UOP's Nordeen to be gift planning director

Ronald D. Nordeen, director of gift planning at the University of Pacific in Stockton, has been appointed Cal Poly's director of gift planning.

In making the announcement, Chuck Allen, executive director for university relations and development at Cal Poly, said, "Ron Nordeen is a development professional with more than 30 years of experience. He has conducted a number of successful capital campaigns; established planned giving programs at other universities; and supervised major gift solicitation programs. He will make a valuable contribution to the University Relations Division at Cal Poly."

Nordeen will fill the newly created position on Feb. 1. He will be responsible for planning, organizing, and administering Cal Poly’s planned and major gifts program. He will develop and implement the university’s long-range planned giving plan. He will be located in 212 Heron Hall.

Nominations invited for Academic Senate

The Academic Senate Office is accepting nominations to the Academic Senate for the 1991-93 term. The election will be held during Spring Quarter. Nominations must include a signed statement of intent to serve. Each school and Professional Consultative Services will need to elect senators.

In addition to the election of senators, the following schools have vacancies on the Academic Senate Research Committee: agriculture, architecture, engineering, and professional studies. The following schools also have vacancies on the Academic Senate University Professional Leave Committee (UPLC): agriculture, engineering, professional studies, and science and mathematics. The Research Committee and the UPLC are elected committees.

There is also one vacancy to the statewide Academic Senate for the 1991-94 term. For further information on this position, contact the Academic Senate Office, ext. 1258.

Nomination forms for these positions are available from the Academic Senate Office. All nominations are due in the Academic Senate Office (FOB 25H) by Friday, March 29, at 5 p.m.

Postal rates will rise beginning on Feb. 3

Beginning Feb. 3, postal rates for first-class letters will jump from 25¢ to 29¢. The rate will apply to first-class letters weighing one ounce or less. Each additional ounce will cost 23¢. A postcard will now cost 19¢, up from 15¢.

In addition, second-class mail will rise 22%, and third-class mail will go up by 25%.

There will also be an increase in international rates. A one-ounce letter to Canada will be 40¢; a new half-ounce rate of 35¢ to Mexico; and a half-ounce air rate of 50¢ to all other countries.

Deadline for spring fee waiver program

Information and applications will be available in the Personnel Office for eligible full-time or permanent part-time employees to participate in the Employee Fee Waiver Program. Part-time employees, to be eligible, must have attained permanency prior to reducing their time-base or must have been granted permanency by the president according to criteria outlined in the appropriate memorandum of understanding. Those who take Cal Poly courses under an approved program of career development, or who have courses approved as job related, may be eligible for waiver of certain fees.

Deadlines for Spring Quarter are:

- Feb. 1 - Fall Term Class Schedule available; Feb. 4 - SSF Forms available - pay fees; Feb. 14 - Capture registration begins for staff.

Employees currently registered will be sent Spring Quarter forms on Feb. 4. Those not currently enrolled, should contact Personnel, ext. 2236, for forms.
Retirement planning workshop scheduled

A representative from the Public Employees’ Retirement System (PERS) will be in San Luis Obispo to conduct retirement planning workshops for PERS members during the week of March 11. Issues to be discussed include retirement planning, the retirement process, post-retirement considerations, and the retirement allowance calculation with an emphasis on selecting the best retirement date. The workshops will be approximately one hour long. Attendance is by reservation only. To reserve a space, call the PERS Los Angeles area office at (213) 620-4430 by Feb. 15.
