Archies add fuel to fire

Reapportionment issue heats up

by Kathy Lovett

Staff Writer

Robert Zucklin has arranged for the Student Affairs Council (SAC) to appear at the state legislature's reapportionment issue, the deadline being Feb. 21.

Within this time, the issue of reapportionment must be decided. If this reapportionment bill is passed by the State Senate, it would radically restructure the representation of the various schools being chosen by the legislature, he says. Chief proponent, Chief Rep. Halman, said that SAC representation on the state's behalf is going to be 53闪烁.

Theoretically, the SAC, the bill is introduced, will be in direct proportion to the number of student representatives in the schools.

Robert Zucklin said the Bill would be based on the student body of the institution, and would be extended in equal proportions in the State Senate.

The college bylaw, however, states that any school must be brought about in a state by state basis. If the bill is passed, they will go into effect next year.

There would be briefly addled on each of the four or five terms. If action were taken on decisions of the term, the student body could vote the same issues on another occasion if the bill is passed.

The idea of a SAC, Robert Zucklin concludes, would not have any set regulations for offerings, stated. "If this will be a border on the people on the outside," the student body could vote the same issues on another occasion if the bill is passed.

The idea of a SAC would be based on the bylaws according to student body of the institution, and would be extended in equal proportions in the State Senate.

The college bylaw, however, states that any school must be brought about in a state by state basis. If the bill is passed, they will go into effect next year.

Thoroughbred colts bring good price

Two thoroughbred colts sold for the college sold for a total of $4,500 at the annual auction of the California Thoroughbred Association in Los Angeles, County Fairgrounds, Pomona.

Clapped Twice, valued by Judge Allan and won at odds of 5-2, sold for $3,500 to Harry F. Riefel of the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds, Pomona.

Ahead and out of Lady Avila, 2-for-1, and $8.60 for the general public, they can be purchased at Mrs. Harold Riddell of Salinas, Riddell hee arranged for Congressman Burt L. Tolley of California to come to the campus seeking students for summer employment.

To the Editor:

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my opinion on the recent events at the University of California at Los Angeles. As a member of the student body, I feel it is important to voice my concerns about the current situation.

Recent events have highlighted the severity of the issues that are facing our campus. The recent demonstrations and their consequences have raised concerns about the safety and well-being of all students. It is crucial that we address these issues head-on and work together to find solutions that benefit everyone.

The University administration has a responsibility to ensure the safety and well-being of all students. This includes providing a safe and inclusive environment for everyone. It is disappointing to see that the administration has not taken these concerns seriously.

As a student, I believe that we should be able to learn and grow in an environment that respects our rights and values. The recent events have shown that we must continue to push for changes that will make our campus a safer and more welcoming place for all.

I urge all members of the University community to remain vigilant and to participate in discussions and actions that will promote a more just and equitable campus.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

In response to the recent events at UCLA, various organizations and individuals have taken different positions and initiated actions.

The University of California is seeking to address these issues through various initiatives such as hiring additional security personnel and implementing new policies.

The University administration recognizes the importance of these issues and is committed to working with all stakeholders to find solutions that will create a safer and more inclusive campus environment.

We encourage all members of the University community to stay informed and engaged in discussions and actions that will promote a more just and equitable campus.

Thank you for your attention to this important issue.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Leader found for key administrative post

Dr. Russell G. Wilkinson, associate dean of the College of Education and Liberal Arts at California State University, Los Angeles, has been appointed as an administrative assistant for the California State University system. He will oversee the statewide search for leaders of key administrative positions.

Dr. Wilkinson, who has served as an administrator at several universities, including Southern Illinois University and the University of Illinois, will be responsible for coordinating the search process and ensuring that qualified candidates are identified for key administrative positions within the university system.

Advertising scored by Sherman speech

"Advertising needs the 'Efficiancy-Powerful Perfect!'" was the slogan used by Sherman, a leading advertising executive, to promote his latest product line.

Sherman's speech was well received by the audience, who appreciated his clear and concise presentation. He emphasized the importance of advertising in reaching a broader audience, and how it could be used to promote a variety of products and services.

Leader fights back

Last year when Mike Elliott, President, told us that he was going to make some changes in the campus, we thought he was joking. But it turned out that he was serious.

Chicago Bears draft Cecil Turner

Cecil Turner, football and trackman, was drafted Tuesday by the Chicago Bears in the Indiana University professional football draft. Defensive backfield coach, Harold N. Hatcher, head basketball coach, and head track coach, Larry Moore of the Baltimore Colts. I wanted to follow in his footsteps.

Turner wants to play pro ball. Turner's comments on playing football to me have been those: "I love playing football in order to get a shot at playing pro ball. Purcell related this to Harden who then checked on Turner's progress. Turner states that he has played well for some time but has not played enough to be noticed by one of the professionals who he would like to play for.
