Viet conflict, major battle of WW III

WASHINGTON—Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, in testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said that the United States and its allies are not in a major battle with China but a "limited" one.

"To say that we are in a major battle with China is to imply that we are engaged in a war," Bennett said.

Young Democrats support reform

SANTA MONICA — The California Federation of Young Democrats has given its support to a motion to seek reforms in the party's national organization.

At a recent meeting, the Young Democrats adopted a resolution calling for reforms in the national organization.

Grand Avenue to open grand homecoming weekend

Grand Avenue, between the Little Theatre and the Ornamental Horticulture Department, will be the center of activity for the final days of the university's homecoming celebration.

On Tuesday, the university will host its annual grand homecoming celebration, which will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a homecoming dance, and a homecoming ball.

Tickets on sale

Tickets are available for the Homecoming Gala, which will be held on Saturday, October 28, at 8 p.m. in the University Center. The gala will feature a live auction, a silent auction, and a special performance by the university's Marching Band. Tickets are $50 per person and are available at the University Center Box Office.

Foundation aids students, faculty

What is the Cal Poly Foundation? It is a private, non-profit organization whose students and faculty don't know. For the Foundation is only one of the many organizations that give funds possible and to provide faculty and students services. In this instance, the Foundation supported the Biology Department's 19th Annual Biology Symposium.

The Foundation also helps financially or otherwise, in the case that a student's scholarship has run out. Only the present of the Foundation will assure a student the right to continue his education, and the faculty the opportunity to train new talent.

Democrats recruiting

The Cal Poly Young Democrats are recruiting their present membership. After this graduation, those interested in continuing their activities should contact their present leaders. The University of California Young Democrats, however, will continue to be active at the campus level, and will continue to participate in political activities.

Opinions sought

The Faculty-Staff Council is now seeking the opinions of its members for the upcoming fall term. As a result of the non-partisanship of the council, it is believed that members of the council will be able to provide an unbiased view of the current political climate.

Freshmen eleven rambles to lopsided 38-0 victory

Ed Cadena of Cal Poly established himself as one of the top cross-country runners of the West Coast. He ran to a third place finish in a meet held on a long Spartan Stadium track.

The Mustangs were started by Southwestern College. Cadena was a standout in the entire meet. Cadena was second in the 1.5-mile race and first in the 2.3-mile race.

Cadena led at two miles and saw battle over the new 6.3-mile race. In net, he kicked Cadena to establish the fourth place. He was timed at 8:37.44 for a 41-yard gain to the Picador line. Deitchman. Anderson’s conversion kick was good.

"WATER BUCKET” by Ray Osborne

The growing pains that are currently being felt on this campus were clearly apparent at the first two home games played by the Green and Gold at Mustang Stadium. The 5,000 capacity grandstand was bulging at the side lines as attendance records were set twice weekly running.

Local football buffs welcomed the Mustangs home with an enthusiastic crowd for the Cal Western game. The Fresno game the attendance record set a week earlier was surpassed as an estimated 7,000 fans filled every nook and cranny at Mustang Stadium.

The thrill of the evening contest began to form at 3 o’clock in the afternoon, and the student section was nearly filled some two hours before the game.

Still another attendance record may be set at Saturday’s Homecoming game against Long Beach State.

In the spring, baseball and track would be able to use the sports complex to good advantage. Mustang Boosters group that is presently helping to support Cal Poly athletics in such a big way.

Cadena led the Spartans to a new tie for the No. 1 spot in the league after squeaking past Phi Kappa Phi and Alpha Tau Omega each extended its unvanquished status in the conference.

Win is the second for ATO as they drew a bye last week. Phi Kappa Psi and Alpha Tau Omega are both undefeated teams, the Spoiler game in the Thousand Oaks’ Fall Meet was a thriller in a battle for the No. 1 spot.

All Inter-Fraternity Council games are played between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., Saturday.
