Dr. Hazel J. Scott

Oklahoma State U. official named dean of student affairs

An Oklahoma State University official has been named dean of students effective June 1.

Dr. Hazel J. Scott, assistant vice president for Student Academic Services at the Stillwater, Okla., institution, was appointed by President Baker.

Scott succeeds Dr. Lorraine Howard, who has been interim dean of students since March 1987. Howard will return to her duties as associate dean of students.

The Du Quoin, Ill., native earned an undergraduate degree in elementary education at Southern Illinois University and a master’s degree in guidance and counseling at the University of Illinois.

Her Ph.D. was from Southern Illinois in educational psychology, and she did her dissertation on "An Evaluation of Systematic Training for Improving the Functioning of Academically Disadvantaged College Students."

The former second-grade teacher worked as an elementary school counselor and dorm director before becoming a staff psychologist in the Student Counseling Service at Illinois State University.

In 1973 she joined the Counseling Center at Bradley University in Peoria, Ill., as a counseling psychologist, and also served as an assistant professor of education in the Guidance and Counseling Department.

Two years later she moved to the University of Illinois’ Peoria School of Medicine as staff associate and assistant professor in psychiatry and behavioral science. In addition, she was health professions opportunity coordinator.

From 1979-84 Scott served as assistant and then associate dean for student affairs, and assistant professor in psychiatry at the University of Missouri-Columbia School of Medicine.

Scott came to the Oklahoma State University campus in 1984 as assistant vice president for student academic services.

Active in a number of professional organizations, she is a member of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars; the American Educational Research Association; the National Academic Advising Association; the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators; the National Association of Black School Educators; and the Association of Black Women in Higher Education.

Poly Royal to honor Rutan, Phil Bromley

The designer of the Voyager aircraft, which flew around the world without stopping for fuel, and a former agriculture professor will be honored during the 56th Poly Royal.

The student-run event will be held on Friday and Saturday, April 22 and 23. This year’s theme is “It’s Our Style.”

Rutan and Bromley will be recognized in opening ceremonies beginning at 10 a.m. on Friday on the lawn adjacent to the Theatre.

Poly Royal began in 1933 as "a country fair on a college campus" and now attracts more than 100,000 visitors.

Student clubs and organizations will show off the results of course work with displays on landscape architecture, marine biology, graphic communication, space travel, photography, textiles, natural resources management, food science, and city and regional planning, among others.

Many hands-on exhibits will encourage participation for the whole family. Children can enjoy a cow milking demonstration, watch a chemistry magic show, see the mini-tractor pull, or help with "The Giant Popsicle Stick Bridge Contest."

High school students can register for the 36th annual Poly Royal Math Contest, which will include the Trimathlon, two written exams, the Quiz Bowl, and an audience participation event.

In addition, the first-ever Cal Poly Regional Science Fair will enable local high school students to qualify for the California State Science Fair in May.

(Cont. on Page 3)
Student art exhibit opens in Art Gallery

"Free Style" is the name of the April 1988 juried student art exhibit in the Art Gallery of the Dexter Bldg.

Three professional artists will judge entries done in art and design classes. Works in basic and graphic design, free lance, packaging, photography, studio, and 3/D will be selected.

The show, sponsored by the Art and Design Dept., opens today (April 7) at 6:30 pm with a talk by Los Angeles design agency owner David Williamson. A reception will follow. The exhibit will continue through Sunday, May 1.

Environment is topic of Brower lecture

One of America's foremost conservationists and chairman and founder of Earth Island Institute, will present a lecture on the rights of future generations to a healthy environment.

David Brower will speak (today) April 7 at 7 pm in Chumash Auditorium.

Nominated twice for the Nobel Peace Prize, he has played a pivotal role in the creation of over a half-dozen national parks and seashores.

Brower was among those who tried to prevent construction of the Diablo Canyon nuclear power plant.

In 1969 he founded Friends of the Earth, a multinational organization operating in 29 countries, and the League of Conservation Voters.

Brower travels extensively for his Fate of the Earth conferences, which he initiated in 1982, and he is currently attempting to bring different peace and environmental groups together to achieve worldwide peace.

Brower founded Trustees for Conservation, the North Cascades Conservation Council, and the Sierra Club Foundation, and was co-founder of the John Muir Institute for Environmental Studies.

Ticket prices are $3.50 for students and $6.50 for the public. They can be purchased in advance at the UU Ticket Office and will also be available at the door.

