Oh, we were embryos of Cal Poly, and we knew all over our minds that we never ever cross any bridges. Business majors, engineering majors, art majors, and all of the above were aware that what happened in the past was not going to happen in the future. That is the theme of our institution. It is the theme that we all know and yet be.driven to do it all over again. We are the future of this institution. We are the ones who have to make sure that the mistakes of the past are not repeated. We have to be the ones who are the leaders of this institution.

The last time we had a meeting, we talked about the future of our institution. We discussed the need for change and the need for us to be the ones who are going to bring about that change. We talked about the need for us to be the ones who are going to stand up and be counted. We talked about the need for us to be the ones who are going to be the leaders of this institution.

Conservatively Speaking

by Bob Batterman

One of the things I find unique about us is that we are still a country of small towns. The small-town atmosphere is still very much in evidence here. We have a lot of community spirit, and small-town life is really a wonderful thing.

I would have gotten back into the car and driven home. I can’t imagine being stuck in a traffic jam while driving to work.

Turner leads Mustang speedsters

By George Hume

Cecil Turner had another brilliant afternoon as the Mustang sprints captured 11 first places out of 22 entries in a meet Monday at Northridge. The meet, which started at 2:30 p.m., contained 17 events.

The Mustangs, who have won 10 of their 11 meets this season, are now tied with the Vikings for the league lead. The Mustangs will face the Vikings in their next outing on Friday afternoon.

Turner, who is currently finishing his senior year, is the most valuable player on the Mustangs' track team. He was a member of the 220-yard relay team that finished second in the meet.

The Mustangs are currently in the lead in the league standings. They have won all of their meets except for their loss to the Vikings.

Booming enrollment

Enrollment in California's public, junior, and community colleges increased 98 percent during the 1967-68 academic year. The increase was the largest in the state's history.

The increase in enrollment was attributed to several factors, including the state's economic boom and the demand for higher education.

The statement at a recent Student Affairs Committee meeting was "We can make Mustang Daily print to order." I am getting sick of this sort of thing. We have often heard statements from members of student government who are strictly concerned with their own interests and disregard the rights of others. It is quite possible that some of them give any suggestions to improve conditions. Student members of the Associated Students Incorporated, however, are not interested in the financial problems of the paper. They are interested in the content and the quality of the paper.

I have been a member of the Associated Students Incorporated and have been involved in the operation of Mustang Daily for several years. I have seen the problems and the difficulties that the paper has faced. I believe that the Associated Students Incorporated is doing a fine job of operating the paper.

I am concerned about the way in which Mustang Daily is being run. I think that it is important to have a newspaper that is run by students for students. I believe that the Associated Students Incorporated should take more of a role in the operation of the paper.
