Lebens, Crabb assume new posts

Frank Lebens, former associate vice president for academic resources, has been selected to head the combined divisions of Facilities Administration and Business Affairs.

Lebens succeeded Douglas Gerard as executive dean and, effective Sept. 30, when James Lardreth retires from his position as vice president for business affairs, Lebens will assume the title of interim vice president for business affairs. His telephone extension is 2581.

Charlie Crabb, former crop science professor in the School of Agriculture, was appointed to succeed Lebens as interim associate vice president for academic resources. He is responsible for managing resources for instructional programs. Crabb's office is Adm. 305, and he may be reached at ext. 2186.

Appointments

- Robert Dickerson, to a two-year term as chairman of the Physics Department.
- Laura Freberg, to a three-year term as department head of the Psychology and Human Development Department.
- H. Joanne Freeman, to a three-year term as chairwoman of the Industrial Engineering Department.
- John Maxwell, to a three-year term as chairman of the Chemistry Department.

Events calendar available on PROFS

The Communications and Special Events Department has been working on a university Master Events Calendar.

The events calendar can be viewed by anyone with access to PROFS. To view the calendar, simply type EVENTS on the "Calendar for:" line on the Process Calendars screen.

Information to be included in the events calendar should be sent to Jo Ann Lloyd in Communications and Special Events, Heron Hall. Campus departments were recently sent a supply of forms to be used for this purpose. For additional forms, call ext. 1511.

Sexual harassment workshop planned

A training workshop will be conducted for the Plant Operations Department and Cal Poly Sexual Harassment advisors Aug. 12 and 13 from 8:30 am to 4 pm in the Staff Dining Room. The workshops, sponsored by the Affirmative Action Office, will be conducted by Barry Shapiro.

Scholarship awarded

A former Architecture Department secretary has been awarded the $1,500 1991 Mothers for Peace Scholarship for academic achievement and contributions as a peace advocate and environmentalist.

Kim McGrew, who worked at Cal Poly from 1977 to 1988, is now a full-time student majoring in English. She also is a staff representative on the Public Safety Committee and serves on both the Environmental Health and Safety Subcommittee and the Parking and Traffic Subcommittee.

Scholarship awarded

A former Architecture Department secretary has been awarded the $1,500 1991 Mothers for Peace Scholarship for academic achievement and contributions as a peace advocate and environmentalist.

Kim McGrew, who worked at Cal Poly from 1977 to 1988, is now a full-time student majoring in English. She also is a staff representative on the Public Safety Committee and serves on both the Environmental Health and Safety Subcommittee and the Parking and Traffic Subcommittee.

Construction to begin on children's center

Major construction is scheduled to begin on the children's center in late September.

The center will be located in Parking Lot C-1 across from Alumni House. A major portion of Parking Lot C-1 has been blocked off to allow for work on underground utilities and soil testing. Construction is expected to be completed by Spring Quarter 1991.

Nancy Jorgensen, 55

Nancy Jorgensen, 55, of Arroyo Grande died Friday, July 19, at her home after a long battle with brain cancer.

Jorgensen was born in Honolulu, Hawaii, on July 5, 1936. After graduating from the University of Hawaii in 1959, she moved to San Luis Obispo county to work as a counselor at Cal Poly. In 1986, Jorgensen earned her master's degree in social work from Cal Poly.

She was an active member of the Cuesta Master Chorale, the San Luis Obispo Little Theater and Phi Beta Kappa. She was also the regular soloist at the first Church of Christ Scientist in Pismo Beach.

Jorgensen is survived by her husband, Leif Jorgensen of Arroyo Grande; three daughters, Lisa Jorgensen of Santa Barbara, Karen Jorgensen of Belmont, and Sonya Heller of Arroyo Grande; her father, Harold P. Westropp of Los Angeles; a brother, Robert Westropp of Fort Wayne, Ind.; and a sister, Kathleen Stauber of Wilmette, Ill.

Donations in her memory may be made to the Phi Beta Kappa Scholarship Fund, 50 Kevin Court, Walnut Creek, CA 94596, or to the American Cancer Society.
Position Vacancies

Vacant staff positions at Cal Poly and the Cal Poly Foundation are announced in this column and are posted outside the respective offices. Contact those offices (State: Adm. 119, 805-756-2236 — Foundation Administration Building, 805-756-1121) for applications and additional position details. Both Cal Poly and the Foundation are subject to all laws governing affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply. Applications must be received by 5 pm or postmarked by the closing date.

