Collective bargaining proposals in library

Trustee procedures require that copies of the exclusive representatives’ proposals and management’s proposals be made available to the public in the main library at each campus.

Janet L. Pieper, director of Personnel and Employee Relations, has forwarded to the Reserve Room of the Robert E. Kennedy Library copies of the initial collective bargaining proposals submitted by the California Faculty Association — Unit 3. A copy of the proposals is also available in the Personnel Office.

Hitchcock resigns coaching position

Wrestling coach Vaughan Hitchcock has resigned effective June 15. Hitchcock, 49, compiled a 23-year career record of 353-110-4 at Cal Poly. This year’s squad registered a 9-13 dual match record and placed 11th in the recent NCAA Division I national championships.

Hitchcock will continue as a member of the Physical Education and Recreation Administration Department.

Parking restricted for Poly Royal

Faculty and staff who will be parking on campus after 8 am on Friday and Saturday of Poly Royal will need special passes to get through the barricades at the Grand Ave., Highland Dr., and College Ave. entrances to the campus core.

The passes, which are for access and do not provide parking privileges, are available at the Poly Royal Office, UU 214. Those needing access both days will need to obtain an individual pass for each day.

Employees who normally park within Perimeter Rd. or in the Health Center (C-7) and Davidson Music Center (G-4) Lots are also being asked by the Poly Royal Board to park elsewhere so those lots can be available for activities use, pedestrian circulation, and handicapped and VIP parking.

Those needing additional information about parking and access during Poly Royal or having special requests are invited to contact Jim Low in the Poly Royal Office, UU 214, ext. 2487.

Poly Royal scheduled for April 26-27

The largest university open house and spring festival in the Western United States will be held Friday and Saturday, April 26-27.

Poly Royal, which began 53 years ago as a “country fair on a college campus,” now attracts more than 100,000 people. This year’s theme is “Minds in Motion.”

The annual celebration features exhibits and displays prepared by students to show off the results of their studies in such fields as agriculture, computer science, marine biology, environmental engineering, architecture, graphic communications, space travel, natural resources management, and food science — to name just a few.

There are competitive events at Poly Royal as well, including performances by Cal Poly’s rodeo team, and other sports such as polo, rugby, lacrosse, volleyball, softball, track and field, and soccer.

On the academic side, there will be an annual architectural competition and conference known as Design Village. On Friday, some 800 high schoolers from across the state are expected to compete in the 32nd Poly Royal Math Contest, and the Ornamental Horticulture Department is sponsoring a “green thumbs” contest.

Visitors also can enjoy a variety of food, including several products produced in student labs. Student clubs offer choices ranging from Asian, Mexican, and Middle Eastern cuisine to such American standards as hot dogs, ice cream, and apple pie.

Poly Royal is a family event open to the public. Most activities are free, with the exception of the rodeo, certain concerts, and food.

Poly Royal is organized and run entirely by students and is sponsored by the Poly Royal Board of Cal Poly’s Associated Students Inc.

Philosophy professor will speak on abortion April 18

Dr. Tal Scriven, interim head of the Philosophy Department, will argue for a moderate, but non-relativistic position on abortion.

His talk, “In Defense of an Anti-Life, Anti-Choice Position on Abortion,” will take place today (April 18) at 11 am in UU 220.

Scriven will point out some basic fallacies committed by both pro-life and pro-choice advocates. His talk is sponsored by the university’s Philosophy Department and the Philosophy Club.
Auditions for lab theatre productions scheduled

The Theatre and Dance Department has announced auditions for a series of nine, one-act plays to be presented the latter part of May and first of June in the university’s Studio Lab Theatre.

Auditions will be held for three plays at a time on three separate dates.

This evening (April 18) from 7 and 10 pm, auditions will be held for “Stickman in Paris” by Cris Inserra; an original script, “The Swan Song” by Anton Chekhov; and “Impromptu” by Tad Mosel.

On Wednesday, April 24, from 5 to 7 pm, auditions for the next three plays will take place. They are “Visitors from Forest Hills” by Neil Simon; “Everyman” anonymous; and “Roomies” by Greg Owens.

