B. Office of the Registrar Update: Cem Sunata, Registrar, reported that since this past fall, students are getting assigned a graduation date when they reach 75% degree progress, but the date can be changed through an application. After an audit this spring, the office discovered that many students expected to graduate at the end of this quarter still have unmet requirements, so a notification was sent out to warn those students. The new registration program is working well for upperclassmen, but freshmen are getting displaced by sophomores taking freshman level courses.