The lecture is sponsored by the Speakers Forum of the ASI, the Association of Environmental Professionals, ECOSLO, Natural Selections, and the Sierra Club.

Western folklore featured in program

The folklore of the American West will be featured when a group of cowboy poets presents a program of readings on April 9.

Titled "An Evening of Cowboy Poetry," it will begin at 7 pm in Chumash Auditorium.

In addition to master of ceremonies Jesse Smith, three other poets who have appeared at the annual Cowboy Poetry Gathering in Elko, Nev., will perform. They are Billy Fouts, Doug McCutcheon, and Kent Reeves.

Also scheduled to appear on the April 9 program at Cal Poly are Dick Gilford, Tony Llardy, Bob McCutcheon, Jim Ross, and Mike Schweibert.

General admission tickets are priced at $5 for the public and $2.50 for students. They are on sale at Double D Feed and Supply and the Farm Supply Co. store in San Luis Obispo, the Paso Robles Ag Center, and the Lemos Ranch in Arroyo Grande, as well as at the UU Ticket Office.

The presentation is sponsored by the Cutting and Reining Club, an organization affiliated with the ASI.

'Art Within' exhibit on display in Galerie

The second annual university-wide juried student art exhibition will be on display through April 25 in the UU Galerie.

The best of show award went to Rene Bihan, a senior in landscape architecture. His three-dimensional work is titled "Space and Dream: A Journey into the Surreal Landscape."

Selected for honorable mention were Michelle Frey for her work in acrylics titled "Stacey;" Brent Martin for "320i" in airbrush; and Matte Faye for "Silent" in acrylics and gouache. All three are art and design students.

Also part of this year's exhibit will be an overview of student-designed posters and flyers promoting Poly Royal from past to present.

Viewing hours are Monday through Wednesday, 10 am-5 pm; Thursday, 10 am-8 pm; Friday, 10 am-4 pm; and noon-4 pm on weekends.

'Hot Seat' host Wally George will speak

Described as America's answer to wimpy talk shows, Wally George will speak at 7:30 pm on Friday, April 8, in Chumash Auditorium.

George, who hosts his own nationally syndicated talk show, "Hot Seat," reflects the utmost in conservative attitudes and is known for his verbal confrontations with those he calls "left-wing liberal idiots."

He targets his attacks on well-known liberals such as Jane Fonda, Jesse Jackson and Jimmy Carter.

He belittles the views of his guests who represent causes ranging from gay rights to the National Organization for Women.

Advance tickets are on sale at Boo Boo Records in San Luis Obispo and the UU Ticket Office. They are $5.50 for students and $6.50 for the public. Prices will be $1 more at the door.
Interim department heads are announced

Four interim department heads in the School of Liberal Arts have been named for the Spring Quarter.

Robert L. Hoover has been appointed acting department head for the Social Sciences Dept. He replaces Warren Delay, who will be on sabbatical.

The three other interim department heads are: Michael Malkin, Theatre and Dance, who is filling in for Roger Kervin; Robert Reynolds, Art and Design, substituting for Chuck Jennings; and Ronald Ratcliffe, Music, replacing Clifton Swanson.

Kervin, Jennings, and Swanson are all currently participating in the London Study Program.

Poly Royal Parking

Faculty and staff who will be parking on campus during Poly Royal, (8 am to 5 pm, Friday and Saturday, April 22-23), will need special passes to get through the barricades at the Grand Ave., College Ave., and Via Carta at Feed Mill Rd. entrances.

The passes, which are for access only and do not provide parking privileges, will be available at the Poly Royal Office. Those needing access both days will need to obtain a pass for each day. Cars without passes will not be allowed through the barricades.

Employees who normally park in the Health Center (C-7), Davidson Music Center (G-4) lots, and anywhere within Perimeter Rd. are being asked to park elsewhere so those lots can be available for activities use, pedestrian circulation, and handicapped parking. The Poly Royal Board urges those who get on campus early to park outside of the campus core. Those who do so, will not need passes.

To obtain passes, write the Poly Royal Board, UU 214. Be sure to specify the number of passes and date needed. The deadline is Friday, April 14.

For additional information about parking and access during Poly Royal, contact Tim Kraus, ext. 2487.

. . . Poly Royal

Visitors can see a static display of the DaVinci II, a student-designed human-powered helicopter, as well as an electronic laser show featuring classical, new age, and popular music.