STATE
CLOSING DATE: Aug. 31, 1991
Secretary, $1954-$2313, Communications and Special Events, and Annual Giving.

FOUNDATION
CLOSING DATE: Aug. 30, 1991
Campaign Director, salary commensurate with experience. New Visions Program, School of Agriculture.

CORRECTED CLOSING DATE: Aug. 5, 1991
Recreational Sports Associate Coordinator - SSPII, 12 month, $31,440 annually, plus ASI benefits. Send letter of application, resume and list of references to: Cal Poly Recreational Sports, University Union 202-C.

CLOSING DATE: Aug. 30, 1991
ASI Assistant Director/Fiscal Operations, $39,024-$47,040. Submit a letter of application, resume, and list of references to: Sharon Crain, ASI, UU 212.

Call for entries

The county of San Luis Obispo is coordinating a call for entries of black and white photographs for a 1991 emergency information calendar. Fourteen photographs representing different facets of SLO county will be selected from the entries received, and 80,000 copies of the calendar will be distributed throughout SLO county. Each of the selected photographs will be accompanied by a statement by the photographer and a photo credit. Photographers must be residents of the Central Coast, and any entry that does not follow the instructions exactly will be disqualified.

Subject: SLO county images (can be details, landscapes, architecture, public/private points of interest, etc. Unique angles and styles are encouraged.)

Format: Black and white 8x10 prints. Name, address, phone number and location of photograph must be on the back of each print. No slides or color prints accepted.

Quantity: Maximum of two entries per photographer.

Remuneration: $100 per selected photo, plus photo credit. A single sentence statement (publisher retains right to edit) by the photographer about the photograph.

Deadline: 8x10 prints to be delivered no later than 11 am on Thursday, Aug. 15. An attempt will be made to notify all photographers of results, and every effort will be made to return photographs.

Drop-off Location: Kornreich Gleason Design, 385 Higuera St., San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

Questions: Call Kornreich Gleason Design at 541-8602.

CPR schedule

The last Summer Quarter Cal Poly Report will be August 22. The first issue of Fall Quarter will be Monday, Sept. 16. Copy is due at Communications, Heron Hall 208, one week prior to publication.

Who, What, When, Where

James Cushing, English, has had two of his jazz-standard poems, "Laura" and "This Nearly Was Mine," accepted for publication by The Bellingham Review in Bellingham, Wash.

Brad Dodson, Agricultural Education, served as coordinator of the "California Agriscience Institute," which provided California agriculture educators with systems and procedures to integrate technology and science into agriculture curriculum.

...WWW...W

Shawn Burn, Psychology and Human Development, and Azerm Wight, Chemistry, published an article, "Will the Use of 'Interesting' Examples as a Teaching Tool Help Improve The Performance of College Students on Science Tests?," in The Journal of Psychology.

Mike Malkin, Theatre and Dance, had his one-act play, "Class Act," professionally produced at the Mill Mountain Theatre in Roanoke, Va., as part of that theater's Centerpiece Series.

Robert L. Hoover, Social Sciences, was a member of the first American archaeological delegation to the People's Republic of China in June. The group was hosted by the Chinese Association for Science and Technology. The delegation visited institutions and sites near Beijing, Hohhot in Inner Mongolia, Xi'an in Shanxi, and Guangzhou in Guangdong. They saw sites ranging from the 800,000 year old home of Peking Man through the tombs of the Ming Dynasty. Hoover presented a paper at Xi'an Northwestern University on archaeology site protection.

Allan S. Baillie, Management, presented a paper and was chairman of a session on business ethics at the Pan Pacific Conference in Kuala Lumpur. His paper was titled, "Today's Business Ethics: A Moral Maze in a Changing World."

Paul Neel, Architecture, had an article "Who Controls Specialization," published in the AIA Memo, a publication of the American Institute of Architects.

Walter Rice, Economics, completed a study as principal economist for the Monterey and Santa Cruz Council of governments (AMBAG) and the Federal Aviation Administration. The study was titled "The Value-Added Contribution of AMBAG to Regional Airports."

Luc Soenen, Business Administration, was a guest editor for a special issue of Managerial Finance on "Foreign Exchange Management."

Luc Soenen, Business Administration, was awarded an honorary professorship at the Communications University in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China. During a recent visit, he also gave lectures organized by MOFERT in Haikow (Hainan Province).