Auditions for the last three plays, “The American Dream” by Edward Albee; “The Monkey’s Paw” by W. W. Jacobs; and “The Brute” by Anton Chekhov, will be held on Thursday, May 2, from 5 to 8 pm.

All of the auditions will be held in the Theatre Scene Shop, Room 206 of the Davidson Music Center. There are roles for 20 men and 15 women between the nine plays. No advance preparation will be necessary in order to audition. Students and non-students alike are encouraged to try out.

For further information telephone Michael Malkin at ext. 2030.

Earthquake Preparedness Week

The State Office of Emergency Services has proclaimed this week (April 15-20) for observance of Earthquake Preparedness Week. The announcement points out that most earthquake casualties result from falling objects, splintered glass, fallen power lines, and fire and explosions.

In addition to providing earthquake safety audits for campus buildings, the Public Safety Department has pamphlets and other information on earthquake safety. To arrange an audit or obtain pamphlets or information, telephone Don Van Acker, assistant director of public safety, ext. 2281.

View of surplus equipment

All department technicians wishing to view the surplus equipment prior to the May 7 Surplus Property Sale may do so from April 22 through April 26. Items will be at the State Warehouse from 8 am to 3 pm daily for viewing (closed noon-12:30).

Any surplus not transferred during that week will be sold at the sale. Any questions may be directed to the Property Dept., ext 2570 or the Warehouse, ext. 2872.

Musical excursion planned for 1985 Poly Royal

As part of the 1985 Poly Royal celebration, members of Cal Poly’s combined choirs are inviting the San Luis Obispo community to climb aboard their musical train for an excursion through America.

Departure times for “The Great American Journey” will be 8 pm on Friday and Saturday, April 26 and 27, in the Cal Poly Theatre.

This sentimental journey begins in Washington, D.C., and crisscrosses the United States. During stops along the way, the singers and dancers will salute America and her great cities via melodies from Broadway and Hollywood and today’s pop charts.

Selections to be performed include “New York, New York;” “Ghost Busters;” “California, Here I Come;” “Chicago;” “Meet Me in St. Louis;” “The Yellow Rose of Texas;” “Chattanooga Choo Choo;” and “America, the Beautiful.”

Musical director for the “Great American Journey” is Thomas Davies. Sanford S. Smith is the choreographer and Robert A. Coltrin Jr. conceived the concept for the production and is the scenic designer. Playing the piano will be Susan Azaret Davies, with Glenn Weigand on the drums.

Tickets are $5 for the public and $3 for students. They will be available at the UU Ticket Office and in downtown San Luis Obispo at Cheap Thrills and Boo Boo Records. Reservations can be made by calling the Cal Poly Theatre, ext. 1421, between 10 am and 3 pm on weekdays.

Chick Corea concert will kickoff Poly Royal

Pianist and composer Chick Corea, a man who moves easily between the worlds of classical and jazz styles, will perform with his Electric Band in the main gym on Thursday, April 25, the evening before the Poly Royal weekend. The opening act, as yet unnamed, will begin at 8 pm.

Advance tickets for Corea’s performance are $9.75 for students, children, and senior citizens, and $11.75 for the public. They can be purchased at all locations of Cheap Thrills and Boo Boo Records, and at the UU Ticket Office on campus. Prices are $1 more at the door.

The April 25 concert is a presentation of the Program Board Concerts Committee of ASI.

Caps, gowns deadline

Faculty are reminded that the deadline for caps and gowns for June Commencement is Tuesday, April 30. Please contact Janet or Kitty in Customer Service at the El Corral Bookstore for complete details and prices.
Security during Poly Royal

All Cal Poly faculty and staff are reminded of the importance of being concerned for the security of university facilities. Poly Royal will begin at 10 am on Friday and will continue through Saturday evening. As all are aware, the event is basically a student-planned and student-managed activity, but it is also this university’s official “open house” to the general public. With thousands of visitors on campus, security of facilities and equipment is particularly difficult.

