President Rush Hill

We need new blood - ASI Prexy Rush Hill

It's going to be a great year! We've got a new president, Rush Hill, and it's time to give him back to Cal Poly. I hope you're aware of some of the high

President Kennedy welcomes students

Of course, I'm not a member of the Student Affairs Council. I'm a member of the Board of Trustees, and I was recently appointed by the President to be the representative of the faculty, non-academic staff, and employees in the Board of Trustees.

President Rush Hill

In developing on this campus a model for political democracy against war, I've seen the processes of Remember MS and worn that I wish to convey to you. The 80 students who were present at the meeting on Wednesday evening were deeply moved by the stories of those who have suffered at the hands of war. We must remember the lesson of the past, and we must work to prevent the recurrence of such suffering in the future.

President Kennedy addresses summit conference in Cambria

Tours work to be in best interests of communication network and successful college campuses. President Kennedy, in his address, described the importance of a collaborative approach and the need for a coordinated effort among various institutions.

Kennedy stated that it is vital for campuses to offer interdisciplinary courses and study abroad programs to foster a more integrated and globalized education. He emphasized the importance of fostering a sense of community among students and faculty, and highlighted the role of technology in enhancing the educational experience.

Kennedy also mentioned the significance of student engagement and participation in decision-making processes. He noted that students have a stake in the future of higher education and should be involved in shaping policies that affect them.

In conclusion, President Kennedy underscored the importance of collaboration and partnership among institutions to achieve the shared goals of improving education and preparing students for the challenges of the 21st century.

Sacramento State next grid rival

Last week the Hornets had to head to the Coliseum to face San Francisco, but this week they will have to play a game of Hornets and the Wolves of the Far Western Conference. The Hornets Route Senior City College will be played at Hornet Stadium.

CCAA title scramble predicted

Racing around the CCAA this year, the Hornets will go up to Fresno Pacific, Valley West College, and San Mateo College.
Each of these opponents has possibilities of becoming the Champion team. Valley West College, as a junior college, is one of the strongest teams in the Conference. Fresno Pacific is good in the West region and San Mateo College has been strong in recent years.

The Hornets attack is centered around quarterback Lyle James Greene, who is a senior and two-year letterman. Junior college transfers. Junior College, poses the break-ning team, with end Bill Yurong, transfer A1 Wentworth. He broke all passing records at Sacramento City College last season.

Letttermen Gary Smith, EK and Hafer, J. C. transfer to Contra Costa are the big defensive unit starters for the Hornets.

Gridders open at home Oct. 7

Cal Poly, which began its most successful football season in many years last fall, will host the U. C. Davis Aggies on Oct.
7. The Aggies have been working on their defense and should have a good chance to win.

The Mustangs will counter with Cal Poly's offensive and de-defensive line starters for the November 28 game. Cal Poly will come in strong after a string of losses last season.
The Mustangs will have to match the Hornets' experience in the quarterback deposition. This will be a challenging game for both teams.

The Mustangs fired off their first win of the season last week against San Francis-to. Their next game will be against San Francisco State.