Cal Poly will also demonstrate its pride in the humanities and arts by offering theater performances, music by the University Jazz Band and the Symphonic Band, a concert by the Combined Choirs, and an exhibit featuring winners of the campus-wide “Art Within” competition for students.

In addition, the Design Village Conference for architecture and design students will present noted science fiction writer and lecturer Ray Bradbury. He will speak on Thursday, April 21, at 8 pm in Chumash Auditorium.

Other events planned include competition by Cal Poly's nationally ranked rodeo team; the tractor pull, and sports such as polo, rugby, volleyball, gymnastics, softball, track and field, and soccer.

Visitors also can enjoy a variety of food ranging from Asian, Mexican, and Middle Eastern cuisine to such American standards as hot dogs, ice cream, and apple pie.

Visitors are encouraged to use San Luis Obispo city buses to reach the campus. All normal weekday routes will be in service on Saturday, and an extra shuttle bus will run every 30 minutes from City Hall to campus. For further information on Poly Royal bus service, call 541-BUSS.

Poly Royal is sponsored by the Poly Royal Board of the ASI. For additional information on Poly Royal, call ext. 2487.

Collective bargaining proposals available

Trustee procedures require that copies of the exclusive representatives' proposals and management's proposals be made available to the public in the main library at each campus.

Jan Pieper, director of personnel and employee relations, has forwarded to the Reserve Room of the Kennedy Library copies of the initial collective bargaining proposals submitted by the board of trustees of The California State University to the exclusive representatives of the following units:

- Unit 1 - Physicians (UAPD); Unit 2 - Health Care Support (CSEA);
- Unit 4 - Academic Support (APC); Unit 5 - Operations Support (CSEA); Unit 6 - Skilled Crafts (SETC); Unit 7 - Clerical/Administrative Support (CSEA); Unit 9 - Technical Support (CSEA).

A copy of these proposals is also available for reference in the Personnel Office.

Conference for high school counselors

High school counselors from throughout the state recently attended the annual Cal Poly High School Counselor Conference.

In keeping with this year's theme, "Help Us to Help You," the day-long program emphasized ways the staff at high schools can work with Cal Poly to ease the students' transition from high school to the university.

During the day, counselors had the opportunity to visit two of the seven academic schools to observe students and meet with faculty in labs, studios, and classrooms.

Additional workshops presented information on admissions procedures and student services.

The conference was sponsored by Relations with Schools, Student Academic Services, and POLY REPS, a student organization.
Concentration camp survivor will speak

A survivor of the Nazi Concentration Camp at Buchenwald and San Luis Obispo Mayor Ron Dunin will be featured speakers during the 1988 Days of Remembrance.

Sam Berkowitz will speak at 7:30 pm on Sunday, April 10, in the Theatre as part of the annual ceremony that honors the memories of the victims of the Holocaust.

Mayor Dunin, who fought with the Allies as a Polish officer during World War II, was instrumental in establishing a local Holocaust Memorial Committee.

The program will also include a candlelighting ceremony; music by violinist Frederick Balazs and pianist Gina German; and a discussion by History Professor Dan Krieger, who will talk about the historical context of the Holocaust.

The event is co-sponsored by Haverim, the Jewish student association, Congregation Ner Shalom and Congregation Beth David of San Luis Obispo.

Founder of World Neighbors to speak

For those who want to make a difference in this world or learn about other countries, Dr. John Peters will give a special lecture on Monday, April 11, in the Theatre at 7 pm.

Peters, 80, was nominated twice for the Nobel Peace Prize. He has helped more than 25 million people in 41 nations through World Neighbors, an organization he founded in 1952. He has often been referred to as "the Protestant Mother Teresa."

In 1987 Cal Poly nominated World Neighbors for the National Academy of Sciences and US Agency for International Development Award as a most outstanding contributor in Third World development.

This month, the first-ever student chapter of World Neighbors was started at Cal Poly.

The event is sponsored by the Ag Student Council, the ASI Speakers Forum, and the Multi-Cultural Center.

Fund-raising concert by tuba-piano duo

A number of performers have been coming to San Luis Obispo to help raise funds for the Symphonic Band’s upcoming concert tour of Japan.

On Sunday, April 10, Tony Clements, tuba, and Susan Azaret Davies, piano, will present a benefit concert at 3 pm in the Theatre. The program is sponsored by the Music Department.

Clements became the principal tubaist with the San Jose Symphony in 1981. He has performed with the San Francisco Ballet, the Oakland Symphony, the San Diego Pops, the Sacramento Symphony, and the Mozart Festival Orchestra.