Department heads should request faculty or staff volunteers to serve for short periods of time as additional security help. The volunteers would be most helpful in making equipment and facilities more secure.

Any suspicious actions, such as “proposed” movement of equipment by other than properly identified and authorized personnel, should be questioned on the spot and reported immediately to the University Police Department, ext. 2281.

However, the assistance of departments in providing adequate manpower for each departmental area during the hours when facilities are open to the public will minimize the security risk. When departmental areas are to be closed after Friday and Saturday visitations are concluded, personnel on duty should take special care to see that all visitors are out of the facility before the area is vacated and locked by department personnel.

Bookstore offers IBM discounts

El Corral Bookstore has concluded an agreement with IBM to distribute their microcomputer products at special educational discounts. Persons wishing further information or to order a computer are invited to check with Art Dressel (ext. 1101) in the Bookstore.

Peace Corps artifacts displayed at Kennedy Library

Artifacts gathered by those who served in the Peace Corps are currently on display at the Robert E. Kennedy Library. The items on display through April 30 in the library’s Gallery depict aspects of other cultures rarely seen in the San Luis Obispo area, including intricate weaving and embroidery from Guatemala, Honduras, and Costa Rica. Many of the pieces have sentimental value to the Peace Corps volunteers because they were presented as farewell gifts.

Other artifacts include a Moroccan necklace showing the “hand of Fatima” to ward off the “evil eye;” hand puppets from northern Ghana; and jewelry worn by the Maasai tribe. Photographs and commentary add to the handmade art of clothing, baskets, sculpture, and everyday objects. The exhibit is a joint effort of the Cal Poly Peace Corps Office and returned Peace Corps volunteers.

Coronation Ball will honor Poly Royal Queen, Court

The queen of Cal Poly’s 53rd annual Poly Royal, Angela Darnell, and her court will be crowned officially at the Coronation Ball, 9 pm to midnight, Saturday, April 20, in Chumash Auditorium.

Entertainment and music for dancing will be provided by the University Jazz Band, under the direction of Graydon Williams of the university’s music faculty. Dessert and refreshments will be served. Attire will be semi-formal. The public is invited to attend.

Tickets for the Coronation Ball are priced at $10 per couple and $5 for singles. They can be purchased at the UU ticket office through 4 pm on Friday, April 19. For more information telephone the Poly Royal Office at ext. 2487.

Dateline

($) - Admission Charged
(!)- Admission Free

THURSDAY, APRIL 18

Exhibit: Artifacts collected by Peace Corps volunteers will be on display April 30. Library Gallery. (!)
Speaker: Tal Scriven (Philosophy) will discuss “In Defense of an Anti-Life, Anti-Choice Position on Abortion.” UU, Room 220, 11 am. (!)
Music & Poetry: A presentation of music & poetry relating to people’s experiences during the Holocaust is planned in the UU Plaza, 11 am. (!)
Summer Trips: Time to think about getting away this summer to Europe, cruise in the Bahamas, Jamaica, or bike touring in New England. Sponsored by UU Travel Center. For details call ext. 1127. ($) - Admission Free

CRAFT CLASSES: There are still spaces available in ceramics, basic auto repair, silk screening, stained glass and more. Sponsored by the UU Craft Center. Sign up now or call ext. 1266 for further information. ($) - Admission Free

University Club: Cliff Swanson (Music) will discuss “Computers in Music.” Staff Dining Hall, noon. (!)
Men’s Tennis: Long Beach State, 2 pm. (!)
Auditions: Try out for a part in “Stickman in Paris,” “The Swan Song,” or “Impromptu.” Davidson Music Center, Room 206, 7-10 pm. (!)

