choir will perform selections from their holiday repertoire. The taping of this special took place on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at the La Purisima Mission in Lompoc. Other instrumental and choral organizations from throughout the Central Coast will also be heard. A repeat of the broadcast is scheduled for Christmas Eve.

...spending restrictions

health and safety of employees and protection of property;

* Prevention of stoppage or critical reduction of essential services; and

* Prevention of disruption or diminution of the campus' instructional program.

President Baker has authorized a blanket exemption for recruitment and appointment of instructional faculty and graduate assistants. The exemption is necessary to avoid any curtailment of class offerings due to the restrictions.

December payday

The December Cal Poly payday for faculty and staff is Dec. 31. However, because this date is an official campus holiday, special arrangements have been made to have the Cashiers Office open between the hours of 3 and 5 pm for release of the payroll warrants. Please contact Payroll Services, ext. 2665, if you have any questions about the December payday.

Cal Poly grad wins national competition

A 1987 landscape architecture grad has won a national competition to design a standard informational kiosk for "back country byways" managed by the U.S. Bureau of Land Management.

Charles McClure, 29, now practicing in Santa Barbara, won the $1,000 prize in a competition sponsored by the American Recreation Coalition and the American Society of Landscape Architects.

The BLM expects to install several hundred of the kiosks over the next four years. The kiosks will provide detailed maps, travel tips, history and other information.