Clements will travel with the Symphonic Band to Japan as one of its guest artists.

Ms. Azaret Davies is a member of the Music Dept., teaching piano and music theory. In addition, she is director of music at Mt. Carmel Lutheran Church in San Luis Obispo, and she accompanies the Cuesta College Master Chorale and all of the Cal Poly choirs.

Tickets for the concert are $6 for the public and $3 for students and golden agers. They are on sale at the UU Ticket Office and the Theatre Box Office.

Percussion ensemble to perform April 12

For their second annual concert the Cal Poly Percussion Ensemble will take listeners on an exciting mini-tour of the world. The concert is slated for 8 pm on Tuesday, April 12, in the Theatre.

The ensemble is conducted by percussion specialist Pauline Soderholm. A frequent player in the Mozart Festival Orchestra, she has been teaching at Cal Poly since 1984.

Numbers to be included are “A Whispering” by William Duckworth, a piece based on a collection of early American hymns; “Pulse” by Henry Cowell; and “African Welcome Piece” by Michael Udow, featuring African instruments as well as three African dance rhythms.

Joining the percussion ensemble will be the university’s Woodwind Quintet and the Clarinet Quartet.

General admission tickets for the concert are $3 for the public and $2 for students and senior citizens. They are available at the Theatre Ticket Office and the UU Ticket Office. Both ticket offices are open between 10 am & 4 pm weekdays.

The concert is being presented by the Music Department.

Symphonic Band to play in Cambria

Cambria is a great place to visit on a Sunday afternoon in April, and adding a little music makes it perfect.

The Symphonic Band will offer a benefit concert on Sunday, April 17, at 3 m. in the Coast Union High School Gym.

All proceeds from the concert will go to the band’s two-week musical tour of Japan in June.

Tickets are $5 for the family, $2 for general admission, and $1 for students. They are available at the Cambria Chamber of Commerce, Cambria Stationers, and the Santa Barbara Savings office in Cambria, and at ASK San Simeon Travel.

CPR schedule

Cal Poly Report is published weekly during the academic year by the Public Affairs Office.

Typewritten, double-spaced copy may be submitted to Jo Ann Lloyd, editor, by 4 pm the Thursday prior to the next publication.
'Books at High Noon' for Spring Quarter

"Books at High Noon" will open its Spring Quarter series with a review by Jim Simmons of the English Department. He will discuss "The Mask of Command" by John Keegan on Wednesday, April 13.

Other speakers will include:

Sponsored by the Kennedy Library, "Books at High Noon" is held on Wednesdays at noon in the Staff Dining Room. Faculty, staff, students and guests are welcome.

Performance is set by IMAGO company

IMAGO (formerly Theatre Mask Ensemble), nationally acclaimed masters of stage illusion, will bring its unique brand of entertainment to the Theatre on Friday, April 15, at 8 pm as part of the Center Stage Series.

The performances of IMAGO transport onlookers to a populous dreamworld of fanciful characters and odd creatures, where back can be front, top may be bottom, arms are really legs, and comings are goings.

These magical stagings are concocted by artistic directors and company founders Jerry Mouawad and Carol Uselman, and the look of their work defies categorization. Mime, dance, acrobatics, drama, costuming, and stunning visuals all combine for a truly one-of-a-kind theatrical genre.

Mouawad, Uselman, and their fellow performers work not only in a variety of masks, but in a number of mask styles.

The original music is composed by Daniel Brandt, and it enhances each stage piece with the suitably unconventional timbres of synthesizer and other instruments.

Tickets for the performance are $12 for the public and $8 for students and senior citizens for premium seating, and $10 and $6 for preferred seating. They are available at the Theatre Ticket Office between 10 am and 4 pm on weekdays. Reservations can be made by calling ext. 1421.

The Center Stage Series is sponsored by the Cal Poly Center for the Arts.

Scholarly writing seminar scheduled

A Seminar to help faculty and professional staff break writing blocks and do more scholarly writing will be offered this quarter. Topics will include overcoming major obstacles to writing, generating ideas, and creatively dealing with publishers and journal editors.

The seminar will be offered on six consecutive Tuesdays beginning April 19, from 3-4 pm in Room 152 of the Math and Home Economics Bldg. Mary Kathryn Harrington and Robert Lucas will lead the seminar.

The class is open to all faculty and professional staff. Those who sign up are asked to commit themselves to all six sessions. Seating will be limited. For information and reservations, call ext. 1508.