FRIDAY, APRIL 19

Film: “The Last Starfighter,” Chumash, 7 pm; second showing follows. ($) - Admission Free
Bike Touring: Pedal along the beautiful Kings Canyon area. Continues through Sunday. Details in the Escape Route, UU 112 or call ext. 1287. ($) - Admission Free

SATURDAY, APRIL 20

Baseball: St. Mary’s, SLO Stadium, noon. ($) - Admission Free
Women’s Tennis: Cal State Northridge, noon. (!)
Softball: Chapman College, Softball Field, 1 pm. (!)
Coronation Ball: Poly Royal Queen, Angela Darnell, and her court will be officially crowned. Chumash, 9 pm. ($) - Admission Free

(Cont. on Page 4)
Position Vacancies

Vacant staff positions at Cal Poly State University and the Cal Poly Foundation are announced in this column and are posted outside the respective offices. Contact those offices (State: Adm. 110, 805-546-2236—Foundation: mobile unit near the Fire Department (805-546-1121) for applications and additional position details. Both CalPoly and the Foundation are subject to all laws governing affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. All interested persons are encouraged to apply.

State

CLOSING DATE: 5-3-85

Clerical Assistant I-A, $553-$650.50/month; half-time flexible, Personnel Office.

Clerical Assistant II-A, $594.50-$700.50/month; half-time, Industrial Technology.

Instructional Computing Consultant II, $2273-$2739/month, Computer Services

Vice Provost for Academic Programs

Provost Fort invites applications and nominations for the position of Vice Provost for Academic Programs. Reporting directly to the Provost, major responsibilities of this senior administrative officer include leadership in curriculum development and review, academic programs planning, academic policy interpretation, administration of the General Education and Breadth Program and coordination of the graduate programs at the University. The offices of Institutional Research, Graduate Study, and Academic Program Planning report directly to the Vice Provost for Academic Programs. The position will be available in September 1985.

Candidates should possess demonstrated leadership and management skills, be well organized, and have a successful record in academic planning, curriculum development, policy development and analysis. They should have a minimum of five years University teaching and three years relevant academic administrative experience. The ability to establish good working relationships with University faculty and administration is important, as is the ability to work effectively within the largest system of public higher education in the United States. Experience in such a system is an asset. An earned terminal degree is a requirement.

To assure full consideration, applications and/or nominations should be received by May 17, 1985. These should be sent to: Vice Provost for Academic Programs Search, Office of the Provost, Cal Poly State University, San Luis Obispo, CA 93407.

Candidates for positions on the faculty of the university are presently being sought, according to Jan Pieper, director of personnel and employee relations. Those interested in learning more about the positions are invited to contact the appropriate dean or department head. This University is subject to all laws governing Affirmative Action and equal employment opportunity including but not limited to Executive Order 11246 and Title 1X of the Education Amendments Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. All interested persons are encouraged to apply.

CLOSING DATE: 5-15-85

Lecturers, (part-time), salary commensurate with qualifications, experience and time base, Music. Positions are available for the 1985-86 academic year, and are contingent upon enrollment and available funds. Classes that may be taught include one-unit activity classes in beginning and intermediate piano, guitar and voice, and intermediate and advanced woodwind instruments; 3-unit lecture classes in music theory I, music fundamentals, music for children and recording engineering. Candidates for lecture classes must have a Master's degree in music. All must be excellent musicians with college level training in music, or the equivalent, and successful college teaching experience in the performance area specified.

CLOSING DATE: 5-17-85

Lecturer (part-time), salary commensurate with qualifications, experience and time base, Physics. Possible teaching of lecture or laboratory classes in physics or physical sciences during 1985-86 Fall, Winter, or Spring Quarters anticipated. M.A. required; doctoral degree preferred. Send letter, resume, and names of three references to Keith Stowe, Physics Dept.

CLOSING DATE: 6-1-85

Assistant or Associate Professor (tenure track), salary commensurate with qualifications and experience, Theatre and Dance. Position available for the 1985-86 academic year. Responsibilities include teaching 12 hours per quarter in dance activity courses and professional preparation courses. M.F.A. or Ph.D. degree desired in dance at time of hiring, and a minimum of three years teaching experience in dance at the college or university level.

CLOSING DATE: 6-15-85

"Visitor From Forest Hills," Auditions: Try out for a part in "Visitor From Forest Hills," "Everyman," or "Roomies." Davidson Music Center, Room 206, 5-7 pm. ($) Film: "Animal House," Chumash, 7 pm; second showing follows. ($)