Jefferson Airplane buzzes crowd

By Peter Ruhestadt

"Pardon me, Sailor," and "Let's dance," were among the most frequently heard words in the arena Thursday night as the Jefferson Airplane plugged in and took off on its latest campus tour.

...They screamed, "Let's dance." The Jefferson, a well-known group out of San Francisco, gave a two hour performance to more than 4,000 students.

The audience was fired up by the Jefferson's electric sound, and the group fired up the audience in return. The Jefferson timed it perfectly, being a rock group...

Human experiments ripped
by Ilevs Rosenberg

Pappworth, a former scientist, has written a book about the human experiments that he was involved in during his time at the University of California.

"Human experiments are used to test new drugs, and the public is often unaware of the risks involved," said Pappworth. "In the book, I..."
Jefferson Airplane: We love you.

The Jefferson Airplane, which recently performed at the College Union Assemblies Committee last week, were only two of the many bands that took part in this year's Fall Festival. The week-long event included concerts by many well-known bands and groups, with the Airplane being one of the highlights.

Science honors awarded here

Two students were awarded science honors titles. The awards were presented by the editor-in-chief of the College Union Assemblies Committee.

American jazz combo almost plays in U.S.S.R.

The American jazz group was scheduled to play in the U.S.S.R. at the time this issue went to press. However, the group was unable to perform due to technical difficulties.

Fees, no building?

In order to save money, the Jefferson Airplane decided not to use a building for their concert. Instead, they chose to perform in an open area.

Foreign students

If there are any foreign students here, who won’t be here next year, and who have not made definite plans for the coming year, please contact the director of the Foreign Student Office or the International Student Association in order to communicate with People To People.

Officers installed

The Cal Poly chapter of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars was installed during the coming year. They are the following: President, Bob Kocsor ( pledges, Ron Schubert, Ted Slater, and Kathy Rohls; Vice-President, Cathy Cummings; Secretary, Bob Combs; Treasurer, Tony Primo.)

The NSCS is entirely student run and functions in the same manner as any other campus organization.

The next service activities include a membership banquet during the month of May, and the distribution of service and academic awards to all present members and guests.

Hedges aid young

Members of the Gamma Sigma Sigma Sorority recently passed through the campus gates wearing the new “signature” hedges. The Sorority purchased the hedges in order to promote the University and raise the campus beauty.

The Campus Post Office

The post office in the Math Building is open from 9:00-5:00 each day. The post office is located on the first floor of the Math Building across from the Math Building office.

The post office is open to all members of the university community.

Sorority notes

The Gamma Sigma Sigma and Chi Omega sororities held their annual Grand Ball last Saturday night. The event was held at the St. James Hotel and was attended by all members of the sorority.

The Grand Ball included a fashion show, a dance, and a Silent Auction. The proceeds from the event will be used to support the sorority’s charity and community service projects.

The Gamma Sigma Sigma sorority will be hosting a bake sale at the next meeting to raise money for their upcoming trip to Mexico.

The Chi Omega sorority will be hosting a car wash at the next meeting to raise money for their upcoming trip to the Bahamas.
