Sports story hit.

"It looks to me if all the People in the United States can't buy a newspaper for their sports section, George Foster ought to be studying history. It's not a good year for the Mustang Daily. They're probably just a good idea for some others, not for their own.

I have always been under the impression that one of the main purposes of a college is education. If this is so, education, good or bad, is a necessary evil. But I am sure that the story's opposite does not apply. How can these students answer the question of whether they can do the work? . Just how many of you trust you with sharp pencils? In regard to your Nov. 11 column "How's It Going?". But I don't think you are expecting an answer to this type of question, and I don't think you are expecting this type of coverage.

If the team's able to keep up their spirit when they are losing, the team's obviously lack the backing of the press. Instead of helping to tear it down, how can the team be expected to respect you with such a derogatory story being published. Tlie headline was bad and the entire story left a bad impression that one of the main reasons for the team's present position. How can the team be expected to keep up their spirit when they are losing? How can the team be expected to respect you with such a derogatory story being published? I don't think you are expecting an answer to this type of question, and I don't think you are expecting this type of coverage.

Typical, to this type of cutious coverage? How can the team be expected to respect you with such a derogatory story being published? I don't think you are expecting an answer to this type of question, and I don't think you are expecting this type of coverage.

Dear Comic Strip Reader,

By all means: If he does not want to kiss you, don't let him. He's a fool if he doesn't understand that you don't have to let him kiss you. I'm not saying that you can never kiss him, but you should never let him kiss you unless you want him to.

There are many things in the world that you cannot control. Some situations may be beyond your control, and others may be caused by factors that are outside your control. It's important to remember that, even in the face of unexpected events, you can still maintain your composure and find ways to cope. This can help you stay positive and resilient in the face of adversity. By focusing on your strengths and abilities, you can overcome challenges and thrive in difficult situations. Remember to take care of yourself and seek support when you need it.
Ron Stutzman top rusher

Halfback Ron Stutsman was cited as the Mustangs’ “outstanding player of the week” for the second straight week and for the third time this season. The wonder senior (270 yards in losses) has taken over the top ranking run position from his teammate, the 285-pounder, top rusher and former Mustang, Eddie Gudauskas.

Stutsman, a 180-pounder, finished with 30 yards rushing on 12 carries including the Mustang scoring carry around right end. He shared offensive honors for the second straight week after rushing for 86 yards against L.A. State.

Junior fullback Tony Calcagno was voted most valuable player after his performance against the Bronco defense. Stutsman was the Mustangs’ top gainer with 124 yards and the Mustangs’ top gainer with 124 yards and three touchdowns.

The Mustangs have one more game to go before finishing third in the competition. Orleans defeated Floyd and all the other teams in the recent NL.

Two significant victories were won by the Mustangs in their first two games against the University of Wisconsin and the University of Minnesota.

Relaxing restrictions prevent the NCAA from taking action against the University of Notre Dame for failing to meet its eligibility requirements. The NCAA has been unable to make its final decision on the Iowa team’s eligibility.

The Mustangs, however, remain eligible to compete against the University of Indiana and the University of Michigan.

The Mustangs, who have been linked with the University of Notre Dame, have been able to participate in the NCAA meet.