The seminar is part of a series of programs on professional development sponsored by the Office of Graduate Studies, Research, and Faculty Development.

Statistical consulting for Spring Quarter

The Statistics Department provides a statistical consulting service to the university to facilitate research design and data analysis in a wide variety of disciplines.

Dr. John Rogers will be serving as the principal consultant. He is available to help in design and analysis of faculty and student research projects. In addition, he will be available to lead seminars or tutorials on requested topics and offer advice on various computer packages currently available at Cal Poly. If there is some special area concerning statistical inference that is of interest to you, contact Rogers to arrange lectures on that subject.

Faculty members or students interested in utilizing the consulting service are encouraged to contact Rogers, Computer Science Bldg., Room 203, ext. 2861 or leave a message at ext. 2700.

Walk-In Consulting Hours:
Monday & Wednesday .. 1-2 pm
Thursday .................. 9-10 am
Friday ......................10-11 am

Appointments may be scheduled by calling during walk-in consulting hours or during office hours for students.

Office Hours for Students:
Monday and Friday ...... 9-10 am
Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday .............10-11 am
Good Neighbor Day planned for April 16

Cal Poly’s student government, the Associated Students Inc., is looking for individuals and community organizations that could use able-bodied workers for an afternoon.

Requests are being taken for service for elderly and handicapped persons from Five Cities to Atascadero.

The fifth annual Good Neighbor Day is scheduled from 11 am to 3 pm on Saturday, April 16. During that time students will do various jobs that have been requested through the ASI office.

Ideal projects are those that take two or more people from one to three hours to complete, such as simple home repair and maintenance chores, clean-up and small yard projects, and gardening.

Students provide the labor; materials and tools must be furnished by the party receiving assistance.

To request student help during Good Neighbor Day, call Linda Lee, ext. 1291, weekdays between 9 am and noon, now through April 14.

Social responsibility topic of discussion

Three religious scholars will discuss the social responsibilities of their religions according to the faiths of Islam, Christianity and Judaism in Chumash Auditorium on Monday, April 11, at 7 pm.

The speakers are Dr. Ihsan Bagby, director of the Islamic Teaching Center at the ISNA headquarters in Indiana; The Rev. Edwin Womack, pastor of the Trinity United Methodist Church in Los Osos; and Dr. Richard Hecht, professor of religious studies at UCSB.

They will address man’s role on Earth, the goals and social concerns for each of the three religions, and how each religion views the other two religions.

Each speaker will have up to seven minutes to address the different issues. There will be a short break, followed by a question and answer session.

Refreshments will be served prior to the lecture at 6:30 pm and during the break period.

Who, What, Where, When

Charlie Crabb, Crop Science, chaired the 13th Vertebrate Pest Control Conference in Monterey. He presented the opening remarks and introduced session chairmen during the three-day conference.

Virginia Walter, Ornamental Horticulture, presented “Floriculture in Zimbabwe” for the Plant Soil Science Department sponsored by the Department of Plant and Soil Science and Entomology at Texas Tech University.

Who, What, Where, When

Charlie Crabb, Crop Science, chaired the 13th Vertebrate Pest Control Conference in Monterey. He presented the opening remarks and introduced session chairmen during the three-day conference.

Virginia Walter, Ornamental Horticulture, presented “Floriculture in Zimbabwe” for the Plant Soil Science Department sponsored by the Department of Plant and Soil Science and Entomology at Texas Tech University.

Donald Lazere, English, has been appointed to a post with the National Council of Teachers of English. He will serve as a member of the Committee on Public Doublespeak. This committee is charged with alerting the teaching profession and the public at large to deceptive use of language by representatives of government, industry, advertising, the education community, and other sectors of society. Its annual Doublespeak Award calls public attention to glaring examples of euphemisms, gobbledygook, and other linguistic devices to mislead audiences.

Jan Duffy, Business Administration, presented a seminar for the Senior Core of Retired Executives and the Morro Bay Chamber of Commerce titled “Employment Law Pitfalls for the Small Business Employer.” She also recently presented a seminar in Shell Beach, “Central Coast Employment Law Briefing.”

Joe Weatherby, Political Science, chaired a panel, “Teaching Non-Western Issues,” at the annual meetings of the Western Political Science Association in San Francisco.

Earl Huff, Political Science, was the ASI panelist for “Teaching Non-Western Issues” at the annual meetings of the Western Political Science Association in San Francisco.

