It's almost time to mark our computer calendars, and the next big event is the upcoming election for the presidential nomination of the Democratic Party. Students who live in dormitories or have friends who live in dormitories will want to be aware of this important date.

We're living in a time when the term "accountability" is being used more and more. This is because we need to be able to hold ourselves and our institutions accountable for our actions. This is especially important in the context of the current political climate.

We believe that the election should be a time for all students to come together and discuss the issues that matter to them. This is a great opportunity to learn more about the candidates and their platforms, and to make informed decisions about who to vote for.

We encourage all students to participate in the election process. Whether you choose to vote in person or vote by mail, it's important to make your voice heard.

We hope that you will consider the upcoming election as an opportunity to engage in meaningful discussions about the future of our country. Together, we can make a difference in the election and in the world beyond.
The Mustangs have impressed the University of Wyoming squad at University of Wyoming nationals. Coach Vaughn Hite, who top-scored with 12 points in the Mustangs' 117-78 win, said, "He's living up to my expectations. He's been very consistent and his skills and his physicality to his wrestling ability," coach Hite noted.

Kline, who's wrestling in the "heavyweight" division against Wyoming's George Puckett, has won his first five bouts. He is also the only wrestler on the Mustangs who has wrestled a full season so far.

The Mustangs have been working on their technique and improving their conditioning. Mike LaKoche, who is a senior and captain, has picked off a couple of important matches this season. He is also the only wrestler on the Mustangs who has wrestled a full season so far.

The Mustangs are in good condition and are looking forward to their next match against Cal State Long Beach. They have a 3-5 record in their first five dual meets of the season.
