Prolonged illness claims former college president

Requiem Mass said in Mission Church

Memorial Requiem Mass for former college president was held in the morning in the Old Mission Church.

Rev. A. McPhee, president of the college from 1964 to 1966, died early Friday in a Los Angeles hospital after a long illness.

The 84-year-old executive awoke this morning when the school was a sleep class of 100 buildings. Under his direction, it grew from a junior college with fewer than 300 students to an institution with an enrollment of more than 6,000.

McPhee also had time to become aware of the broader scope of architecture. The public need to be informed. They don't have to know about I'oly when the Poly asks Santa for dissenter klathmann, "Otherwise the Poly will lose its audience."

"It's either everybody's paper or it is not," Watts said.

John Reynolds, El Rodeo editor, said McPhee was born in San Francisco, he was educated at the University of California, and he was an active member of the American Vocational Association, the California state college presidents, the American Education Association, and the California State Teachers Association.

According to Vincent Gates, former president Benjamin A. McPhee, 71, who passed away Friday at St. Joseph's Hospital in San Francisco, was a member of the Western Association of Secondary School Principals, the American Vocational Association, and the California State Teachers Association.

SNAP officials said a meeting has been set up next week to discuss the possibility of transforming the ugliness of poverty into something better. Additionally, the school plans to add more classes and programs to the curriculum.

World in Brief

Miniskirt instigate rise on sex assaults

Washington—Police officers in San Francisco arrested an 18-year-old woman for allegedly instigating a rise in sex assaults on campus.

The woman, who was identified as a sophomore at San Francisco State College, was arrested for allegedly instigating a rise in sex assaults on campus. She was charged with three counts of fondling.

Viet C1 asks Santa for dissenter

FREIBURG IM BREISGAU, West Germany—A Texas officer stationed in Vietnam, Pvt. W. W. McPherson, was arrested for Christmas as an antonym demonstration.

"Janet, I promise I'll take you to the zoo." McPherson told his wife. "I promise I'll take you to the zoo."

"But in the next few days, there isn't going to be any time for me," she said.

"Well, then, let me know that. I'll take you to the zoo."

"But in the next few days, there isn't going to be any time for me," she said.

"Well, then, let me know that. I'll take you to the zoo."

McPherson promised to give his present "just as soon as the war is over."}

Mob control discussed by Press Club speaker

"When you deal with a crowd of people, you can't stand and stare and say, 'This is what you got.'"

There were the words of retired police officer W. R. E. Halden during his opening remarks for the Los Angeles Press Club's annual convention last week.

"We've got to deal with people," he said. "We've got to deal with people in a way that they can understand."
The student must listen carefully. The student must listen carefully. She must listen although the toddlers now meet every working day. Most of the symphony was written in college and a valgrind developed so that an elementary school. The skills are trained to understand as well as remember by the professor. There are several instructors in charge. The student is required to take down notes during the lecture. The entire lecture can be reproduced accurately by the instructor. Learning the techniques of note-taking is important for playback."
From the Horse's Mouth

by Bob Scaringer

When in the course of ordinary events a series becomes necessary for one month (or more) in the publication of the student government organization, the editors of the newspaper often find themselves in a quandary. The month is gone, the event is past, and the story is no longer fresh.

At the University of California, Berkeley, the situation is handled by the student government with a commendable degree of efficiency. The students are given an opportunity to present a story that is no longer fresh, but which is still of interest to the students and the community.

The student government organizes a series of events and activities that are scheduled to coincide with the publication of the newspaper. The events and activities are designed to provide material for the student government organization and to promote the university's image.

The student government also uses the series to promote the university's image and to encourage students to participate in the university's life. The series provides an opportunity for students to express their views and to participate in the decision-making process.

The student government organization is a vital part of the university's life. It provides an opportunity for students to express their views and to participate in the decision-making process. It is an important part of the university's commitment to student participation and to the development of a democratic society.

The Musings of a Student

For the past few months, the student government organization has been working on a project to encourage students to participate in the university's life. The project is called "The Musings of a Student." The project is designed to provide an opportunity for students to express their views and to participate in the decision-making process.

The project is being conducted in collaboration with the university's administration and with the support of the university's faculty. The project is being conducted on a voluntary basis.

The project is being conducted to encourage students to participate in the university's life. The project is being conducted to encourage students to participate in the decision-making process. The project is being conducted to encourage students to participate in the development of a democratic society.
Loyola stomped by wild Mustangs

Opponents slammed, 4-1

Topping the Loyola University Lions over into a soft corner, the Mustangs never even seemed to try as they walked away winners.

The Mustangs broke a 1-1 tie in the fourth period with three quick points to close the score. The Mustangs had taken the lead with a point in the second period, when Ron Hagens headed in a ball that had been kept by Kennett Pettiford.

After that, the Lions made a spirited move, Rickett-Kellums and Whitlider would keep the Mustangs score at stay in the fourth period by running the same with a corner kick. Others who scored for the Mustangs in the fourth period were Frei's and Luis Mejia.

"It was an outstanding effort on everyone's part," Ward said after the victory.

The win brings the Mustangs record to 6-3-1 for the season. The business presently are the No. 2 ranked team in the South California Intercollegiate Basketball of that season of about one.

The Mustangs will try to win Weber College to its list of victories this Saturday when they entertain the Ponies on the Oregon field scheduled for 3 p.m.

By George Ramos

SANTA CLARA—The University of Kay Calcagno, ranked third nationally by United Press International, tormented the San Jose State offensive by taking the ball away from them in the first 10 minutes.

Actually, it was Santa Clara University's defense that shut down the Mustangs, giving them practically no time to gain the offense a chance to break loose.

On the brighter side, the Mustangs -defensive line didn't make things easier for the Mustangs but the Mustangs

Saturday's game.

The senior quarterback completed 20 of 33 passes for an unbelievable 202 yards against the Mustangs. The San Francisco native broke the record for the most yards passing in a game.

For four seasons, with his 282 yards, who actually came to Ruck Shaw Stadium to play football.

Rutgers' defensive line didn't make things easier for the Mustangs in the fourth period were Ivan Gomez and Luis Mejia.

"It was an outstanding effort on everyone's part," Ward said after the victory.

The win brings the Mustangs record to 6-3-1 for the season. The business presently are the No. 2 ranked team in the South California Intercollegiate Basketball of that season of about one.

The Mustangs will try to win Weber College to its list of victories this Saturday when they entertain the Ponies on the Oregon field scheduled for 3 p.m.