John Culver, Political Science, chaired a panel, “Judicial Selection and Unselection” at the annual meetings of the Western Political Science Association in San Francisco.

Randal Cruikshanks, Political Science, chaired a panel, “Revolutionary Change in the Third World” at the annual meetings of the Western Political Science Association in San Francisco.

Dianne Long, Political Science, delivered a paper, “Rational Choice and Policy Design,” at the annual meetings of the Western Political Science Association in San Francisco.

She also chaired the Professional Ethics Committee. In addition, she was a panelist for the following programs: “Recruitment and Mobilization Patterns of Elected Officials,” and “Maintaining Professional Vitality.”

Joanne Beaulie Ruggles, Art and Design, has had her artwork selected for the 1988 Western States Print Competition to be held at the Eccles Art Center in Ogden, Utah.

Howard Gee, Theatre and Dance, and Jim Chernoff, Theatre, organized and presented the “Live Audio Mixing and Reinforcement Workshop” at the 1988 United States Institute for Theatre Technology National Conference at the Disneyland Hotel in Anaheim. This pre-conference workshop was given to over 80 professional theater technicians.

Neil Webre, Computer Science, was awarded a contract valued at $69,889 from Northrop Corporation for continued Ada/Simulation Flight Research.

Charles Strong, English, gave a paper, “Critical Thinking as the Novum Quadrivium: Fallacies,” at the Pacific Division meeting of the American Philosophical Association in Portland, Ore. The session was sponsored by the Association for Informal Logic and Critical Thinking.
CSU wants bond act on November ballot

The CSU board of trustees voted unanimously to support placing of the Higher Education Facilities General Obligation Bond Act of 1988 on the November ballot. Introduced by State Senator Gary Hart (18th District) as SB703, the higher education bond act would provide approximately $6 million in new bond funds for additional construction at the CSU, University of California and the Community Colleges.

Approximately $135 million of the bond revenues is targeted to CSU Capital Outlay Projects recommended by Gov. Deukmejian. These funds would provide $30 million to correct health and safety code deficiencies; $12 million to make new and remodeled facilities operable; $17.5 million to respond to critical projects, such as high priority classrooms, student services buildings, and lab facilities; $64.5 million to initiate or complete construction projects; $2.5 million to eliminate instructional and support facilities deficiencies; and $10 million in support of off-campus centers.

Lecture series on education will begin

The newly elected president of the American Educational Research Association will be the first speaker in an "Innovative Teacher Education" lecture series.

Dr. Nancy S. Cole, dean of the College of Education at the University of Illinois, will discuss "The Role of Research in Teacher Education" on Thursday, April 14, in Science North 215.

The 7 pm program is sponsored by the School of Professional Studies and Education, the Teacher Education Institute, and Phi Delta Kappa, a professional fraternity in education.

The lecture series is designed to highlight the role of the Teacher Education Institute in developing an innovative teacher education program.

Other speakers in the series are Albert Shanker, president of the American Federation of Teachers, and Dr. John Maguire, president of the Claremont University Center and Graduate School.

Dateline...

