My name is Barry Mann, and I work at the California State University. I want to talk about the recent demonstrations on campus and the media coverage of them.

I was happy to see your interest in the demonstrations. I was quoted as saying that the media coverage was skewed, and that not many of the protestors really knew what they were protesting for. I think that the coverage was more concerned with the presence of the protesting students than with the substance of their protest.

It seems a shame that the military machine is so unwavering in its desire to make the majority of our students contribute to its war efforts. Why do we allow these spineless individuals to protest in front of the State Capitol, but not inside? Why don't we give the protestors the right to have a voice in the decisions that affect their lives?

I would like to see more coverage of the protests outside the State Capitol. It seems that the media is more interested in the activities of a statistically insignificant group of protestors than in the activities of a large, but quiet, group of students who are training to become an integral part of the armed forces.

Although it is in the democratic tradition to allow the press to print what it chooses, I would like to see more coverage of the protests outside the State Capitol. Conservatively Speaking

This is an open letter to those journalism students who were part of the "new left movement" and your right wing counterparts. I am writing to you about journalism and the current status of Cal Poly's chapter of Big "little movement." You might want to pay attention to the following letter by your right wing counterparts.

Your zeal for protest is commendable, but I doubt if it will help anything. Your views are probably veiled in violence and the use of your language and action is probably not the best way to go about this. You could be more effective if you sponsored your own forums on campus which might be more communications and more food for thought. All expressed views would be respected, and of course the words of the right wing were not the best way to go about this.

You expressed your beliefs in a manner that is not easy to understand. I doubt if you could be more effective if you sponsored your own forums on campus which might be more food-for thought. It is a shame that you are not more cooperative to the right wing. Your views seem to be more effective if you sponsored your own forums on campus which might be more food for thought. It is a shame that you are not more cooperative to the right wing.

Athletes honored at banquet

Captain John Miller of Cal Poly's outstanding wrestling team and Ed Headrick, starting pitcher for Poly's baseball team, were selected as the Outstanding Athletes of the 1966-67 academic year at the Mustang banquet held Wednesday night in the Poly Student Union. Both received $500 cash prizes.

Miller, who graduated in June, was named for the "Most Inspirational Warrior Award" and the "Most Outstanding Freshman Athlete" as well as the Broses award.

Headrick, who is a junior, was selected as the "Most Inspirational Freshman Athlete" as well as the "Outstanding Freshman Athlete".

Carl DeYoung, sophomore, was the "Most Outstanding Journalist" as the "Most Outstanding Student Body Officer". The all-outstanding student body officer of the year was Tony Weatherford, senior.

Other special awards given were: Larry Purdy, Brosh and Frank Trumbo for "Most Inspirational Team Members"; Frank Trumbo, Bob Goss, Fred Edwards and Mike LaRoche for "Most Inspirational Managers".

Other special awards given were: Wearin John Claff, "Outstanding Football Player"; Gayle Harris, "Outstanding Women's Athlete"; Larry Jones, "Outstanding Male Athlete".

Flyers up in air over new planes

Members of the Mustang Athletic Club are ready to up in the air over the latest addition to their organization, the new Flight Club. The club was formed in order to complete with Senate Bill 1055, which state that all athletes must be insured from one dollar to $1,500.

Since that date we have been the nation's focal point. We are one of the few schools that has complied completely with Senate Bill 1055, which state that all athletes must be insured from one dollar to $1,500.

"We are playing much better, and we are much more competitive. We are playing much better, and we are much more competitive. We are playing much better, and we are much more competitive.

"Since the mishap in 1960 our athletes have had the finest medical care in the world. Since the mishap in 1960 our athletes have had the finest medical care in the world. Since the mishap in 1960 our athletes have had the finest medical care in the world.

"This past year two of our athletes have had doctor bills in excess of $1,000 but most injuries are from $5 to $20. "We are now at a definite crossroad. If the Senate bill is amended we can take care of ourselves and still keep a low premium. If the bill is not amended we must pay a big premium and our athletic program will probably be finished.

"They made a bad deal and now they're trying to get out of it. These are the words of Graduate Manager Bob Purcell in reference to the Hartford Insurance Company and their policy with the Mustangs.

"We are one of the few schools that has simplified completely with Senate Bill 1055, which state that all athletes must be insured from one dollar to $1,500. To protect our athletes we pay a premium of $5,501 but, as for this year the Hartford Company has paid out $9,000. This would relieve some of the pressures from the Hartford Company and their policy with the Mustangs.

"This past season $1500 was spent on special helmets to cover the third straight year of head injuries.

"In 1960 and 1961 our baseball teams were killed during a game. A few weeks later a tractor airplane crashed during a game and killed our football team. Since that time we have lost three of our athletes, and three of our coaches.

"Since that date we have been the nation's focal point for athletic excellence. Since that date we have been the nation's focal point for athletic excellence. Since that date we have been the nation's focal point for athletic excellence.