THURSDAY, APRIL 7
Exhibit: "Art Within." Continues through April 25. UU Galerie.
Exhibit: "Free Style." Dexter Art Gallery.
Speaker: John Wise (Environmental Protection Agency) will discuss "Alternatives to the Land Disposal of Hazardous Waste." Sci E26, 11 am.
24-Hour Play-A-Thon: The Symphonic Band will perform in the UU Plaza, 11 am-6 pm; at Farmers Market (downtown), 6-9 pm; and finish in the Davidson Music Center 216.
Ecology Awareness Week: Information tables, music and discussion of local environmental issues. Dexter Lawn, 11 am.
University Club: Jim Aiken (Counseling Center) will discuss "Unwinding in a Wound-Up World." Staff Dining Room, noon.
Men's Tennis: UC Davis, Tennis Courts, 2 pm.
Speaker: David Brower (Earth Island Institute) will speak in Chumash, 7 pm. ($)
FRIDAY, APRIL 8
Speaker: Ronald Ritschard (Lawrence Berkeley Lab) will discuss "Energy Conservation in Housing — Current Research." Fisher Science 286; refreshments - 12:30 pm; lecture - 1:10 pm.
Baseball: CSU Los Angeles, SLO Stadium, 7 pm. ($)
Ballet: Theatre Ballet of Canada, Theatre, 8 pm. ($)
Speaker: Walley George (talk show host) will appear. Chumash, 7:30 pm. ($)
SATURDAY, APRIL 9
Baseball: CSU Los Angeles, SLO Stadium, noon. ($) Men's Tennis: CSU Sacramento, Tennis Courts, 1 pm.
Poetry Reading: "An Evening of Cowboy Poetry," Chumash, 7 pm. ($)
Concert: University Singers and the Madrigal/Jazz Ensemble, Theatre, 8 pm. ($)
SUNDAY, APRIL 10
Concert: Tony Clements (tuba) and Susan Azaret Davies (piano) will perform. Theatre, 3 pm. ($) Speakers: Sam Berkowitz (concentration camp survivor) and Mayor Ron Dunin are featured speakers during Days of Remembrance. Theatre, 7:30 pm.
MONDAY, APRIL 11
Speaker: John Peters (World Neighbors) will speak. Theatre, 7 pm.
TUESDAY, APRIL 12
Career Expo '88: Chumash, all day.
Women's Tennis: Westmont College, Tennis Courts, 2 pm.
Concert: Percussion Ensemble, Theatre, 8 pm. ($)
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 13
Books at High Noon: Jim Simmons (English) will discuss "The Mask of Command" by John Keegan. Staff Dining Room, noon.
University Club: W. Fred Stultz (Psychology and Human Development) will discuss "Changing Men in Changing Times — Myths and Reality." Staff Dining Room, noon.
Speaker: Nancy Cole (University of Illinois) will discuss "The Role of Research in Teacher Education and Teaching." Science North 215, 7 pm.
FRIDAY, APRIL 15
Speaker: Clarence A. Forbes (Professor Emeritus, Ohio State) will discuss "How in Hellas Did Sport Begin?" Science North 215, noon.
Women's Tennis: Fresno State, Tennis Courts, 2 pm.
Baseball: Cal Poly Pomona, SLO Stadium, 2:30 pm. ($) Film: "Wall Street," Continues on Saturday, April 16. Chumash, 7 pm. Second showing follows. ($)
Dance: Imago: Theatre Mask Ensemble, Theatre, 8 pm. ($) New publication set

Faculty, staff and students are invited to submit short fiction, poetry, photography, art, criticism, and reviews to a new publication, POLYHEDRON. The periodical will be published by the English Club, and the School of Liberal Arts. The first issue is planned for fall. All submissions should be sent to Mona G. Rosenman, head, English Department, FOB 32-C. The deadline is May 6.
Position Vacancies

Vacant staff positions at Cal Poly and the Cal Poly Foundation are announced in this column and are posted outside the respective offices. Contact those offices (State: Adm. 110, 805-756-2236 — Foundation: mobile unit near the Fire Department (805-756-1121) for applications and additional position details. Both Cal Poly and the Foundation are subject to all laws governing affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply. Applications must be received by 5 pm or postmarked by the closing date.

State

EXTENDED CLOSING DATE: 4-13-88

CLOSING DATE: 4-20-88
Evaluator Trainee or Evaluator I, $1896-$2264/Evaluator I. ESS/Evaluations Office.

Payroll Technician Trainee, $1342-$1456/month; 1 year leave replacement, Payroll Services Office.

CLOSING DATE: 5-11-88
Public Safety Officer, $2255-$2714/month. Public Safety.

Foundation

CLOSING DATE: 4-9-88
Program Assistant, $8.97-$10.87/hour, half-time, temporary through 6-30-89, with continuation subject to funding. Dairy Products Technology Center.

ASI

CLOSING DATE: 4-20-88 or until position filled
Student Services Professional II, $2260-$2719, full-time, 12 months, starting 7-1-88, Recreational Sports.

Candidates for positions on the faculty of the university are presently being sought, according to Jan Pieper, director of personnel and employee relations. Those interested in learning more about the positions are invited to contact the appropriate dean or department head. Salaries for faculty commensurate with qualifications and experience (and time base where applicable), unless otherwise stated. This university is subject to all laws governing Affirmative Action and equal employment opportunity including but not limited to Executive Order 11246 and Title IX of the Education Amendments Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply.

CLOSING DATE: 4-29-88
Lecturers (part-time), Foreign Languages. Department establishing a pool of applicants for possible positions in French, German, Japanese, and Spanish during Summer, Fall, Winter, Spring 1988-89. Duties include teaching elementary and/or intermediate language. B.A. required; M.A. preferred.

CLOSING DATE: 5-5-88
Lecturers (full or part-time), English Dept., Summer Quarter only. To teach American, British, and World Literature. Ph.D. in English required. Send applications, including curriculum vitae, 3 current recommendations, dossier, and transcript to Dr. Mona Rosenman, Head, English Dept.

CLOSING DATE: 5-6-88
Lecturer (full-time), Agricultural Education, 1988-89 academic year (subject to funding). Coordinate inservice education activities for high school and community college teachers of agriculture; teach undergraduate and graduate courses; advise students; supervise student teachers; and assist with co-curricular activities. Bachelor's required; master's in agriculture or agricultural education highly desirable. 3 years outstanding success as high school teacher of vocational agriculture (1 year within past 3 years); knowledge of agriculture, FFA and Supervised Occupational Experience Programs essential; and supervision of student teachers. Exp. with inservice activities for vo-ag teachers desirable; must meet qualifications to teach vo-ag in California.

CLOSING DATE: 5-30-88
Tenure Track Assistant/Associate, Animal Sciences and Industry, 1988-89 academic year. Duties: Teach animal nutrition and be qualified to teach in one or more species production areas; be familiar with nutrition lab work and chemical applications. Ph.D. in Animal Science with emphasis in animal nutrition required. Must possess minimum reqs. for ARPAS membership. Teaching or industry experience required.

Tenure Track Assistant/Associate Professor, Animal Sciences and Industry, for 1988-89 academic year. Duties include teaching animal breeding, animal genetics and development of breeding programs in farm animal species. M.S. in animal science required; Ph.D. preferred. Teaching and/or extension or industry experience and minimum requirements for ARPAS membership required.

CLOSING DATE: 5-31-88
Lecturer (full-time), Agricultural Engineering, for 1988-89 and 1989-90 academic years. Teaching courses in agricultural & engineering surveying, agricultural mechanics, computer applications, and tractor & equipment operation. Ph.D. in agricultural engineering or mechanized agriculture preferred; M.S. required.

CLOSING DATE: 6-30-88 or until filled
Tenure-Track Position or Lecturer (full-time), Civil and Environmental Engineering, for 1988-89 academic year. Tenure track position requires Ph.D. or equivalent; lecturer position requires M.S. or equivalent. Must have teaching and industrial experience in civil and environmental engineering. Transportation and solid mechanics specialization preferred. Send resume to Dr. M. L. Anderson, Search Committee Chair, Civil and Environmental Engineering Dept.

CLOSING DATE: 6-30-88 or until filled

Tenure-Track Position or Lecturer (full-time), Agricultural Engineering, for 1988-89 academic year. Tenure track position requires Ph.D. or equivalent; lecturer position requires M.S. or equivalent. Must possess minimum reqs. for ARPAS membership. Teaching or industry experience required.

CLOSING DATE: 5-30-88
Tenure Track Assistant/Associate, Animal Sciences and Industry, 1988-89 academic year. Duties: Teach animal nutrition and be qualified to teach in one or more species production areas; be familiar with nutrition lab work and chemical applications. Ph.D. in Animal Science with emphasis in animal nutrition required. Must possess minimum reqs. for ARPAS membership. Teaching or industry experience required.

Tenure Track Assistant/Associate Professor, Animal Sciences and Industry, for 1988-89 academic year. Duties include teaching animal breeding, animal genetics and development of breeding programs in farm animal species. M.S. in animal science required; Ph.D. preferred. Teaching and/or extension or industry experience and minimum requirements for ARPAS membership required.

CLOSING DATE: 5-31-88
Lecturer (full-time), Agricultural Engineering, for 1988-89 and 1989-90 academic years. Teaching courses in agricultural & engineering surveying, agricultural mechanics, computer applications, and tractor & equipment operation. Ph.D. in agricultural engineering or mechanized agriculture preferred; M.S. required.

CLOSING DATE: 6-30-88 or until filled
Tenure-Track Position or Lecturer (full-time), Civil and Environmental Engineering, for 1988-89 academic year. Tenure track position requires Ph.D. or equivalent; lecturer position requires M.S. or equivalent. Must have teaching and industrial experience in civil and environmental engineering. Transportation and solid mechanics specialization preferred. Send resume to Dr. M. L. Anderson, Search Committee Chair, Civil and Environmental Engineering Dept.

Awards deadline reminder: April 15

Nominations for 1987-88 Outstanding Staff Employee are due April 15. Send completed nomination forms to: Al Amaral, Chairman of Outstanding Staff Employee Award Selection Committee, Foundation Administration Office.